Michigan 'N-Dump' Of World?

Kelley Fears Selection Of Alpena As Site

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan's attorney general says he suspects federal authorities want to locate a nuclear waste dump near Alpena so wastes can be shipped in from around the world.

"The nation's treaties to provide foreign countries with nuclear generating plants commit us to remove and dispose of nuclear wastes from the plants we sell to foreign nations," said Frank Kelley in testimony Tuesday before the Governor's Task Force on Nuclear Waste Disposal.

He said the only advantage Alpena has as a waste dump over areas in North Dakota or Arizona is that it is a major deep water shipping port.

"The selection of Alpena as a possible dump site makes me wonder if the federal government intends to take the wastes from some or all of such (international) nuclear plants and ship those wastes to Michigan for disposal," Kelley said.

North Dakota and Arizona have the same kind of salt beds as does Alpena, Kelley said. The government has said the salt beds are prime areas for burying the nuclear wastes.

He reiterated his belief that the Michigan Legislature can by passing new laws prevent nuclear dumping in the state no matter what the federal government says.

The U.S. Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) has promised Gov. William Milliken veto power over the dumping.

But Kelley said he has seen no "formally written, irrevocable and legally enforceable document" to allow that veto.

"ERDA has been very evasive and secretive about this entire matter," said Kelley. "I am not sure this is an agency we can trust."

Neither can federal assurances that the dumping plans are safe be trusted, he said. "I have had some experience, as attorney general, with assurances by experts whose interests lay in getting a project approved and under way," he said.

Kelley, who lived in Alpena for 10 years before becoming attorney general, was one of several people who told the task force that the state should take all possible steps to prevent dumping, or at least to prove beyond a doubt that it is safe.

ERDA has suggested Alpena, Presque Isle and Montmorency

counties in the northeastern Lower Peninsula as possible sites for burial of highly radioactive wastes produced by nuclear plants.

It has said it will choose its dump sites in fiscal year 1978, which starts in July.

Spring Fever Gets Chilled

Following a balmy, spring-like Tuesday across most of Michigan, chilly winds swept back into the state overnight and forecasters warned that it isn't quite time to put away the winter clothes.

The temperature, according to the National Weather Service, is to dip to the low to mid-20s tonight. And there is a chance of snow or rain on Friday and again on Sunday, as more appropriate late winter temperatures continue through the weekend. Spring arrives officially next week.

The thermometer touched a low of 31 degrees in Benton Harbor last night, the first time it has gone below the freezing point since March 8. The high reading here Tuesday was 66 degrees. Fruit growers indicated the return of cooler weather was welcome, to hold back premature swelling of buds in orchards and vineyards.

The mercury hit a scorching 77 degrees in Detroit at 3:58 p.m. Tuesday, the warmest temperature ever recorded for the city so early in the season. The previous record for March 15 had been 70 degrees in 1940.

Lansing soared to 73 degrees at 3:49 p.m., smashing the old record of 69 degrees set in 1945.

The temperature reached 59 degrees at Alpena and Pellston on Tuesday, breaking old records.

BOTTLED UP LAST YEAR

Drinking Age May Get Hearings

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Efforts to raise Michigan's legal drinking age are being stymied by a politician who is "unduly influenced by the liquor industry," says state Rep. Melvin DeStigter.

His remarks Tuesday were aimed at Rep. Stephen Stopczynski, chairman of the House Liquor Committee, who refused to hold hearings during the last legislative session on bills to raise the drinking age.

Stopczynski, a Detroit Democrat, denied any influence from the liquor lobby and said he plans to hold the hearings this session.

Stopczynski said he held up the bills last year — one of them sponsored by DeStigter — because DeStigter "was using that bill for political purposes. He was running for re-election."

All state representatives, including Stopczynski, were up for re-election last year.

Stopczynski said if the rest of the liquor committee approves a higher drinking age he won't bottle up the legislation. But he voiced little enthusiasm for the idea.

Numerous legislative efforts have been made to raise the drinking age since it was lowered from 21 to 18 in 1972. A recent University of Michigan study blamed the lower age for an increase in traffic accidents involving drinking teen-agers.

School administrators have complained of students drinking over the noon hour and giving liquor to their younger friends. "I believe we did a disservice to our 18- to 21-year-olds when we lowered the legal drinking age to 18," DeStigter, R-West Olive, said at a news conference. "We gave them something they aren't ready for and can't handle."

Asked about the inconsistency in allowing 18-year-olds to vote and fight wars but not to drink, DeStigter said drinking requires greater maturity than the official responsibilities of adulthood.

DeStigter wants to raise the drinking age immediately to 21. Others suggest raising it to 21 over three years to avoid disenfranchising those now allowed to drink, while some school officials advocate a drinking age of 19.

Jack Bittle, a Sturgis High

School principal and vice president of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals, said raising the age to 19 would at least ease the problems at high schools.

Bittle said students put up posters in school hallways to announce keg parties.

"We're going to be graduating some alcoholics," he said.

LUCIANO PORCARI Air Odyssey Ends

"He behaved like a gentleman. He even tried to calm down my children."

Porcari released seven other passengers in Turin, Italy, and nine in Zurich Tuesday.

The hijacker brought the plane to Zurich from Warsaw where he had agreed to free all hostages in exchange for the new crew to fly him to Moscow. After three hours of negotiations, the Spanish ambassador to Poland, Jesus Millarado, said:

"We can't understand the man's mind. He must be crazy. It has nothing to do with politics. He just thinks he's solving his personal problems."

Porcari's mother, in Turin, blamed the hijacking on the Italian government, whose policies she said had forced her son to go to Africa to find work without assistance.

"He was an honest boy and would have never hurt anyone because he has a good heart."

Car Crash Suits Bring Benton Pair $183,000

A Benton township man was awarded a $38,000 consent judgment in Berrien circuit court Tuesday, bringing to $183,000 the total he and his wife have won in 17 months from judgments resulting from traffic accidents.

Judge Chester J. Byrns entered the $38,000 consent judgment for J.C. Ray, 1435 Highland avenue, after attorneys stipulated to the judgment before trial was to start.

The judgment went against State Farm Mutual Insurance Co. and was for benefits due under a no fault policy Ray held with State Farm.

Ray originally had sought $150,000 from State Farm as a result of a back injury he sustained Sept. 21, 1974, when his auto was struck by a car driven by Millard Bradley, South Webster, Ohio, in New Buffalo township.

Ray and his wife, Effie, also sued Bradley, and last October a jury in Byrns' court awarded the couple $110,000 for Ray's injuries and loss of consortium by his wife.

The third judgment resulted from another accident. Judge Byrns in a non-jury trial in November, 1975, awarded the couple $35,000 for injuries Mrs. Ray sustained in a 1972 automobile accident in Holland. Ray received part of the judgment claiming loss of consortium as a result of his wife's injuries. Opposing counsel in the most recent case were Kalamazoo Attys. Mark Zarbuck and Fred Farrer, representing Ray, and Benton Harbor Atty. Thomas Robinson, counsel for State Farm.

Long Aerial Hijack Over

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — An Italian hijacker was overpowered by Swiss police and arrested today at the end of an 8,500-mile pirate flight in a Spanish airliner around Europe and West Africa. It was the second longest hijacking in distance on record and the longest by a lone hijacker. Police said the hijacker, Luciano Porcari, managed to grab his Winchester rifle and fire one shot, slightly wounding one of the three policemen who seized him inside the plane. No one else was hurt, the police said.

"Holy Mother of God, it's finished," said Porcari's estranged wife in Turin, Italy, when she heard it was over. The wife, Isabella Zavoli, had refused to surrender the couple's 5-year-old daughter to Porcari, one of his demands during the 41½-hour hijacking.

Police said Porcari, a 38-year-old auto mechanic, was being held in investigative custody pending a decision on whether he should be tried in Switzerland. Spain is expected to seek his extradition.

The three policemen entered the plane posing as members of a fresh flight crew that was to fly the Iberian Airlines Boeing 727 to Moscow. They subdued the hijacker within moments.

The 13 passenger-hostages still aboard the plane and the seven exhausted crew members who had manned the aircraft since early Monday afternoon were released unharmed.

Also aboard was Porcari's 3-year-old daughter by an African mistress. The child was picked up in the Ivory Coast.

"He didn't treat us badly," said Maria Teresa Lloret Castell, one of the freed hostages.

Carter's recent nationwide radio phone-in program drew thousands of attempts to reach the president, and has been termed a political success. Two Michigan residents were among those who got through to the president.

'Marriage Penalty' Likely To Be Reduced

By JIM LUTHER Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee appears ready to fatten the House-approved permanent tax cut for married couples and take away some benefits now earmarked for single persons.

No large sums are involved in either case. But action contemplated by the committee could mean a tax increase of about $25 for 1.8 million single persons.

It's all in the name of reducing the "marriage penalty," which often has been accused of enticing persons to live together without benefit of marriage. The debate is on the tax-cut bill approved by the House earlier this month as part of an effort to stimulate the economy.

The "marriage penalty" arises from the fact that current law allows single persons who do not itemize deductions to take a minimum standard deduction of $1,700, while the same allowance for a couple filing a joint return is $2,100. The maximum standard deduction for singles is $2,400; for couples filing jointly it is $2,800.

Thus, two single persons who formerly were allowed to deduct a total of $3,400 could deduct only $2,100 if they married and filed a joint return, as most couples do. That means the couple would have a taxable income $1,300 higher than if he

Were it left to me to decide whether we should have government without newspapers or newspapers without government, I should not hesitate to prefer the latter. — Thomas Jefferson.

Not Very Soon--And Not Nearly Enough

Alaska, in addition to vast amounts of oil, also holds the nation's largest untapped deposits of natural gas. "Alaska is the Persian Gulf of North America," Vice President Walter F. Mondale said when he was still a U. S. senator.

With natural gas in critically short supply across the country, many Americans are wondering how soon and how much Alaskan gas will be available to the "Lower 48." Unfortunately, the answers are: not very soon and not nearly enough.

Alaska has proved natural gas reserves of about 26 trillion cubic feet, mostly around the Prudhoe Bay oil fields on the North Slope. The United States in recent years has consumed about 20 trillion cubic feet of natural gas annually.

There are currently three competing proposals to pipe or ship Alaskan gas to U.S. markets:

The Alaskan Arctic Gas Pipeline Co., a consortium of 15 American and Canadian companies, wants to build a 4,200-mile pipeline down through Canada to connect with existing U.S. and Canadian lines. Estimated cost: $8.4 billion.

The El Paso Natural Gas Co. proposes to build an 800-mile gas line parallel to the Alaska oil pipeline, then to liquefy the gas and ship it to California aboard special tankers, where it would be regasified and pumped through another 800 miles of new pipeline to connect with existing lines. Estimated cost: $7.8 billion.

The Northwest Pipeline Corporation would construct an 1,800-mile pipeline that would parallel the oil pipeline to a point south of Fairbanks, then follow the Alcan Highway to the U.S.-Canadian border, connecting with expanded or existing lines. Estimated cost: $7 billion.

On Feb. 1, an administrative law judge for the Federal Power Commission recommended approval of the Arctic Gas route, calling it "vastly superior" to the other two projects. But El Paso is promoting the "all-American" nature of its proposal, while Northwest boasts that its Alcan route is preferred by environmentalists because it follows existing pipeline and highway corridors.

In Washington and Ottawa, there has been unofficial but firm support for the Arctic Gas route as a joint venture that would ease strained U.S.-Canadian relations. A proposed treaty to encourage cooperation won preliminary approval in January, but has not yet been ratified.

The months ahead will bring a series of deadlines leading up to a final decision on the Alaskan gas pipeline. By May 1 the Federal Power Commission must submit its final recommendation to President Carter. By July 1 the Council on Environmental Quality, after public hearings, must state its preference. By Sept. 1 the President must make his choice known to Congress, although he could take an extra 90 days to decide. Congress will then have 60 days to approve or disapprove by a joint resolution. If it disapproved, the President would make a second — and final — recommendation and Congress would act on that.

Behind the scenes, all the while, a fierce lobbying battle will be under way. Whatever route is chosen, natural gas will not begin moving south until the early 1980s. And by then it will supply — at most — about 5 per cent of annual U.S. consumption.

Re-tinkering With The Time

There must be something about the first faint hints of approaching spring which cause members of Congress to long for longer hours of sunlight. The plunge to tinker with daylight saving time is on again with no fewer than six bills introduced so far to change the currently scheduled six months of DST.

These bills run the gamut from shortening the period to three months to extending it year round. Chances are good that at least some of the proposals will result in serious consideration.

Congress has changed the parameters of DST before, so often in recent years that probably few persons can recall without checking that the law now calls for DST to run from April 24 to October 30.

Don't be surprised if Congress takes an extended break from its heavy legislative schedule to see if it can confuse this issue once again.

Too Much Credit Going To Communist Nations

In international trade, as with much lower levels of commerce, persistent lenders can find themselves in as much hot water as consistent borrowers. While it is true that credit promotes trade, continuing and unredeemed credit sooner or later works against both parties.

Trade deals between nations carry the additional penalty of political repercussions if credit is extended too far. That soon may be the position western bankers find themselves in through credit extended to Eastern Europe, a British study suggests.

Credits offered by the West to enhance trade with the Soviet bloc have been extensive in the last several years. By the end of 1976, outstanding debts owed by the East bloc to the West have been estimated as high as $80 billion, with perhaps a third of that representing goods not yet shipped.

What worries Prof. Richard Portes of London University, author of the latest study, is that much of the debt is built on very lenient credit terms, without benefit of collateral or other guarantees. Further, the rate of debt accumulation indicates it could pass $100 billion by the end of the decade.

Already there is speculation that Poland, for one, will be unable to meet its obligations when they come due. Portes also found that little of the debt represents investments designed to increase trade. Most of the borrowings have been used to beef up production for domestic consumer consumption and thus have little chance to earn hard currency to reduce obligations.

If Poland or another East European country defaults, the experience might well draw that country closer to the Soviet Union, in effect giving the West a political loss as well as a financial one. The communist world obviously has taken wholeheartedly to the western concept of credit. It has not yet demonstrated what it will, or can, do when the bills come due.

DOES TOWNSHIP NEED MANAGER?
Editor,
We are glad to hear the Sidney Rosenbergs are thinking along the same lines that we are, and we sure hope more interested taxpayers will be heard from. Why can't there be an Election for a new St. Joseph township supervisor? Why are they changing to a manager? If Mr. Orval Benson cannot or does not have the time to fill the job, why doesn't he just resign and then he can do that fishing, hunting and vacationing like he stated he wanted to do in last week's paper. Why should we have a manager and an assistant manager? We are just putting more tax burdens on us taxpayers that are unnecessary.

And where did they come up with the $21.00 salary figure for Mr. Izzy DiMaggio? Is he qualified for the job? Mr. Benson has been in this job for 15 years or longer and with Mr. DiMaggio being in the treasurer's office for such a short time, is he ready for such a big job already? Or is it that big salary?

We do need some new young politicians in St. Joseph township with some good ideas for us over-taxed taxpayers and senior citizens. What has our Township done for the Senior Citizens? They have no housing projects or meeting place, and will not even give a donation to senior citizen center in St. Joe city that invites our senior citizens to come and enjoy.

Does the new township hall being built now have a room where the senior citizens could meet?

We are glad the Rosenbergs mentioned Watergate as we sure are all aware of that awful word. And remember St. Joseph township taxpayers, we had the police department, water and sewer forced on us and never had a chance to vote on any of them.

PROBLEMS COME UP AFTER THE ELECTION
Editor,
It is really amazing to observe the apparent gap that our local government management has towards the public. The gap seems to be between management's ears. It almost serves the public right for voting these individuals into office. Do you notice that the person you voted into office always seems to have public problems "after" the election and never before?

I wonder about the legality in St. Joseph township's latest move to create a manager's job and fill the position with a person that was elected as treasurer? And the present supervisor wants his present salary just to continue being chairman of the board? Why didn't he complain of his workload before the election? Maybe Mr. Benson hasn't learned to delegate his authority.

Mr. Robert Townsend (who wrote Up the Organization), the man that made Avis what it is today, said in his book, "anyone who has an assistant should be fired a hundred dollars a day until he eliminates the position". If St. Joseph township needs a manager then a select citizens group should be tasked with reviewing and interviewing no less than 20 applicants for this position and Mr. Benson's pay should be cut. To hire from within is just what is needed to spark the fires of recall.

Then we have neighboring Benton township with possible police layoffs. I understand that all of last year's police budget wasn't used and they still had a record year of arrests. Now that sounds like Chief Sieber's men are efficient users of the taxpayers' money. Now these fellows don't get shift pay (State Police do). Can you imagine being asked to work the midnight shift and not get a pay increase? And that one of their senior officers makes less money than a St. Joseph city police officer? And that the new proposed police budget is to be

It is somewhat of a paradox that Liberty bonds should be put up as security for the appearance of respondents who are accused of preaching sedition and revolt, and to whom the government which issues the bonds it represents oppressive capitalism at its worst, but it is nevertheless a fact that a few days after their arrest, the "reds" walked out of the county jail and left instead bail totaling $88,500 which has since laid in the vaults of the Union Banking company.

All 'Junkets' Not Vacations

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — On paper, it looks like the worst kind of congressional "junket." There's Rep Phillip Burton, D-Calif., listed as taking a two-week, midwinter trip to the sunny climes of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and St Thomas in the Virgin Islands.

Burton's Caribbean visit cost the taxpayers almost $1,500. The trip was made in December 1975 and January 1976, but it didn't become an object of public derision until last month when he once again was in the Virgin Islands, during the winter's worst cold spell.

Reporters poured over congressional travel records to find no fewer than 15 similar Burton excursions during the past six years. "Balmy Breezes Embrace Burton and Entourage," proclaimed one newspaper headline.

In an era when the public perception of congressional ethics has plunged to abysmal depths, it's easy to make snap judgments about legislators' real and imagined proclivity for what the travel agents call "tropical playgrounds."

But that simplistic approach doesn't always do justice to a complex situation. Burton, for instance, happens to be chairman of the territories subcommittee of the House Interior Committee, a post which gives him jurisdiction over legislation directly affecting those tropical islands.

There's also the question of how much work is accomplished on those jaunts. "The entire island was in turmoil," spluttered an angry Burton when confronted with his 1975-76 visit to Puerto Rico. "There was rioting in the streets I was under armed guard most of the time."

Indeed, press accounts during the period in question show that in the weeks before, during and after Burton's visit terrorists bombed an ITT office, a Burger King restaurant, several Army Reserve vehicles, two branches of the Chase Manhattan Bank and assorted other targets. The Puerto Rican government had cancelled all police leaves and mobilized 1,300 members of the National Guard.

Burton's congressional delegation spent most of its time meeting with representatives of the feuding political factions in an effort to restore peace to the island. "It was no midwinter Caribbean vacation," says the congressman.

The congressman notes in his own defense that he has worked hard to help the territories whose people he says are "just run over, left out or ignored" by most of the federal bureaucracy.

He boasts, with considerable legitimacy, of assisting economic development in the Northern Marianas, exposing a tyrannical governor in American Samoa, securing delegates in Congress for Guam and the Virgin Islands and improving job opportunities for natives in Puerto Rico and elsewhere.

Finally, there's the nasty business of politics. Human nature being no different in Washington than anywhere else, it's always more popular to kick someone when he's down — and Burton is in exactly such a prone position these days.

He had the atrociously bad judgment to form an alliance with former Rep Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, before Hays was forced to resign from Congress in the midst of a full-blown Washington scandal. Burton then sought the post of House Majority Leader, only to end up with egg all over his face.

With that background, it probably was no coincidence that reporters working for at least five different news organizations found themselves simultaneously digging into Burton's travel records last month after receiving virtually identical "tips" about the embarrassing material they might find.

Carter Naming New Classmate

WASHINGTON — It pays to go to school with the right people.

President Carter is about to nominate a second classmate from his days at the Naval Academy to a high government post. The first was Adm. Stansfield Turner who became head of the CIA.

This time Carter has chosen Vernon Weaver, president of a life insurance company headquartered in Little Rock, Ark., to be the head of the Small Business Administration.

Weaver was originally under consideration to be Secretary of the Navy; the SBA post is his consolation prize.

Weaver has not yet been formally named, but he has been showing up for work at the SBA anyway. Small business groups are uneasy about Weaver's selection, primarily because they were not consulted about the choice and do not know his views on issues important to them.

Small businessmen have felt the Carter Administration pays attention to big industry but ignores them. In response to such complaints, the White House finally set up a meeting which will be held later this month with officials of the National Federation of Independent Businessmen, the largest trade association representing the nation's 10 million small manufacturing and retail establishments.

Other people also deserve attention:

Vice President Walter Mondale, a man of modest means who has no outside income, was shocked to discover that despite the new demands on him he has no expense allowance for entertaining. He's thinking of asking for a party budget.

Adole Alexander, wife of Secretary Army Clifford Alexander, has a fine sense of timing. She fell and broke her leg only a few days after her husband was sworn into office.

She qualified for the special deal that Walter Reed, the Army hospital here, gives all government and military bigwigs — a flat charge of only $188 a day for everything, including medicine, room, food and doctors' costs. If she'd fallen a few days earlier, when Alexander was just another civilian lawyer, she would have had to pay full medical bills many times higher.

Sen. Richard Stone (D-Fla.) says he has gotten more mail this session on gun control than any other subject, including the bae weather and energy. He has been on record as firmly against it for several years. But apparently the gun lobby is just trying to make sure he won't change his mind.

Jean Stapleton, Edithunker to you, was in town plugging the International Women's Year. She confided that in next year's series her daughter Gloria, who quit her job several series back to have a baby, will probably go back to work. Like most of the rest of us.

Sam Brown, the new chief of ACTION, the agency umbrella over the Peace Corps and other volunteer services, is thinking of asking for a change in the law so he can kick out those GOP supergraders who had their political appointments reclassified as civil service. Some of the job switches have been rescinded by the Civil Service Commission; but apparently not all the Republicans can be reached under the current law.

Michigan 'N-Dump' Of World?

Kelley Fears Selection Of Alpena As Site

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan's attorney general says he suspects federal authorities want to locate a nuclear waste dump near Alpena so wastes can be shipped in from around the world.

"The nation's treaties to provide foreign countries with nuclear generating plants commit us to remove and dispose of nuclear wastes from the plants we sell to foreign nations," said Frank Kelley in testimony Tuesday before the Governor's Task Force on Nuclear Waste Disposal.

He said the only advantage Alpena has as a waste dump over areas in North Dakota or Arizona is that it is a major deep water shipping port.

"The selection of Alpena as a possible dump site makes me wonder if the federal government intends to take the wastes from some or all of such (international) nuclear plants and ship those wastes to Michigan for disposal," Kelley said.

North Dakota and Arizona have the same kind of salt beds as does Alpena, Kelley said. The government has said the salt beds are prime areas for burying the nuclear wastes.

He reiterated his belief that the Michigan Legislature can by passing new laws prevent nuclear dumping in the state no matter what the federal government says.

The U.S. Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) has promised Gov. William Milliken veto power over the dumping.

But Kelley said he has seen no "formally written, irrevocable and legally enforceable document" to allow that veto.

"ERDA has been very evasive and secretive about this entire matter," said Kelley. "I am not sure this is an agency we can trust."

Neither can federal assurances that the dumping plans are safe be trusted, he said. "I have had some experience, as attorney general, with assurances by experts whose interests lay in getting a project approved and underway," he said.

Kelley, who lived in Alpena for 40 years before becoming attorney general, was one of several people who told the task force that the state should take all possible steps to prevent dumping, or at least to prove beyond a doubt that it is safe.

ERDA has suggested Alpena, Presque Isle and Montmorency

counties in the northeastern Lower Peninsula as possible sites for burial of highly radioactive wastes produced by nuclear plants.

It has said it will choose its dump sites in fiscal year 1978, which starts in July.

Spring Fever Gets Chilled

Following a balmy, spring-like Tuesday across most of Michigan, chilly winds swept back into the state overnight and forecasters warned that it isn't quite time to put away the winter clothes.

The temperature, according to the National Weather Service, is to dip to the low to mid-20s tonight. And there is a chance of snow or rain on Friday and again on Sunday, as more appropriate late winter temperatures continue through the weekend. Spring arrives officially next week.

The thermometer touched a low of 31 degrees in Benton Harbor last night, the first time it has gone below the freezing point since March 8. The high reading here Tuesday was 66 degrees. Fruit growers indicated the return of cooler weather was welcome, to hold back premature swelling of buds in orchards and vineyards.

The mercury hit a scorching 77 degrees in Detroit at 3:58 p.m. Tuesday, the warmest temperature ever recorded for the city so early in the season. The previous record for March 15 had been 70 degrees in 1940.

Lansing soared to 73 degrees at 3:49 p.m., smashing the old record of 69 degrees set in 1945.

The temperature reached 59 degrees at Alpena and Pellston on Tuesday, breaking old records.

BOTTLED UP LAST YEAR

Drinking Age May Get Hearings

Stopczynski, chairman of the House Liquor Committee, who refused to hold hearings during the last legislative session on bills to raise the drinking age.

Stopczynski, a Detroit Democrat, denied any influence from the liquor lobby and said he plans to hold the hearings

this session.

Stopczynski said he held up the bills last year — one of them sponsored by DeStigter — because DeStigter "was using that bill for political purposes. He was running for re-election."

All state representatives, including Stopczynski, were up

for re-election last year.

Stopczynski said if the rest of the liquor committee approves a higher drinking age he won't bottle up the legislation. But he voiced little enthusiasm for the idea.

Numerous legislative efforts have been made to raise the drinking age since it was lowered from 21 to 18 in 1972. A recent University of Michigan study blamed the lower age for an increase in traffic accidents involving drinking teen-agers.

School administrators have complained of students drinking over the noon hour and giving liquor to their younger friends. "I believe we did a disservice to our 18- to 21-year-olds when we lowered the legal drinking age to 18," DeStigter, R-West Olive, said at a news conference. "We gave them something they aren't ready for and can't handle."

Asked about the inconsistency in allowing 18-year-olds to vote and fight wars but not to drink, DeStigter said drinking requires greater maturity than the official responsibilities of adulthood.

DeStigter wants to raise the drinking age immediately to 21. Others suggest raising it to 21 over three years to avoid disenfranchising those now allowed to drink, while some school officials advocate a drinking age of 19.

Jack Bittle, a Sturgis High

School principal and vice president of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals, said raising the age to 19 would at least ease the problems at high schools.

Bittle said students put up posters in school hallways to announce keg parties.

"We're going to be graduating some alcoholics," he said.

Car Crash Suits Bring Benton Pair $183,000

A Benton township man was awarded a $38,000 consent judgment in Berrien circuit court Tuesday, bringing to $183,000 the total he and his wife have won in 17 months from judgments resulting from traffic accidents.

Judge Chester J. Byrns entered the $38,000 consent judgment for J.C. Ray, 1435 Highland avenue, after attorneys stipulated to the judgment before trial was to start.

The judgment went against State Farm Mutual Insurance Co. and was for benefits due under a no fault policy Ray held with State Farm.

Ray originally had sought $150,000 from State Farm as a result of a back injury he sustained Sept. 24, 1974, when his auto was struck by a car driven by Millard Bradley, South Webster, Ohio, in New Buffalo township.

Ray and his wife, Effie, also sued Bradley, and last October a jury in Byrns' court awarded the couple $110,000 for Ray's injuries and loss of consortium by his wife.

The third judgment resulted from another accident. Judge Byrns in a non-jury trial in November, 1975, awarded the couple $35,000 for injuries Mrs. Ray sustained in a 1972 automobile accident in Holland. Ray received part of the judgment claiming loss of consortium as a result of his wife's injuries. Opposing counsel in the most recent case were Kalamazoo Attys. Mark Zarbock and Fred Farrer, representing Ray, and Benton Harbor Atty. Thomas Robinson, counsel for State Farm.

Aerial Pick Over

by a lone hijacker. Police said the hijacker, Luciano Porcari, managed to grab his Winchester rifle and fire one shot, slightly wounding one of the three policemen who seized him inside the plane. No one else was hurt, the police said.

"Holy Mother of God, it's finished," said Porcari's estranged wife in Turin, Italy, when she heard it was over. The wife, Isabella Zavoli, had refused to surrender the couple's 5-year-old daughter to Porcari, one of his demands during the 44½-hour hijacking.

Police said Porcari, a 36-year-old auto mechanic, was being held in investigative custody pending a decision on whether he should be tried in Switzerland. Spain is expected to seek his extradition.

The three policemen entered the plane posing as members of a fresh flight crew that was to fly the Iberian Airlines Boeing 727 to Moscow. They subdued the hijacker within moments.

The 13 passenger-hostages still aboard the plane and the seven exhausted crew members who had manned the aircraft since early Monday afternoon were released unharmed.

Also aboard was Porcari's 3-year-old daughter by an African mistress. The child was picked up in the Ivory Coast.

LUCIANO PORCARI
Air Odyssey Ends

"He behaved like a gentleman. He even tried to calm down my children."

Porcari released seven other passengers in Turin, Italy, and nine in Zurich Tuesday.

The hijacker brought the plane to Zurich from Warsaw where he had agreed to free all hostages in exchange for the new crew to fly him to Moscow. After three hours of negotiations, the Spanish ambassador to Poland, Jesus Millarudo, said:

"We can't understand the man's mind. He must be crazy. It has nothing to do with politics. He just thinks he's solving his personal problems."

Porcari's mother, in Turin, blamed the hijacking on the Italian government, whose policies she said had forced her son to go to Africa to find work without assistance.

"He was an honest boy and would have never hurt anyone because he has a good heart."

'Marriage Penalty' Likely To Be Reduced

No large sums are involved in either case. But action contemplated by the committee could mean a tax increase of about $25 for 1.8 million single persons.

It's all in the name of reducing the "marriage penalty," which often has been accused of enticing persons to live together without benefit of marriage. The debate is on the tax-cut bill approved by the House earlier this month as part of an effort to stimulate the economy.

The "marriage penalty" arises from the fact that current law allows single persons who do not itemize deductions to take a minimum standard deduction of $1,700, while the same allowance for a couple filing a joint return is $2,100. The maximum standard deduction for singles is $2,400; for couples filing jointly it is $2,800.

Thus, two single persons who formerly were allowed to deduct a total of $3,400 could deduct only $2,100 if they married and filed a joint return, as most couples do. That means the couple would have a taxable income $1,300 higher than if he

Benton Harbor School Tax Hike Defeated

BY LARRY MACINTYRE
Staff Writer

Benton Harbor school officials said they want to try again in June to pass the two proposals for extra millage that failed in yesterday's special election. "We've got to try again," said Edward E. Bentley, school board president. He said the income from the 21.35 mill levy voters renewed yesterday would not be enough to cover the projected cost of operating schools next year.

Bentley's remarks came just after the unofficial election results were announced last night at the district's administration center on Britain avenue. Voters approved by a wide margin the renewal of a 21.35 mill property tax levy to run five years. The renewal — Proposition 1 on the ballot — passed 2,033 to 1,268.

Proposition 2, which called for a four-mill increase for school operations for one year, was rejected 2,043 to 1,211. Proposition 3 called for a one-mill building maintenance tax to run five years. It was rejected 1,965 to 1,398. Prior to the election, school officials said that passage of just the 21.35 mill renewal would leave the district with a potential deficit of $1.5 million in its projected budget of $18.5 million for the 1977-78 school year.

The four mill increase sought in Proposition 3 would have raised $800,000 toward that budget. With the extra income, the school district would still have to trim about $750,000 out of next year's budget. That amount could be trimmed without hurting the quality of education, according to Supt. Richard Helser. However, some painful cuts may have to be made if the entire $1.5 million deficit has to be trimmed from the budget, he said.

Bentley said that without the revenue from the extra millage, the school board may have to consider closing some neighborhood schools and consolidating into fewer buildings. It may also have to consider reducing the teaching staff, he said.

He said he was disappointed that Propositions 2 and 3 were estimated 20,000 registered voters live in the Benton Harbor school district.

"The voter turnout was light," Helser said. "I expected a heavy turnout."

Helser said he was encouraged, however, by the voter margin in of Propositions 2 and 3. The yes vote for Proposition 2 represented 37 per cent of the ballots cast and the yes vote for Proposition 3 represented 43 per cent of the ballots cast.

Helser said the margins by which the two propositions lost were third time in two years voters have rejected such a proposal.

"I really thought the voters would give us that maintenance mill because all you have to do is look at our buildings and you can see we need it," Helser said. "We have enough leaking roofs in this district to have spent the entire mill this year." He said the people who have been complaining of declining property values in the district should have come out and passed all three propositions.

"The best investment they could make is in their schools," Helser said. The Benton Harbor district last year levied a total of 20.3716 mills, which included 8.376 mills allocated by the county, 21.35 extra voted millage, and .6456 of a mill for debt retirement.

Proposition 1 passed in all but five of the school district's 28 voting precincts. It failed 57 to 111 at the Sodus elementary school, 38 to 48 at Martindale, and 40 to 41 at Stump. It tied at Pearl (47-47) and Sorter (60-60).

Proposition 2 failed at all but six precincts. Those precincts were Benton Harbor junior high, Lake Michigan Catholic school, city hall, Seely McCord school, the Naval armory and Lafayette school.

Proposition 3 failed at all but 10 precincts. Those precincts were Calvin Britain, Benton Harbor high school, Benton Harbor junior high, Lake Michigan Catholic school, Columbus school, city hall, Seely McCord school, the Naval armory, Morton school and Lafayette school.

21.35-Mill Renewal Passes Easily

rejected. "This time we went all out to get the voters to understand what we were trying to do," he said. "Unfortunately, the voters have just one area of taxes they can vote down — schools."

Helser said he was disappointed in the number of people who turned out to vote. A total of 3,326 ballots were cast yesterday. An close enough that they could possibly be overcome in another election.

The propositions will probably be put before the voters again during the annual school elections June 13, Helser said. The defeat of the one-mill building maintenance tax yesterday marks the

Capsule Is Sealed For 100 Years

BERRIEN SPRINGS — Copies of all 1976 Berrien county community telephone directories, and a picture of the 1976 Blossomtime queen will be among the artifacts the Berrien County Bicentennial commission will discover in a time capsule in the year 2076.

Members of the county Bicentennial commission yesterday loaded a one by three-foot safe with more than 5 booklets, brochures, souvenirs and mementos of 1976 to be opened in 2076.

More than 50 commission members and county residents attended the ceremonies at the old Berrien county courthouse here which also marked the last official meeting of the Berrien County Bicentennial commission.

The time capsule was sealed with beeswax and presented to Mrs. Nancy Clark, chairman of the Berrien county board of commissioners, by Circuit Judge William White, honorary co-chairman of the county Bicentennial commission. The capsule will be stored in a vault in the office of the Berrien register of deeds in the new courthouse, St. Joseph.

Awards of appreciation were also presented to members of the Bicentennial commission and to others who helped the commission in staging commemorative activities during the Bicentennial year. A special award for outstanding service was presented to Dr. A.S. Mowery, executive director of the Bicentennial commission.

The items that were stored in the time capsule yesterday include: the county Bicentennial logo stamp, art work and logo color print, medallion pendant, belt buckle, Bicentennial flag, Bicentennial pewter mug, bronze metal coin with Four Flags logo, calendar of Bicentennial events, minutes of Berrien county commissioners' meetings, and a LaSalle Expedition II brochure.

Also, pictures of three county courthouses, listings of owners of county Bicentennial pewter and bronze plates, list of 605 trees planted in Bicentennial year, historical county map, list of parks and recreation projects, county courthouse directory, county youth fair ribbons, "Fabulous Fruits of Freedom" pageant script, program and ticket, and the Blossomtime program for 1976.

Also, Memorial hospital's 25th anniversary brochure, Berrien Bicentennial book, Bainbridge township celebration, Andrews university undergraduate book, Business and Professional Women's club book, Four Flags Bicentennial report, copies of "The New Buffalo Story" and "The Region of Three Oaks."

New Pay Board Will Set Benton Officials' Salaries

Salaries of Benton township elected officials beginning in 1978 will be set by an appointed five-member compensation commission under an ordinance approved by a 5-to-1 vote of the board of trustees last night.

Opposing the ordinance was Treasurer Ken Malkin, who said he's not against the idea, but has concerns "over the specifics" of the ordinance.

Support was from Clerk Larry Trail, and Trustees Dave Hanner, Nora Jefferson, Margaret Crisall and Arnold Leonard. Trail presided over the meeting in the absence of Supervisor Catheryn Sirk. She was reported attending a board of review hearing.

The vote came after uncertainties among some 40 people present and board members over whether the new ordinance would remove salary-setting powers from citizens at annual meetings. It does, said James Ford, assistant township attorney.

Ford said the compensation commission will set salaries for periods of two years. He said salaries set will become effective each April 1, the start of the township's fiscal year, unless the salaries are rejected by a two-thirds vote of the township board.

Supervisor Catheryn Sirk earlier said citizens at annual meetings would continue to approve or reject salary recommendations.

Previously, salaries of elected township officials have been recommended by the township's budget committee. This consists of elected officials and the controller. Recommendations then were accepted or rejected by citizens at annual meetings.

Traditionally, recommendations have been accepted.

The budget committee this year will recommend salaries of elected officials for the last time.

Trail after the meeting said the new ordinance was prepared through the Michigan Township association. Compensation commission members will be nominated by Supervisor Sirk and confirmed by the board. They must be electors of the township, but cannot be employees of the township government. Compensation commissions are permitted under state statute.

The board in other matters approved contracts with two unions.

The township's 18 full time firefighters have a new three-year contract that provides 7 per cent pay raises each of the first two years, plus vacation benefit improvements. Wages will be open for negotiation in the third year, it was reported. Firefighters are in Local 1562, International Association of Firefighters.

A one-year contract was approved by a 4-to-2 vote for 10 employees represented by the newly-formed Local 2757, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees union. The employees are in the parks, trash pickup and sewer maintenance departments.

Opposing were Trustees Nora Jefferson and Arnold Leonard.

after concern was raised over lack of information on how much the contract would cost in extra pay. Pay was increased by 25 cents per hour, or 3 to 5 1/2 per cent, depending on present pay scales, it was reported.

The fire department contract would cost an extra $30,000, it was reported.

The board after considerable discussion remanded sent back to the planning commission for further study a proposed amendment to the peddler's ordinance. Details of the proposal aimed at rummage sales were reported earlier.

Approved was a fire board recommendation that firefighters be permitted to retire after 25 years' service, regardless of age.

Treasurer Malkin said winter property tax collections have totaled $4,233,558, or 87.74 per cent.

Appointed to the Community Development Citizens' Advisory committee for a one-year term was Hans Stoll of 225 Nickerson avenue.

'M' Energy Expert Will Speak In SJ

Dr. Marc Ross, energy expert and professor of physics at the University of Michigan, will be the speaker at an open meeting sponsored by the University of Michigan Alumni club of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph and United for Survival Tuesday, March 14, at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the Zion Evangelical and Reformed United Church of Christ, 3001 Veronica drive, St. Joseph.

Dr. Ross' topic will be "Our Energy Use Today — Our Environment Tomorrow."

Dr. Ross, who is also dean of the residential college at the university, has written 45 physics papers, almost all in the field of high energy nuclear physics. As an expert in the field, he testified in 1976 on

Dr. Ross' topic will be "Our Energy Use Today — Our Environment Tomorrow."

Dr. Ross, who is also dean of the residential college at the university, has written 45 physics papers, almost all in the field of high energy nuclear physics. As an expert in the field, he testified in 1976 on energy conservation for Suffolk county, New York, and in 1975 he testified on nuclear risks for environmental groups in St. Louis.

In 1974 he was co-director of a study for the American Physical Society on the technical aspects of efficient energy utilization. In 1975 he contributed a paper for the book "More Efficient Utilization of Energy."

Before joining the U of M faculty in 1963, Dr. Ross was a professor at Indiana university for eight years and before that was a research associate at Brookhaven National Laboratory.

He has served as visiting professor of physics at MIT and the University of London, and has held summer positions at Brookhaven, Argonne, and SLAC Laboratories, at Florida State university, and the University of Colorado, University of California, and the University of Washington.

He is a graduate of Queens college, New York, and received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin, with a thesis in theoretical low energy nuclear physics.

Further information may be secured on the March 29 meeting from David Houtsman, Benton Harbor, president of United for Survival, or Mrs. Richard F. Koch, president of the U of M club.

BH Stabbing Death Ruled 'Justifiable'

The stabbing death of Ernest Griffin, 33, also known as Ernest Boggs, was ruled justifiable homicide by John Smietanka, Berrien county prosecuting attorney, Benton Harbor Det. Sgt. Sam Watson Jr. said today.

Watson said Smietanka made the ruling Tuesday after Benton Harbor police submitted the results of their investigation of the death.

The assailant was identified as Queen E. Parker, 24, of 600 Pearl street, which is also the address listed for Griffin (Boggs), Watson said.

Griffin (Boggs) was pronounced dead at Mercy hospital Monday after he was found face-down in front of his house about 6:30 p.m.

Watson said witnesses told police Griffin (Boggs) was stabbed in the chest by Queen E. Parker while he was beating her with his fists. Watson said several attempts had been made by four people in the house to calm down Griffin (Boggs) before he was stabbed.

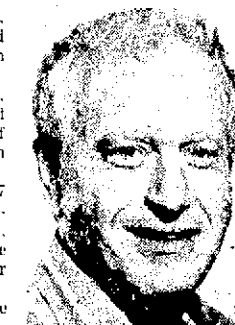

The dead man's driver's license was in the name of Ernest Boggs. Robbins Brothers funeral home reported that is the maiden name of his mother and his real name is Griffin.

Mr. Griffin was born Oct. 27, 1937, in Shelby, Ala., and had been employed by Michigan Standard Mills.

Surviving are his parents, Allison and Laddie Griffin, and a brother, Arthur Griffin, all of Shelby; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Mayes, Phoenix, Ill.

A wake will be held from 7 until 8 p.m. Thursday in Robbins Brothers funeral home, Benton Harbor. The body will be taken to Birmingham, Ala., for services and burial.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning Thursday.

Don't Rake Those Leaves Into Street

Benton Harbor residents should put leaves and other debris raked from yards into containers for regular rubbish pickups, according to Dwight (Pete) Mitchell, director of public services. Mitchell said raking leaves into the street as is customary in the fall will compound drainage problems in the spring, leaving storm drains clogged and a costly mess to clean up.

CLEAN AIR POLICY: Several citizens complained about smoke fouling the air during Benton township board of trustees meetings.

Not Very Soon--And Not Nearly Enough

Alaska, in addition to vast amounts of oil, also holds the nation's largest untapped deposits of natural gas. "Alaska is the Persian Gulf of North America," Vice President Walter F. Mondale said when he was still a U. S. senator.

With natural gas in critically short supply across the country, many Americans are wondering how soon and how much Alaskan gas will be available to the "Lower 48." Unfortunately, the answers are: not very soon and not nearly enough.

Alaska has proved natural gas reserves of about 26 trillion cubic feet, mostly around the Prudhoe Bay oil fields on the North Slope. The United States in recent years has consumed about 20 trillion cubic feet of natural gas annually.

There are currently three competing proposals to pipe or ship Alaskan gas to U.S. markets:

The Alaskan Arctic Gas Pipeline Co., a consortium of 15 American and Canadian companies, wants to build a 4,200-mile pipeline down through Canada to connect with existing U.S. and Canadian lines. Estimated cost:

$8.4 billion.

The El Paso Natural Gas Co. proposes to build an 800-mile gas line parallel to the Alaska oil pipeline, then to liquefy the gas and ship it to California aboard special tankers, where it would be regasified and pumped through another 800 miles of new pipeline to connect with existing lines. Estimated cost: $7.8 billion.

The Northwest Pipeline Corporation would construct a 1,800-mile pipeline that would parallel the oil pipeline to a point south of Fairbanks, then follow the Alcan Highway to the U.S.-Canadian border, connecting with expanded or existing lines. Estimated cost: $7 billion.

On Feb. 1, an administrative law judge for the Federal Power Commission recommended approval of the Arctic Gas route, calling it "vastly superior" to the other two projects. But El Paso is promoting the "all-American" nature of its proposal, while Northwest boasts that its Alcan route is preferred by environmentalists because it follows existing pipeline and highway corridors.

In Washington and Ottawa, there has been unofficial but firm support for the Arctic Gas route as a joint venture that would ease strained U.S.-Canadian relations. A proposed treaty to encourage cooperation won preliminary approval in January, but has not yet been ratified.

The months ahead will bring a series of deadlines leading up to a final decision on the Alaskan gas pipeline. By May 1 the Federal Power Commission must submit its final recommendation to President Carter. By July 1 the Council on Environmental Quality, after public hearings, must state its preference. By Sept. 1 the President must make his choice known to Congress, although he could take an extra 90 days to decide. Congress will then have 60 days to approve or disapprove by a joint resolution. If it disapproved, the President would make a second — and final — recommendation and Congress would act on that.

Behind the scenes, all the while, a fierce lobbying battle will be under way. Whatever route is chosen, natural gas will not begin moving south until the early 1980s. And by then it will supply — at most — about 5 per cent of annual U.S. consumption.

Re-tinkering With The Time

There must be something about the first faint hints of approaching spring which cause members of Congress to long for longer hours of sunlight. The plunge to tinker with daylight saving time is on again with no fewer than six bills introduced so far to change the currently scheduled six months of DST.

These bills run the gamut from shortening the period to three months to extending it year round. Chances are good that at least some of the proposals will result in serious consideration.

Congress has changed the parameters of DST before, so often in recent years that probably few persons can recall without checking that the law now calls for DST to run from April 24 to October 30.

Don't be surprised if Congress takes an extended break from its heavy legislative schedule to see if it can confuse this issue once again.

Too Much Credit Going To Communist Nations

In international trade, as with much lower levels of commerce, persistent lenders can find themselves in as much hot water as consistent borrowers. While it is true that credit promotes trade, continuing and unredeemed credit sooner or later works against both parties.

Trade deals between nations carry the additional penalty of political repercussions if credit is extended too far. That soon may be the position western bankers find themselves in through credit extended to Eastern Europe, a British study suggests.

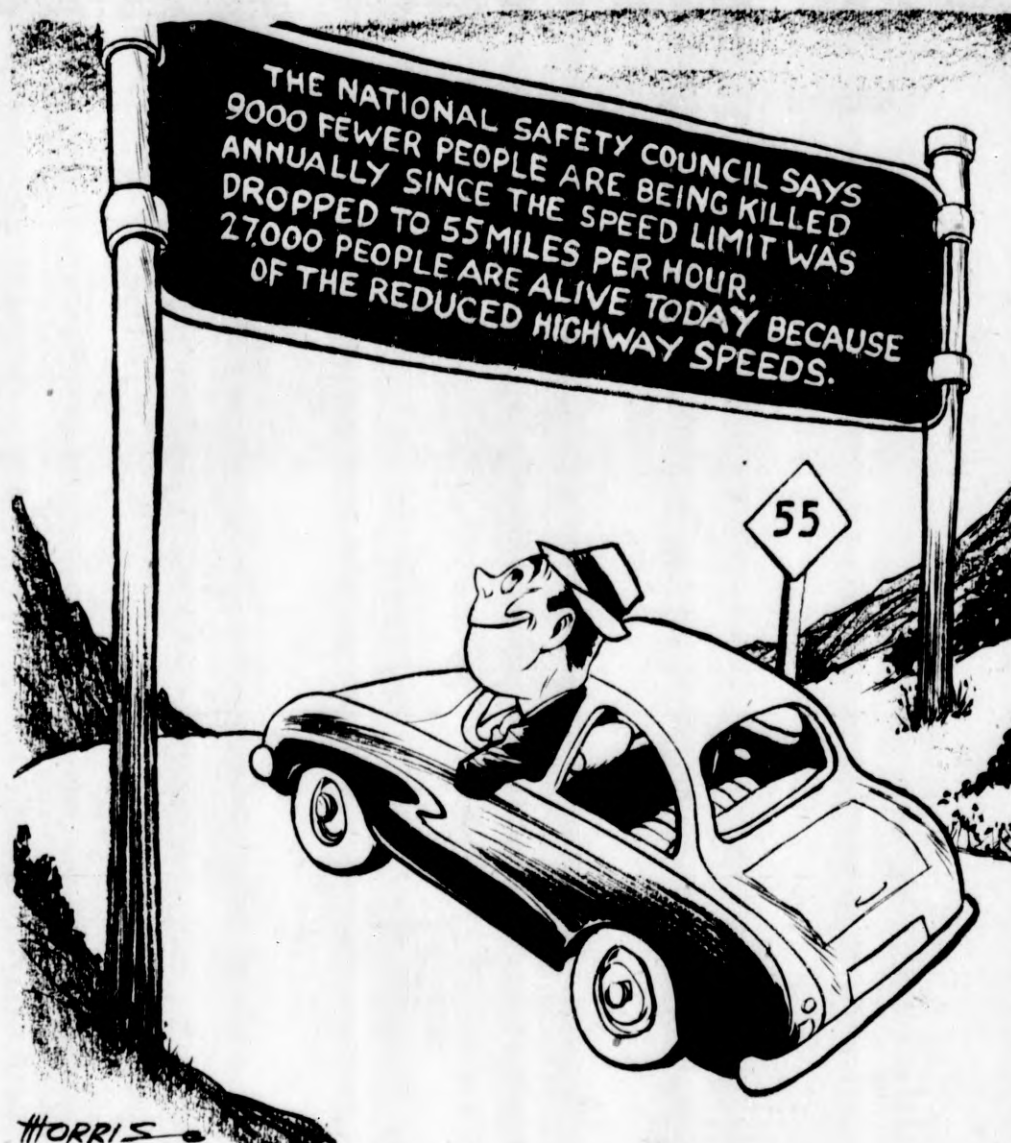

Credits offered by the West to enhance trade with the Soviet bloc have been extensive in the last several years. By the end of 1976, outstanding debts owed by the East bloc to the West have been estimated as high as $60 billion, with perhaps a third of that representing goods not yet shipped.

What worries Prof. Richard Portes of London University, author of the latest study, is that much of the debt is built on very lenient credit terms, without benefit of collateral or other guarantees. Further, the rate of debt accumulation indicates it could pass $100 billion by the end of the decade.

Already there is speculation that Poland, for one, will be unable to meet its obligations when they come due. Portes also found that little of the debt represents investments designed to increase trade. Most of the borrowings have been used to beef up production for domestic consumer consumption and thus have little chance to earn hard currency to reduce obligations.

If Poland or another East European country defaults, the experience might well draw that country closer to the Soviet Union, in effect giving the West a political loss as well as a financial one. The communist world obviously has taken wholeheartedly to the western concept of credit. It has not yet demonstrated what it will, or can, do when the bills come due.

DOES TOWNSHIP NEED MANAGER?

Editor,

We are glad to hear the Sidney Rosenbergs are thinking along the same lines that we are, and we sure hope more interested taxpayers will be heard from. Why can't there be an Election for a new St. Joseph township supervisor? Why are they changing to a manager? If Mr. Orval Benson cannot or does not have the time to fill the job, why doesn't he just resign and then he can do that fishing, hunting and vacationing like he stated he wanted to do in last week's paper. Why should we have a manager and an assistant manager? We are just putting more tax burdens on us taxpayers that are unnecessary.

And where did they come up with the $21.00 salary figure for Mr. Izzy DiMaggio? Is he qualified for the job? Mr. Benson has been in this job for 15 years or longer and with Mr. DiMaggio being in the treasurer's office for such a short time, is he ready for such a big job already? Or is it that big salary?

We do need some new young politicians in St. Joseph township with some good ideas for us over-taxed taxpayers and senior citizens. What has our Township done for the Senior Citizens? They have no housing projects or meeting place, and will not even give a donation to senior citizen center in St. Joe city that invites our senior citizens to come and enjoy.

Does the new township hall being built now have a room where the senior citizens could meet???

We are glad the Rosenbergs mentioned Watergate as we sure are all aware of that awful word. And remember St. Joseph township taxpayers, we had the police department, water and sewer forced on us and never had a chance to vote on any of them.

PROBLEMS COME UP AFTER THE ELECTION

Editor,

It is really amazing to observe the apparent gap that our local government management has towards the public. The gap seems to be between management's ears. It almost serves the public right for voting these individuals into office. Do you notice that the person you voted into office always seems to have public problems "after" the election and never before?

I wonder about the legality in St. Joseph township's latest move to create a manager's job and fill the position with a person that was elected as treasurer? And the present supervisor wants his present salary just to continue being chairman of the board? Why didn't he complain of his workload before the election? Maybe Mr. Benson hasn't learned to delegate his authority.

Mr. Robert Townsend (who wrote Up the Organization), the man that made Avis what it is today, said in his book, "anyone who has an assistant should be fired a hundred dollars a day until he eliminates the position". If St. Joseph township needs a manager then a select citizens group should be tasked with reviewing and interviewing no less than 20 applicants for this position and Mr. Benson's pay should be cut. To hire from within is just what is needed to spark the fires of recall.

Then we have neighboring Benton township with possible police layoffs. I understand that all of last year's police budget wasn't used and they still had a record year of arrests. Now that sounds like Chief Sieber's men are efficient users of the taxpayers' money. Now these fellows don't get shift pay (State Police do). Can you imagine being asked to work the midnight shift and not get a pay increase?, and that one of their senior officers makes less money than a St. Joseph city police officer?, and that the new proposed police budget is to be

Mrs. John Schreiber of St. Joseph, a former Blossom Queen, is chairman of the committee in charge. Mrs. William Gast is vice-chairman. Carl Anton Wirth, a leader in local music activities, is, with directors of the various organizations, working out the details.

Although the 21 alleged Communists who were rounded up in August of 1922 by a surprise attack of department of justice agents, state police and county officials, have been something of a financial asset to Berrien county, the coffers of the county treasurer would be still richer as a result of their "secret" sand dune convention at Bridgman had they not posted bail composed almost entirely of Liberty bonds. It is somewhat of a paradox that Liberty bonds should be put up as security for the appearance of respondents who are accused of preaching sedition and revolt, and to whom the government which issues the bonds it represents oppressive capitalism at its worst, but it is nevertheless a fact that a few days after their arrest, the "reds" walked out of the county jail and left instead bail totaling $86,500 which has since laid in the vaults of the Union Banking company.

The auction sale of lots in Benton Harbor next month should result in the building up of the eastern part of the city. A number of the lots that will be auctioned off are located on the car line and when they are owned individually the improvement that will follow will be astonishing in the rapidity with which they come. In the meantime, it is likely that some of the lots will be sold at private sale.

All 'Junkets' Not Vacations

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — On paper, it looks like the worst kind of congressional "junket." There's Rep Phillip Burton, D-Calif., listed as taking a two-week, midwinter trip to the sunny climes of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and St Thomas in the Virgin Islands.

Burton's Caribbean visit cost the taxpayers almost $1,500. The trip was made in December 1975 and January 1976, but it didn't become an object of public derision until last month when he once again was in the Virgin Islands, during the winter's worst cold spell.

Reporters poured over congressional travel records to find no fewer than 15 similar Burton excursions during the past six years "Balmy Breezes Embrace Burton and Entourage," proclaimed one newspaper headline.

In an era when the public perception of congressional ethics has plunged to abysmal depths, it's easy to make snap judgments about legislators' real and imagined proclivity for what the travel agents call "tropical playgrounds."

But that simplistic approach doesn't always do justice to a complex situation. Burton, for instance, happens to be chairman of the territories subcommittee of the House Interior Committee, a post which gives him jurisdiction over legislation directly affecting those tropical islands.

There's also the question of how much work is accomplished on those jaunts. "The entire island was in turmoil," spluttered an angry Burton when confronted with his 1975-76 visit to Puerto Rico. "There was rioting in the streets. I was under armed guard most of the time."

Indeed, press accounts during the period in question show that in the weeks before, during and after Burton's visit terrorists bombed an ITT office, a Burger King restaurant, several Army Reserve vehicles, two branches of the Chase Manhattan Bank and assorted other targets. The Puerto Rican government had cancelled all police leaves and mobilized 1,300 members of the National Guard.

Burton's congressional delegation spent most of its time meeting with representatives of the feuding political factions in an effort to restore peace to the island. "It was no midwinter Caribbean vacation," says the congressman.

The congressman notes in his own defense that he has worked hard to help the territories whose people he says are "just run over, left out or ignored" by most of the federal bureaucracy.

He boasts, with considerable legitimacy, of assisting economic development in the Northern Marianas, exposing a tyrannical governor in American Samoa, securing delegates in Congress for Guam and the Virgin Islands and improving job opportunities for natives in Puerto Rico and elsewhere.

Finally, there's the nasty business of politics. Human nature being no different in Washington than anywhere else, it's always more popular to kick someone when he's down — and Burton is in exactly such a prone position these days.

He had the atrociously bad judgment to form an alliance with former Rep Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, before Hays was forced to resign from Congress in the midst of a full-blown Washington scandal. Burton then sought the post of House Majority Leader, only to end up with egg all over his face.

With that background, it probably was no coincidence that reporters working for at least five different news organizations found themselves simultaneously digging into Burton's travel records last month after receiving virtually identical "tips" about the embarrassing material they might find.

Carter Naming New Classmate

WASHINGTON — It pays to go to school with the right people.

President Carter is about to nominate a second classmate from his days at the Naval Academy to a high government post. The first was Adm. Stansfield Turner who became head of the CIA.

This time Carter has chosen Vernon Weaver, president of a life insurance company headquartered in Little Rock, Ark., to be the head of the Small Business Administration.

Weaver was originally under consideration to be Secretary of the Navy; the SBA post is his consolation prize. Weaver has not yet been formally named, but he has been showing up for work at the SBA anyway. Small business groups are uneasy about Weaver's selection, primarily because they were not consulted about the choice and do not know his views on issues important to them.

Small businessmen have felt the Carter Administration pays attention to big industry but ignores them. In response to such complaints, the White House finally set up a meeting which will be held later this month with officials of the National Federation of Independent Businessmen, the largest trade association representing the nation's 10 million small manufacturing and retail establishments.

Other people also deserve attention:

Vice President Walter Mondale, a man of modest means who has no outside income, was shocked to discover that despite the new demands on him he has no expense allowance for entertaining. He's thinking of asking for a party budget.

Adele Alexander, wife of Secretary Army Clifford Alexander, has a fine sense of timing. She fell and broke her leg only a few days after her husband was sworn into office.

She qualified for the special deal that Walter Reed, the Army hospital here, gives all government and military bigwigs — a flat charge of only $168 a day for everything, including medicine, room, food and doctors' costs. If she'd fallen a few days earlier, when Alexander was just another civilian lawyer, she would have had to pay full medical bills many times higher.

Sen. Richard Stone (D-Fla.) says he has gotten more mail this session on gun control than any other subject, including the bae weather and energy. He has been on record as firmly against it for several years. But apparently the gun lobby is just trying to make sure he won't change his mind.

Jean Stapleton, Edith Bunker to you, was in town plugging the International Women's Year. She confided that in next year's series her daughter Gloria, who quit her job several series back to have a baby, will probably go back to work. Like most of the rest of us.

Sam Brown, the new chief of ACTION, the agency umbrella over the Peace Corps and other volunteer services, is thinking of asking for a change in the law so he can kick out those GOP supergraders who had their political appointments reclassified as civil service. Some of the job switches have been rescinded by the Civil Service Commission, but apparently not all the Republicans can be reached under the current law.

Modular Bedrooms Offer More

Storage Options

For some time now, modular home furnishings have been very popular in living and family rooms because of the flexibility in arrangement and the tremendous wealth of storage options.

Bedroom furnishings are now getting a modular treatment for these same reasons.

Living spaces are shrinking in every room. New house plans indicate that bedrooms are no exception. In the bedroom shown here, items form a perimeter of storage around the room so popular in European design schemes. The storage provides a place for everything and everything can be in its place.

Modular furnishings actually can manipulate space to create an illusion of enlarging a room.

This unit turns corners to utilize every inch of space. A variety of units are 29 inches for the low profile look. Other units and deck pieces offer a variety of heights and meet various storage needs. The door storage area of the master's chest could conceal a television set, a stack of sweaters or shirts.

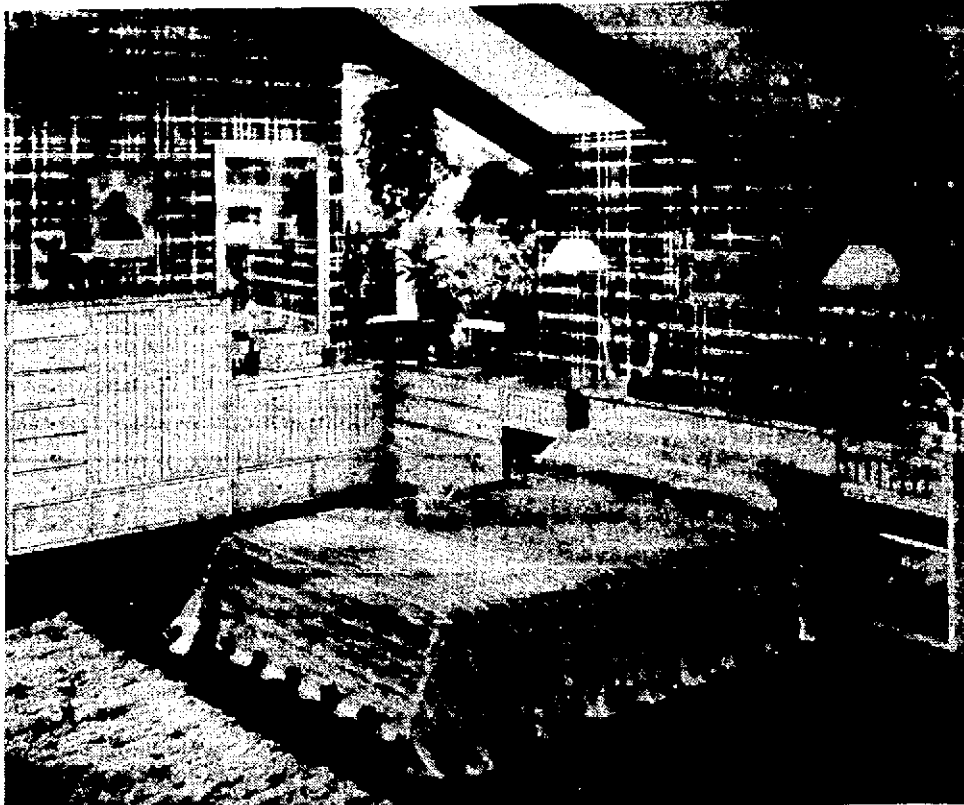

The headboard is designed with a sliding storage panel to provide more space to hide the clutter associated with night tables.

Today's rooms are almost void of all architecture. Modular furniture takes a cube-like room and gives instant architecture that can be a joy in the present apartment or the next home. An aspect of decorating with modular furnishings is the freedom it offers of placement in the home. It's ideal for people who move frequently, because items used in one room now, can later be used in another room.

The modular unit features high visual interest in the fronts of the cases. A vertical plank effect is seen on doors and selected drawers and the parting rail between drawers is recessed in some instances for unusual beauty. Casual character is noted in the carefully selected woods and complemented by simple white knob pulls. A light finish, the color of sourwood honey, adds a pleasing contemporary note.

Color scheme options are endless due to the light finish of this furniture. In this dramatic setting, plaid wallpaper in charcoal and white tones gives a sophisticated look. Charcoal carpet and bold beams play supporting roles in the design. Plants, natural baskets and shells provide beautiful accents. Textural beauty is seen in match stick blinds, the linen look bedspread and the woven area rug.

This line gives the modular bedroom a fresh new start in storage organization and style.

ROOM ENLARGED: Modular furnishings for bedrooms can manipulate space to create an illusion of enlarging a room. Crafted of pine woods and finished to the color of sourwood honey, this line offers a casual character for organized storage.

Benton Harbor School Tax Hike Defeated

Staff Writer

Benton Harbor school officials said they want to try again in June to pass the two proposals for extra millage that failed in yesterday's special election. "We've got to try again," said Edward E. Bentley, school board president. He said the income from the 21.35 mill levy voters renewed yesterday would not be enough to cover the projected cost of operating schools next year.

Bentley's remarks came just after the unofficial election results were announced last night at the district's administration center on Britain avenue. Voters approved by a wide margin the renewal of a 21.35 mill property tax levy to run five years. The renewal — Proposition 1 on the ballot — passed 2,033 to 1,268.

Proposition 2, which called for a four-mill increase for school operations for one year, was rejected 2,043 to 1,211. Proposition 3 called for a one-mill building maintenance tax to run five years. It was rejected 1,865 to 1,398. Prior to the election, school officials said that passage of just the 21.35 mill renewal would leave the district with a potential deficit of $1.5 million in its projected budget of $16.5 million for the 1977-78 school year.

The four mill increase sought in Proposition 3 would have raised $800,000 toward that budget. With the extra income, the school district would still have to trim about $750,000 out of next year's budget. That amount could be trimmed without hurting the quality of education, according to Supt. Richard Helsel. However, some painful cuts may have to be made if the entire $1.5 million deficit has to be trimmed from the budget, he said.

Bentley said that without the revenue from the extra millage, the school board may have to consider closing some neighborhood schools and consolidating into fewer buildings. It may also have to consider reducing the teaching staff, he said.

He said he was disappointed that Propositions 2 and 3 were estimated 20,000 registered voters live in the Benton Harbor school district.

"The voter turnout was light," Helsel said. "I expected a heavy turnout."

Helsel said he was encouraged, however, by the voter margin in Propositions 2 and 3. The yes vote for Proposition 2 represented 37 per cent of the ballots cast and the yes vote for Proposition 3 represented 43 per cent of the ballots cast.

Helsel said the margins by which the two propositions lost were third time in two years voters have rejected such a proposal.

"I really thought the voters would give us that maintenance mill because all you have to do is look at our buildings and you can see we need it," Helsel said. "We have enough leaking roofs in this district to have spent the entire mill this year." He said the people who have been complaining of declining property values in the district should have come out and passed all three propositions.

"The best investment they could make is in their schools," Helsel said. The Benton Harbor district last year levied a total of 30.3716 mills, which included 8.376 mills allocated by the county, 21.35 extra voted millage, and .6456 of a mill for debt retirement.

Proposition 1 passed in all but five of the school district's 28 voting precincts. It failed 57 to 111 at the Sodus elementary school, 38 to 48 at Martindale, and 40 to 41 at Stump. It tied at Pearl (47-47) and Sorter (60-60).

Proposition 2 failed at all but six precincts. Those precincts were Benton Harbor junior high, Lake Michigan Catholic school, city hall, Seely McCord school, the Naval armory and Lafayette school.

Proposition 3 failed at all but 10 precincts. Those precincts were Calvin Britain, Benton Harbor high school, Benton Harbor junior high, Lake Michigan Catholic school, Columbus school, city hall, Seely McCord school, the Naval armory, Morton school and Lafayette school.

21.35-Mill Renewal Passes Easily

rejected. "This time we went all out to get the voters to understand what we were trying to do," he said. "Unfortunately, the voters have just one area of taxes they can vote down — schools."

Helsel said he was disappointed in the number of people who turned out to vote. A total of 3,326 ballots were cast yesterday. An close enough that they could possibly be overcome in another election.

The propositions will probably be put before the voters again during the annual school elections June 13, Helsel said. The defeat of the one-mill building maintenance tax yesterday marks the

Capsule Is Sealed For 100 Years

By MIKE WYNGARDEN
Staff Writer

BERRIEN SPRINGS — Copies of all 1976 Berrien county community telephone directories, and a picture of the 1976 Blossomtime queen will be among the artifacts the Berrien County Bicentennial commission will discover in a time capsule in the year 2076.

Members of the county Bicentennial commission yesterday loaded a one by three-foot safe with more than 50 booklets, brochures, souvenirs and mementos of 1976 to be opened in 2076.

More than 50 commission members and county residents attended the ceremonies at the old Berrien county courthouse here which also marked the last official meeting of the Berrien County Bicentennial commission.

The time capsule was sealed with beeswax and presented to Mrs. Nancy Clark, chairman of the Berrien county board of commissioners, by Circuit Judge William White, honorary co-chairman of the county Bicentennial commission. The capsule will be stored in a vault in the office of the Berrien register of deeds in the new courthouse, St. Joseph.

Awards of appreciation were also presented to members of the Bicentennial commission and to others who helped the commission in staging commemorative activities during the Bicentennial year. A special award for outstanding service was presented to Dr. A.S. Mowery, executive director of the Bicentennial commission.

The items that were stored in the time capsule yesterday include: the county Bicentennial logo stamp, art work and logo color print, medallion pendant, belt buckle, Bicentennial flag, Bicentennial pewter mug, bronze metal coin with Four Flags logo, calendar of Bicentennial events, minutes of Berrien county commissioners' meetings, and a LaSalle Expedition II brochure.

Also, pictures of three county courthouses, listings of owners of county Bicentennial pewter and bronze plates, list of 605 trees planted in Bicentennial year, historical county map, list of parks and recreation projects, county courthouse directory, county youth fair ribbons, "Fabulous Fruits of Freedom" pageant script, program and ticket, and the Blossomtime program for 1976.

New Pay Board Will Set Benton Officials' Salaries

Salaries of Benton township elected officials beginning in 1978 will be set by an appointed five-member compensation commission under an ordinance approved by a 5-to-1 vote of the board of trustees last night.

Opposing the ordinance was Treasurer Ken Malkin, who said he's not against the idea, but has concerns "over the specifics" of the ordinance.

Support was from Clerk Larry Trail, and Trustees Dave Hanner, Nora Jefferson, Margaret Crisnal and Arnold Leonard. Trail presided over the meeting in the absence of Supervisor Catheryn Sirk. She was reported attending a board of review hearing.

The vote came after uncertainties among some 40 people present and board members over whether the new ordinance would remove salary-setting powers from citizens at annual meetings. It does, said James Ford, assistant township attorney.

Ford said the compensation

commission will set salaries for periods of two years. He said salaries set will become effective each April 1, the start of the township's fiscal year, unless the salaries are rejected by a two-thirds vote of the township board.

Supervisor Catheryn Sirk earlier said citizens at annual meetings would continue to approve or reject salary recommendations.

Previously, salaries of elected township officials have been recommended by the township's budget committee. This consists of elected officials and the controller. Recommendations then were accepted or rejected by citizens at annual meetings. Traditionally, recommendations have been accepted.

The budget committee this year will recommend salaries of elected officials for the last time.

Trail after the meeting said the new ordinance was prepared through the Michigan Township association. Compensation commission members will be nominated by Supervisor Sirk and confirmed by the board. They must be electors of the township, but cannot be employees of the township government. Compensation commissions are permitted under state statute.

The board in other matters approved contracts with two unions.

The township's 18 full time firefighters have a new three-year contract that provides 7 per cent pay raises each of the first two years, plus vacation benefit improvements. Wages will be open for negotiation in the third year, it was reported. Firefighters are in Local 1562, International Association of Firefighters.

A one-year contract was approved by a 4-to-2 vote for 10 employees represented by the newly-formed Local 2757, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees union. The employees are in the parks, trash pickup and sewer maintenance departments.

Opposing were Trustees Nora Jefferson and Arnold Leonard.

after concern was raised over lack of information on how much the contract would cost in extra pay. Pay was increased by 25 cents per hour, or 3 to 5 1/2 per cent, depending on present pay scales, it was reported.

The fire department contract would cost an extra $40,000, it was reported.

The board after considerable discussion remanded sent back to the planning commission for further study a proposed amendment to the peddler's ordinance. Details of the proposal aimed at rummage sales were reported earlier.

Approved was a fire board recommendation that firefighters be permitted to retire after 25 years' service, regardless of age.

Treasurer Malkin said winter property tax collections have totaled $4,233,558, or 87.74 per cent.

Appointed to the Community Development Citizens' Advisory committee for a one-year term was Hans Stoll of 225 Nickerson avenue.

'M' Energy Expert Will Speak In SJ

Dr. Marc Ross, energy expert and professor of physics at the University of Michigan, will be the speaker at an open meeting sponsored by the University of Michigan Alumnae club of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph and United for Survival Tuesday, March 19, at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the Zion Evangelical and Reformed United Church of Christ, 3001 Veronica drive, St. Joseph.

Dr. Ross' topic will be "Our Energy Use Today — Our Environment Tomorrow."

Dr. Ross, who is also dean of the residential college at the university, has written 45 physics papers, almost all in the field of high energy nuclear physics. As an expert in the field, he testified in 1976 on energy conservation for Suffolk county, New York, and in 1975 he testified on nuclear risks for environmental groups in St. Louis.

In 1974 he was co-director of a study for the American Physical Society on the technical aspects of efficient energy utilization. In 1975 he contributed a paper for the book "More Efficient Utilization of Energy."

Before joining the U of M faculty in 1963, Dr. Ross was a professor at Indiana university for eight years and before that was a research associate at Brookhaven National Laboratory.

He has served as visiting professor of physics at MIT and the University of London, and has held summer positions at Brookhaven, Argonne, and SLAC Laboratories, at Florida State university, and the University of Colorado, University of California, and the University of Washington.

He is a graduate of Queens college, New York, and received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin, with a thesis in theoretical low energy nuclear physics.

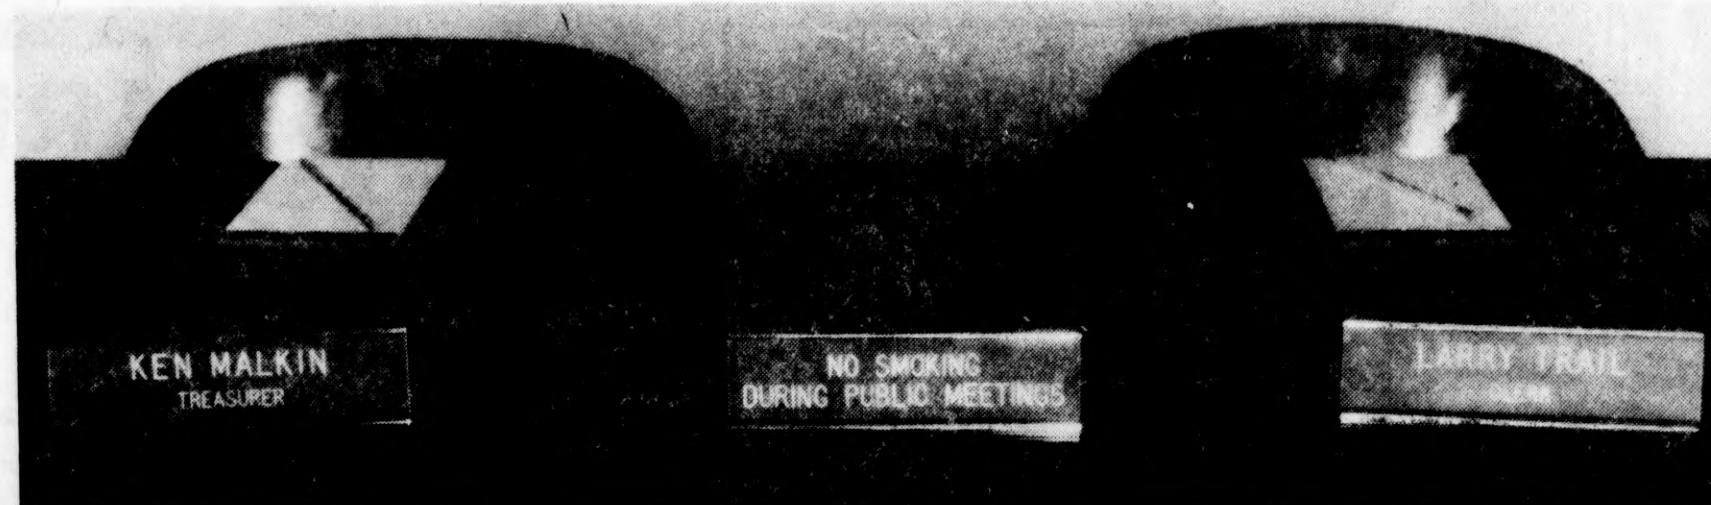

Further information may be secured on the March 29 meeting from David Houseman, Benton Harbor, president of United for Survival, or Mrs. Richard F. Koch, president of the U of M club.

Don't Rake Those Leaves Into Street

Benton Harbor residents should put leaves and other debris raked from yards into containers for regular rubbish pickups, according to Dwight (Pete) Mitchell, director of public services. Mitchell said raking leaves into the street as is customary in the fall will compound drainage problems in the spring, leaving storm drains clogged and a costly mess to clean up.

CLEAN AIR POLICY: Several citizens complained about smoke fouling the air during Benton township board of trustees meetings.

BARBECUE LASAGNA

HEARTY BEAN SOUP WITH RICE

SURPRISE YOUR FAMILY WITH SOMETHING NEW

Suppers Fit For A King Also Fit The Budget

Somebody is always coming up with something new.

Here's a new recipe for a lasagna that's so totally different... yet it works and it's very low cost. Barbecue Lasagna substitutes a barbecue mixture in place of the traditional Italian sauce and a pound of frankfurters instead of ground beef.

The barbecue flavor is refreshingly different and it's easily put together with a can of tomato sauce and prepared yellow mustard.

A perfect accompaniment is cornbread. For a complete meal, serve with a tossed salad, sherbet and cookies and a beverage.

BARBECUE LASAGNA

Eight ounces lasagna noodles
One can (fifteen-ounce)

tomato sauce
One-fourth cup prepared yellow mustard

One tablespoon sugar
One pound frankfurters, thinly sliced

Eight slices process American cheese

Cook noodles following directions on package; drain. Heat together tomato sauce, mustard, sugar and frankfurters. Dice six slices cheese.

In greased twelve by eight-inch baking dish, arrange layers of noodles, frankfurter mixture and diced cheese. Cut remaining two slices cheese into quarters; arrange on top of lasagna. Bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes. Makes six servings.

Plant sources of protein are cheaper than the animal sources, so keep them in mind when you want to prepare extra-economical meals.

HEARTY BEAN SOUP WITH RICE

Two cups dry pinto beans or black beans
Two and one-half quarts chicken broth or ham broth
One and one-half pounds smoked ham hock or leftover ham bone with bits of meat
One cup chopped onions
Two cups sliced carrots
Four cloves garlic, crushed
Hot peppers to taste
Salt to taste
One-fourth cup dry sherry
Three to four cups hot cooked rice

Wash beans. Discard imperfect ones. Drain. Add cold water to come one inch over beans. Let soak overnight. Or bring to a boil, boil for one minute, remove from heat, and let stand one hour. Drain.

Add all ingredients except sherry and rice. Heat to boiling, reduce heat, cover and simmer about three hours or until beans are very tender. Stir oc-asionally while cooking and adjust seasonings, if necessary. If more liquid is needed, add boiling broth or water.

When beans are tender, remove bones. Place about half of the soup in a blender and puree. (Or put through sieve or mash.) Return to kettle. Stir in sherry. Ladle soup into bowls and top with pounds of rice.

Serve with a relish tray of green onions, sliced tomatoes, green pepper rings and radishes, if desired. Makes six to eight servings.

Here's an idea for an inexpensive but noteworthy main-dish you can put on the table in 30 minutes. Individual Meatloaves gives a fresh look to an old favorite and has a sprightly orange sauce that makes it really different.

Golden Topped Potato Casserole makes an interesting side dish. Complete your quick, easy and low cost dinner with green peas, chocolate pudding and milk or coffee.

INDIVIDUAL MEATLOAVES

One envelope (seven-eighths-ounce) onion gravy mix
One and one-fourth cups water

Two tablespoons orange marmalade

One egg
One-half teaspoon salt

One-half cup fine dry bread crumbs

One pound ground beef

Stir together contents of gravy mix envelope, water and marmalade. Measure one-fourth cup gravy mixture and combine with egg, salt, bread crumbs and ground beef; mix lightly. Shape five oval loaves on shallow baking pan. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Heat remaining gravy mixture to boiling, stirring frequently. Serve gravy over meatloaves. Makes five servings.

GOLDEN TOPPED POTATO CASSEROLE

One envelope (five servings) mashed potato granules
One package (three-ounce) cream cheese, softened at room temperature

One tablespoon butter, softened at room temperature
Two tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs

One-fourth teaspoon paprika
Prepare potatoes following directions on package, except reduce milk to one-fourth cup. Add cream cheese, stirring briskly until cheese melts and blends in with potatoes. Spoon into buttered small casserole. Combine butter, crumbs and paprika; sprinkle over potatoes. Bake at 400 degrees for five to ten minutes, until crumb topping is golden brown. Makes five servings.

Macaroni and egg noodles stretch any food budget and make tasty, pleasing dishes with little effort.

ONE POT CREAMY MACARONI AND MEAT

One-half cup chopped onion (about one medium onion)

Two tablespoons butter or margarine

One-fourth teaspoon pepper

One-half teaspoon dry mustard

Three and one-half cups water

Two cups uncooked elbow macaroni (eight ounces)

One-third cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives

One can (twelve-ounce) luncheon meat diced

One and one-half cups dairy sour cream

One cup grated Swiss cheese (about four ounces)

In three-quart saucepan, saute onion in butter until golden. Add seasonings and water; bring to a boil. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cover and simmer for 12 to 15 minutes or until macaroni is tender; stir frequently. (Most of cooking liquid should be absorbed.)

Stir in olives, luncheon meat and sour cream until combined. Cook, uncovered, over very low heat for about five minutes or just until mixture is heated through; stir occasionally. Stir in cheese until melted. Turn in to warm serving dish.

If desired, garnish with additional pimiento-stuffed olive slices. Serve immediately. Makes six servings.

EGG NOODLES WITH QUICK BEEF STROGANOFF

Three tablespoons chopped onion

One tablespoon butter or margarine

Two cans (ten and one-half-ounces each) condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted

One can (three-ounce) sliced mushrooms, undrained

One cup dairy sour cream

One-fourth teaspoon celery salt

Three cups diced leftover beef

Eight ounces medium egg noodles (about four cups)

One tablespoon salt

Three quarts boiling water

Saute onion in butter until

crisp-tender. Blend in soup, undrained mushrooms, sour cream and celery salt. Add beef and heat to serving temperature.

Meanwhile, gradually add noodles and salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Serve topped with beef mixture. Makes four servings.

HOT MACARONI CHICKEN SALAD

Twelve ounces elbow macaroni (about three cups)

One and one-half teaspoon salt

Four to five quarts boiling water

One-half cup golden seedless raisins

One-half cup chicken broth or bouillon

Three cups julienne cooked chicken

One-fourth cup chopped red onion

Three-fourths teaspoon salt

One-half to three-fourths teaspoon curry powder

One-fourth teaspoon each: garlic salt and pepper

Three-fourths cup mayonnaise

Salted peanuts, parsley

Gradually add macaroni and one and one-half tablespoons salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Meanwhile, combine raisins and broth in saucepan. Let stand five minutes. Add chicken and onion; heat to serving temperature. Mix hot chicken mixture with hot macaroni; stir in three-fourths teaspoon salt, curry powder, garlic salt, pepper and mayonnaise. Serve sprinkled with peanuts and garnished with parsley. Makes six to eight servings.

Spaghetti fit for a king. And so easy on the budget. It's luxurious Spaghetti Florentina, combining two cheeses, walnuts and chopped spinach leaves in a recipe that is simple to prepare and sure to delight family and guests.

Serve it as the main dish for lunch or a late-night supper with a dry white wine and crusty Italian bread.

SPAGHETTI FLORENTINA

One tablespoon salt

Three quarts boiling water

Eight ounces vermicelli

One-half cup spinach leaves

Two tablespoons parsley leaves

One small clove garlic

Two tablespoons butter, melted

Two tablespoons olive oil

Two tablespoons chopped walnuts

Two tablespoons grated Romano cheese

Two tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

One-half teaspoon salt

One-fourth teaspoon basil leaves

Add one tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. (One tablespoon oil may also be added.) Gradually add vermicelli so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, five to seven minutes until desired tenderness. Drain in colander.

Wash spinach and parsley; shake to remove extra water, but allow moisture to cling to leaves. Place with remaining ingredients in electric blender. Blend at low to medium speed until vegetables are in tiny pieces. Pour mixture over vermicelli; toss until completely coated. Makes four to six servings.

Another idea with a touch of class at a relatively low cost is this wine flavored chicken liver sauce served over munchen egg noodles.

CHICKEN LIVER SAUCE

One pound chicken livers

One-fourth cup chopped onion

Two tablespoons butter or margarine

Two tablespoons flour

One-fourth teaspoon salt

One cup water

One can (four-ounce) sliced mushrooms, undrained

One-fourth cup dry sherry

One tablespoon salt

Three quarts boiling water

Eight ounces (four to five cups) munchen egg noodles

Minced parsley

Brown chicken livers and onion in butter. Remove from heat; blend in flour, one-fourth teaspoon salt and pepper. Stir in one cup water and mushrooms with liquid. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened and smooth. Add wine; simmer about five minutes, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, add one tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, seven to nine minutes until desired tenderness. Drain in colander. Serve sauce over noodles; garnish with parsley. Makes six to eight servings.

The zesty aura of the sea is in this luscious casserole that is prepared in advance and placed in the oven to bake while you relax.

SEA-SHELL SALMON

One can (sixteen-ounce) salmon

Three cups milk and liquid from salmon

Four tablespoons butter or margarine

Three tablespoons flour

One-half teaspoon dry mustard

One-half cup buttered bread crumbs

Pour off salmon liquid; add to milk to make three cups; set aside.

In saucepan, melt butter; blend in flour, mustard, one teaspoon salt and pepper. Add milk; cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in parsley. Remove skin and bone from salmon; break into chunks; mix with lemon juice.

Meanwhile, add one tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, six to seven minutes. Drain in colander.

Arrange in two-quart baking

LOUISIANA BEANS AND RICE

One-half pound pork sausage

One cup uncooked regular rice

One cup chopped celery

One envelope (one and one-half-ounce) seasoning mix for Sloppy Joes

Brown sausage in large skillet. Do not pour off drippings. Add remaining ingredients; stir until well mixed. Cover; simmer 30 minutes, stirring occasionally until rice is tender. Makes four to six servings.

Germans From Russia Name Friday Speaker

South West Michigan Chapter of the American Historical Society of Germans from Russia will meet Friday, March 18, from 7:30 to 10 p.m. at Maud Preston Palenske Memorial library, St. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehr and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weber of Flint will present the program, "A Visit with Relatives in the USSR in 1975."

The public is invited. Anyone wishing to bring their ancestral charts may do so.

The Lehr and Webers will show pictures and give a talk on their experiences on a trip deep into Asiatic parts of the USSR in 1975.

Highlight of the trip was a visit with relatives, Volga Germans, who were exiled from the village of Messer near Saratov in September of 1941 when Hitler's army was before Stalingrad. All Volga Germans, 650,000 of them, were transported and scattered east of the Ural Mountains, nearly to the Chinese border.

The Webers were allowed to visit at the home of an 88-year-old aunt in Alma Ata on the trip. In 1973, the Webers had to meet the same aunt in Tashkent, because they were not allowed to visit her in Alma Ata.

An aunt and uncle of the Lehrs, whom he had not seen in 56 years, had to travel for three and one-half days from their home in the Altai Mountain regions to meet the Lehrs in Tashkent for a visit.

According to the Lehrs and Webers, exiled Germans from the Volga region may return to their ancestral village for a visit, but foreigners may not.

Modular Bedrooms Offer More

Storage Options

For some time now, modular home furnishings have been very popular in living and family rooms because of the flexibility in arrangement and the tremendous wealth of storage options.

Bedroom furnishings are now getting a modular treatment for these same reasons.

Living spaces are shrinking in every room. New house plans indicate that bedrooms are no exception. In the bedroom shown here, items form a perimeter of storage around the room so popular in European design schemes. The storage provides a place for everything and everything can be in its place.

Modular furnishings actually can manipulate space to create an illusion of enlarging a room.

This unit turns corners to utilize every inch of space. A variety of units are 29 inches for the low profile look. Other units and deck pieces offer a variety of heights and meet various storage needs. The door storage area of the master's chest could conceal a television set, a stack of sweaters or shirts.

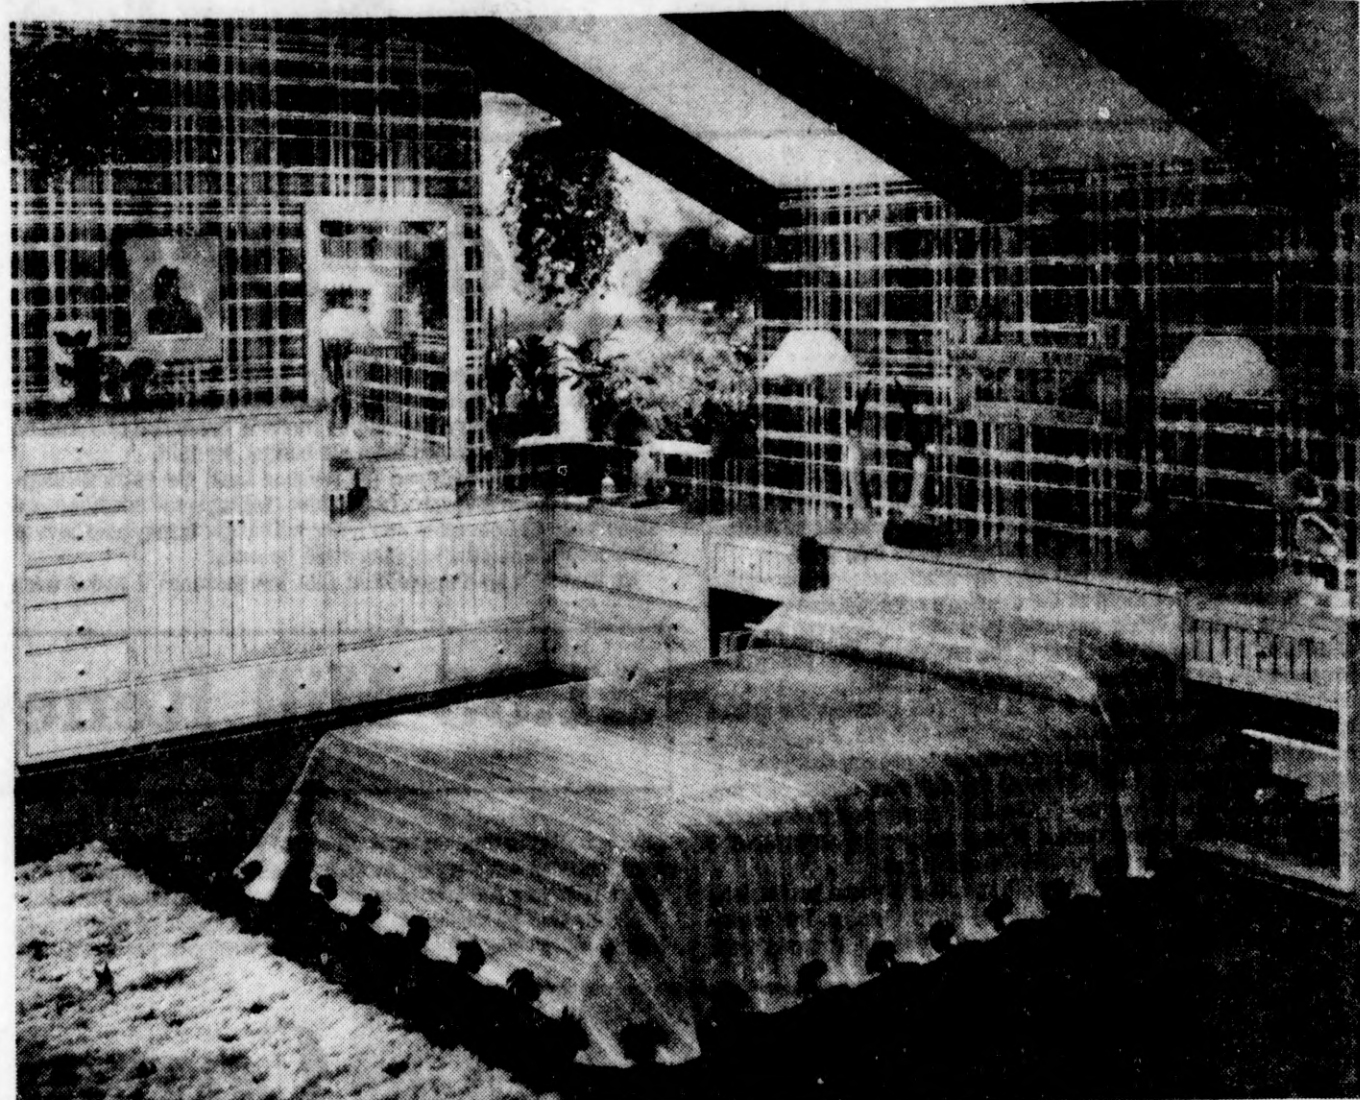

The headboard is designed with a sliding storage panel to provide more space to hide the clutter associated with night tables.

Today's rooms are almost void of all architecture. Modular furniture takes a cube-like room and gives instant architecture that can be a joy in the present apartment or the next home. An aspect of decorating with modular furnishings is the freedom it offers of placement in the home. It's ideal for people who move frequently, because items used in one room now, can later be used in another room.

The modular unit features high visual interest in the fronts of the cases. A vertical plank effect is seen on doors and selected drawers and the parting rail between drawers is recessed in some instances for unusual beauty. Casual character is noted in the carefully selected woods and complemented by simple white knob pulls. A light finish, the color of sourwood honey, adds a pleasing contemporary note.

Color scheme options are endless due to the light finish of this furniture. In this dramatic setting, plaid wallpaper in charcoal and white tones gives a sophisticated look. Charcoal carpet and bold beams play supporting roles in the design. Plants, natural baskets and shells provide beautiful accents. Textural beauty is seen in match stick blinds, the linen look bedspread and the woven area rug.

This line gives the modular bedroom a fresh new start in storage organization and style.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Her Letter Was Breakthrough

Dear Ann Landers: Why do you publish so many letters about sex when surely you must know that millions of handicapped adults who read your column are denied a sex life through no fault of their own?

It would be an act of mercy, Ann, if you eliminated or cut down on such letters. — No Can Do In Florida

Dear Florida: I have printed several letters by handicapped people who have written about

Dr. Lester Coleman

We have three children. All of them get a few infections during the year. The middle one, 9, seems to have more infections than all the others combined. Could she have some kind of deficiency that the others don't have? — Mrs. G.E.A., Maine

Dear Mrs. A.: It is not unusual for a 9-year-old child to have six or eight upper respiratory infections during the year, without having any special body deficiency.

Some children may easily pick up infections from other children at school. The number and the severity of infections depend on the child's general health, the time of the year and age group.

Only rarely is a defect in the body's immune system present. Yet more and more physicians are taking advantage of the advances in immunology when recurring infections seem to threaten the health and life of a child. Special tests for anti-body deficiency are now available. After these tests are performed, if there seems to be definite anti-body deficiencies, treatment can be started.

Injections of gamma globulin are very effective where the tests reveal the need.

Advances in immunology their sex problems. The letter that stands out in my mind was from a young woman who wanted the world to know that simply because a person is in a wheelchair does not mean he (or she) cannot enjoy sex. Her letter was a "breakthrough." It educated millions of people. That's what this column is all about.

Child Abuse

Dear Ann: Here are some questions for those of us who worry that we may be abusing our children:

1. Are you a troubled or nervous parent who doesn't know where to get help although you are sure you need it?
 2. When you are ready to blow up is it you or your children who bear the brunt of it?
 3. Do you feel confused, guilty and frightened about your parental behavior and feelings?
 4. Do you believe you were treated indifferently or cruelly as a child and now you are repeating some of the "past"?
 5. When you hear the words "abuse" or "neglect," do you end up thinking about your childhood or the kind of parent you are now?
 6. Are you physically or emotionally abusing or neglecting one or more of your children?
 7. Do you want your relationship with your children to be different — your family life more fulfilling, less explosive and tense, more loving?
- If you see yourself as the parent described in these seven questions, please get in touch with Parents Anonymous. Their toll-free numbers are: In California: (800) 352-4386. Outside California: (800) 421-0353. — We Love Our Children
- Dear Love: I have printed information about this splendid organization in the past and am pleased to do so again. Thank you for writing.

Not Possible

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 17-

year-old girl with a very unusual problem. I had been having morning sickness a lot so I went to our family doctor yesterday. He is positive I am pregnant — at least three months, he said. The tests will be back in a few days.

I have NEVER messed around with boys. Right now I don't even have a steady. What do I tell my parents? They have always trusted me.

I'm not the kind of girl who would do anything like that. Is there a record of anyone else having this problem? — In Trouble

Dear Trouble: Assuming the tests came back positive — no, dear. There was some talk a few years ago about a young girl who claimed she became pregnant from sperm picked up in the bathtub in which her brother had bathed a few minutes earlier. This was never proven against hearts and not any interest at all in playing at game or slam.

With this in mind, South really should have bid three no-trump over East's two spades and taken his nine top tricks.

South was unlucky in not making five clubs. His contract failed because West had listened carefully to the bidding and came to the conclusion that East would not have run from two hearts doubled with more than one heart in his hand. Hence, West opened the ace of hearts and continued in spite of receiving the three from his partner. East ruffed and eventually South lost a diamond trick.

Ask the Jacobys

By Oswald & James Jacoby

South was rather bitter about the whole thing. As he pointed out to his partner and his opponents in particular and anyone within hearing range, he just had to try for a slam with his tremendous hand.

In any event he wondered why his partner had made a business double with a mere four points.

We will answer that one for North. When your partner opens with a forcing two bid, he expects to continue to game unless a penalty double to an opposing bid offers a chance for a greater profit. Hence, when North doubled West's two-heart bid he was merely showing defense

Kitchen Maid Hands?

What's the fun of being a gourmet cook, if your hands look like a kitchen maid's?

On the spot hand care is the way to be able to serve gastronomical delights with beautiful hands.

Keep a raw potato handy, for rubbing over hands to pick up cooking and food odors, especially stubborn things like garlic.

Nearly should be a bottle of baby lotion for frequent application to soften hands and leave them smelling fresh. The baby lotion puts back the natural softness that water takes away, so having it right in the kitchen where hands are in and out of water insures on the spot hand care.

The rich natural oils in baby lotion will make hands young and beautiful — so one can be as proud of them as of a culinary creation.

Erma Bombeck Mother's Queen

We were born just ten months apart. Queen Elizabeth and I — which is probably why my mother has always paralleled our lives.

You'll probably find this hard to believe, but even as children we had very little in common. My mother refused to believe this. "Why can't you be neat like Elizabeth?" Look at her — her little anklets folded down neatly, her ruffles standing up and her little hair ribbon nestled under her crown.

Later it was, "So, why don't you meet a nice, tall man like Elizabeth did and settle down? Look at him. He worships the Commonwealth that girl walks upon. You know your trouble? You stick to domestic brands. It would pay you to shop other countries instead of settling for those creeps who sit out front and lay on the horn."

Predictably, she pushed for children. "I see where Elizabeth has three children already and you have zick. What are you waiting for? Trading stamps? Or are you going to get a friend to carry it around for you for nine months?"

When Elizabeth ascended to the throne in 1952, there was no living with Mother. "What I wouldn't give for you to have a steady job like that. So, you give up wearing teased hair the rest of your life. Is that so important? A crown is like a graduation cap. After awhile, you stop laughing at it."

Periodically, there have been reminders of "Elizabeth just reminds of her mother's allowance. It took an act of Parliament to do it, but she figures her mother is worth it."

The other day a headline caught both of our eyes. Elizabeth II is beginning her second 25 years on the throne and a biographer was granted a rare moment with her.

"She's always had great skin," said Mother wistfully.

"People always say that when you're chunky, have prominent teeth, ordinary hair, and talk through your nose. It's like saying, 'The veins in your nose match your convertible.' It's reaching."

"Why don't you like Elizabeth?"

"I've always liked Elizabeth," I said irritably. "I voted for her twice."

"There you go. You're jealous because she has a daughter who is married."

"Mother! I'm also beginning my second 25 years on the throne. My husband is employed. My kids are well. The freezer is paid for. I had no cavities last month. The car is running. My checkbook balanced. The cat isn't pregnant."

"You've got nice skin," said Mother.

She never gives up.

Plan Holiday For YOU

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — What makes a vacation successful? For one thing, vacationers themselves, and for another, careful planning, says veteran hotelman John F. Clifford.

After more than 40 years of observing vacationers of all ages, Clifford, general manager of the Breakers Hotel here, offers some tips to help make holidays happy, whether the budget's large or limited:

— Know yourself. Decide exactly what your vacation needs and preferences are, then tailor your plans to fit.

— Know your family. What are their interests? Golf, tennis, swimming, camping? Do they like to dress for dinner or to be completely casual? The answers help in selecting hotels or resorts.

— Think of the children. For younger travelers, look into special provisions — rates, supervised play areas and particular attractions for them.

— Be realistic, especially about money. Economics plays a big part in the selection of a vacation spot. Better a less ambitious schedule than a budget stretched out of shape.

— Consider traveling off season. Inquire about trips to areas of the country you'd like to visit at a time that isn't the height of their vacation season. There are attractive off-season package rates — almost everywhere.

— Face up to tipping. Allow for it in advance, along with other expenses. Then relax.

— Check your attitude. Expect to have a good time. Leave worries and doubts at home. Smile: you'll most likely receive a smile in return.

— Stay cool. If something goes amiss, a responsible staff will right any wrong in short order. They value your respect and approval. And, remember, a sense of humor often helps in any situation.

— Concentrate on the here and now. Enjoy the new and unfamiliar, even the unexpected can be fun.

— Be yourself. Do what pleases you. It's your vacation.

BARBECUE LASAGNA

HEARTY BEAN SOUP WITH RICE

SURPRISE YOUR FAMILY WITH SOMETHING NEW

Suppers Fit For A King Also Fit The Budget

Somebody is always coming up with something new.

Here's a new recipe for a lasagna that's so totally different...yet it works and it's very low cost. Barbecue Lasagna substitutes a barbecue mixture in place of the traditional Italian sauce and a pound of frankfurters instead of ground beef.

The barbecue flavor is refreshingly different and it's easily put together with a can of tomato sauce and prepared yellow mustard.

A perfect accompaniment is cornbread. For a complete meal, serve with a tossed salad, sherbet and cookies and a beverage.

BARBECUE LASAGNA
Eight ounces lasagna noodles
One can (fifteen-ounce) tomato sauce
One-fourth cup prepared yellow mustard
One tablespoon sugar
One pound frankfurters, thinly sliced
Eight slices process American cheese

Cook noodles following directions on package; drain. Heat together tomato sauce, mustard, sugar and frankfurters. Dice six slices cheese.

In greased twelve by eight-inch baking dish, arrange layers of noodles, frankfurter mixture and diced cheese. Cut remaining two slices cheese into quarters; arrange on top of lasagna. Bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes. Makes six servings.

Plant sources of protein are cheaper than the animal sources, so keep them in mind when you want to prepare extra-economical meals.

HEARTY BEAN SOUP WITH RICE
Two cups dry pinto beans or black beans
Two and one-half quarts chicken broth or ham broth
One and one-half pounds smoked ham hock or leftover ham bone with bits of meat
One cup chopped onions
Two cups sliced carrots
Four cloves garlic, crushed
Hot peppers to taste
Salt to taste
One-fourth cup dry sherry
Three to four cups hot cooked rice

Wash beans. Discard imperfect ones. Drain. Add cold water to come one inch over beans. Let soak overnight. Or bring to a boil, boil for one minute, remove from heat, and let stand one hour. Drain.

Add all ingredients except sherry and rice. Heat to boiling, reduce heat, cover and simmer about three hours or until beans are very tender. Stir oc-asionally while cooking and adjust seasonings, if necessary. If more liquid is needed, add boiling broth or water.

When beans are tender, remove bones. Place about half of the soup in a blender and puree. (Or put through sieve or mash.) Return to kettle. Stir in sherry. Ladle soup into bowls and top with mounds of rice.

Serve with a relish tray of green onions, sliced tomatoes, green pepper rings and radishes, if desired. Makes six to eight servings.

Here's an idea for an inexpensive but noteworthy main-dish you can put on the table in 30 minutes. Individual Meatloaves gives a fresh look to an old favorite and has a sprightly orange sauce that makes it really different.

Golden Topped Potato Casserole makes an interesting side dish. Complete your quick, easy and low cost dinner with green peas, chocolate pudding and milk or coffee.

INDIVIDUAL MEATLOAVES
One envelope (seven-eighths-ounce) onion gravy mix
One and one-fourth cups water

Two tablespoons orange marmalade
One egg
One-half teaspoon salt
One-half cup fine dry bread crumbs

One pound ground beef
Stir together contents of gravy mix envelope, water and marmalade. Measure one-fourth cup gravy mixture and combine with egg, salt, bread crumbs and ground beef; mix lightly. Shape five oval loaves on shallow baking pan. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Heat remaining gravy mixture to boiling, stirring frequently. Serve gravy over meatloaves. Makes five servings.

GOLDEN TOPPED POTATO CASSEROLE
One envelope (five servings) mashed potato granules
One package (three-ounce) cream cheese, softened at room temperature
One tablespoon butter, softened at room temperature
Two tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
One-fourth teaspoon paprika

Prepare potatoes following directions on package, except reduce milk to one-fourth cup. Add cream cheese, stirring briskly until cheese melts and blends in with potatoes. Spoon into buttered small casserole. Combine butter, crumbs and paprika; sprinkle over potatoes. Bake at 400 degrees for five to ten minutes, until crumb topping is golden brown. Makes five servings.

Macaroni and egg noodles stretch any food budget and make tasty, pleasing dishes with little effort.

ONE POT CREAMY MACARONI AND MEAT

One-half cup chopped onion (about one medium onion)
Two tablespoons butter or margarine
One-fourth teaspoon pepper
One-half teaspoon dry mustard

Three and one-half cups water
Two cups uncooked elbow macaroni (eight ounces)
One-third cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives

One can (twelve-ounce) luncheon meat diced
One and one-half cups dairy sour cream
One cup grated Swiss cheese (about four ounces)

In three-quart saucepan, saute onion in butter until golden. Add seasonings and water; bring to a boil. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cover and simmer for 12 to 15 minutes or until macaroni is tender; stir frequently. (Most of cooking liquid should be absorbed.)

Stir in olives, luncheon meat and sour cream until combined. Cook, uncovered, over very low heat for about five minutes or just until mixture is heated through; stir occasionally. Stir in cheese until melted. Turn in to warm serving dish.

If desired, garnish with additional pimiento-stuffed olive slices. Serve immediately. Makes six servings.

EGG NOODLES WITH QUICK BEEF STROGANOFF
Three tablespoons chopped onion

One tablespoon butter or margarine

Two cans (ten and one-half-ounces each) condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted

One can (three-ounce) sliced mushrooms, undrained

One cup dairy sour cream
One-fourth teaspoon celery salt

Three cups diced leftover beef
Eight ounces medium egg noodles (about four cups)

One tablespoon salt
Three quarts boiling water
Saute onion in butter until

crisp-tender. Blend in soup, undrained mushrooms, sour cream and celery salt. Add beef and heat to serving temperature.

Meanwhile, gradually add noodles and salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Serve topped with beef mixture. Makes four servings.

HOT MACARONI CHICKEN SALAD

Twelve ounces elbow macaroni (about three cups)
One and one-half teaspoon salt
Four to five quarts boiling water

One-half cup golden seedless raisins
One-half cup chicken broth or bouillon

Three cups julienne cooked chicken
One-fourth cup chopped red onion

Three-fourths teaspoon salt
One-half to three-fourths teaspoon curry powder

One-fourth teaspoon each: garlic salt and pepper
Three-fourths cup mayonnaise

Salted peanuts, parsley

Gradually add macaroni and one and one-half tablespoons salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Meanwhile, combine raisins and broth in saucepan. Let stand five minutes. Add chicken and onion; heat to serving temperature. Mix hot chicken mixture with hot macaroni; stir in three-fourths teaspoon salt, curry powder, garlic salt, pepper and mayonnaise. Serve sprinkled with peanuts and garnished with parsley. Makes six to eight servings.

Spaghetti fit for a king. And so easy on the budget. It's luxurious Spaghetti Florentina, combining two cheeses, walnuts and chopped spinach leaves in a recipe that is simple to prepare and sure to delight family and guests.

Serve it as the main dish for lunch or a late-night supper with a dry white wine and crusty Italian bread.

SPAGHETTI FLORENTINA

One tablespoon salt
Three quarts boiling water
Eight ounces vermicelli

One-half cup spinach leaves
Two tablespoons parsley leaves

One small clove garlic
Two tablespoons butter, melted

Two tablespoons olive oil
Two tablespoons chopped walnuts

Two tablespoons grated Romano cheese
Two tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

One-half teaspoon salt
One-fourth teaspoon basil leaves

Add one tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. (One tablespoon oil may also be added.) Gradually add vermicelli so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, five to seven minutes until desired tenderness. Drain in colander.

Wash spinach and parsley; shake to remove extra water, but allow moisture to cling to leaves. Place with remaining ingredients in electric blender. Blend at low to medium speed until vegetables are in tiny pieces. Pour mixture over vermicelli; toss until completely coated. Makes four to six servings.

CHICKEN LIVER SAUCE
One pound chicken livers
One-fourth cup chopped onion
Two tablespoons butter or margarine

Two tablespoons flour
One-fourth teaspoon salt
Dash pepper

One cup water
One can (four-ounce) sliced mushrooms, undrained

One-fourth cup dry sherry
One tablespoon salt
Three quarts boiling water

Eight ounces (four to five cups) munchen egg noodles
Minced parsley

Brown chicken livers and onion in butter. Remove from heat; blend in flour, one-fourth teaspoon salt and pepper. Stir in one cup water and mushrooms with liquid. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened and smooth. Add wine; simmer about five minutes, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, add one tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, seven to nine minutes until desired tenderness. Drain in colander. Serve sauce over noodles; garnish with parsley. Makes six to eight servings.

Arrange in two-quart baking

The zesty aura of the sea is in this luscious casserole that is prepared in advance and placed in the oven to bake while you relax.

SEA-SHELL SALMON

Meanwhile, add one tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, six to seven minutes. Drain in colander.

Arrange in two-quart baking dish a layer of cooked macaroni, salmon and sauce; repeat. Top with bread crumbs; bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Makes six servings.

LOUISIANA BEANS AND RICE

One-half pound pork sausage
Two cups water

One cup uncooked regular rice

Boy Found Guilty Of Killing Girl, 3

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Psychiatrists say 13-year-old Tommy Albrecht learned about violence through his father's threats and beatings. Now Tommy faces five years in state custody for beating to death a 3-year-old girl.

Juvenile Court Judge John Miller ordered Tommy turned over to the Division of Youth Services Tuesday after denying an insanity plea and finding him guilty of manslaughter. Officials said Tommy could be kept in state institutions until he reaches age 18.

The boy was charged with second-degree murder for hitting and kicking Staci Chabon to death last Oct. 26 after he spent 20 hours babysitting the child. The judge reduced the charge to manslaughter. Witnesses at Tommy's three-day trial painted a picture of a confused and hostile boy who learned the use of his fists from beatings administered by his father, Larry Albrecht.

psychiatric center, administrators at his elementary school placed him in a special class

for emotionally disturbed children after repeated incidents with classmates. But records indicate he seemed to be getting better last year. He maintained a solid "B" average in the seventh grade.

Fraud Indictments Name Fifty-Three

DETROIT (AP) — A federal grand jury handed down indictments Tuesday charging that 53 current and former employees of the Internal Revenue Service defrauded the welfare system of more than $200,000.

U.S. Atty. Philip Van Dam of Detroit said the latest indictments brought to 250 the number of Michigan IRS employees who have been charged with submitting false claims for welfare.

Van Dam said the employees involved were collecting Aid to Dependent Children benefits while earning salaries ranging from $7,500 to $15,000.

All of the indictments charge multiple counts of mail fraud and making false statements to the government. The charges carry sentences ranging up to a five-year jail term and a $10,000 fine.

"Except for 15 or 16 individuals awaiting trial, all persons indicted up to today have been convicted and received stiff penalties in federal court," Van Dam said.

Van Dam said the persons indicted Tuesday would be arraigned within the week.

He said the Tuesday's indictments represented $222,200 worth of fraudulent welfare claims. The 250 fraudulent claims uncovered so far totaled $1,411,432, he said.

"Once we have completed our review of the various federal agencies, we shall begin to move onto local and county employment rolls," he said.

With An Eye To Energy

LANSING (AP) — A joint House-Senate committee to study energy shortages in Michigan has been proposed by state Rep. Claude A. Trim, D-Davison, and House Speaker Bobby Crim, D-Davison. If approved by both houses of the legislature, the special committee would research the state's energy problems and report its findings back to the legislature by the end of the current session.

State PBB Trial Has New Angle

By PIET BENNETT Associated Press Writer
CADDILLAC, Mich. (AP) — A state feed inspector says he was summoned at taxpayers' expense to Lansing to be questioned by a lawyer for a private firm being sued in Michigan's first PBB contamination trial.

Harold Wester, a feed inspector with the Michigan Department of Agriculture for 29 years, testified Tuesday he was ordered by the state to make the trip from his base at Lake City two or three weeks ago.

He said another feed inspector who covers the Michigan Farm Bureau Services plant in Battle Creek, where the fire-retardant polybrominated biphenyl (PBB) accidentally was mixed into livestock feed in 1973, also met with lawyer Kenneth McIntyre in Lansing. McIntyre represents Farm Bureau Services in the trial.

But Wester never was asked if the other inspector was ordered to the meeting or had expenses paid by the state.

Wester testified after Roy Tacoma, the Missaukee County dairyman who filed the suit, finished seven days on the witness stand. The first of 8 to 10 employees from Michigan Chemical Co., the other major defendant and maker of PBB, was slated to start testifying today.

McIntyre objected vehemently to parts of Wester's testimony Tuesday. At one point, the lawyer described himself as "powerless" to reply to what Wester was saying since a lawyer cannot testify. "If you're powerless, I'll not take advantage of you," Wester promptly assured McIntyre.

During cross-examination, McIntyre noted that Gary Schenk, one of Tacoma's attorneys, interviewed Wester some time later than McIntyre did. But McIntyre never asked where Schenk's interview was held or who paid Wester's expenses.

Much of Wester's testimony dealt with feed samples he took from the three branches of the Falmouth Co-op, another defendant in the suit. Tacoma contends he bought tainted feed from the co-op.

Wester said feed residues from the co-op's main plant in Falmouth still showed traces of PBB this year.

He also reported he once was ordered to close the co-op's McBain mill but was talked out of it by a Farm Bureau official, who claimed his company was developing a new paint to seal in PBB.

However, Wester said he never learned if the mill was painted with the substance, and said that plant showed PBB residues for months after the closing order was suspended.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Her Letter Was Breakthrough

Dear Ann Landers: Why do you publish so many letters about sex when surely you must know that millions of handicapped adults who read your column are denied a sex life through no fault of their own?

It would be an act of mercy, Ann, if you eliminated or cut down on such letters. — No Can Do In Florida

Dear Ann: I have printed several letters by handicapped people who have written about their sex problems. The letter that stands out in my mind was from a young woman who wanted the world to know that simply because a person is in a wheelchair does not mean he (or she) cannot enjoy sex. Her letter was a "breakthrough." It educated millions of people. That's what this column is all about.

Child Abuse

Dear Ann: Here are some questions for those of us who worry that we may be abusing our children:

1. Are you a troubled or nervous parent who doesn't know where to get help although you are sure you need it?
 2. When you are ready to blow up is it you or your children who bear the brunt of it?
 3. Do you feel confused, guilty and frightened about your parental behavior and feelings?
 4. Do you believe you were treated differently or cruelly as a child and now you are repeating some of the "past"?
 5. When you hear the words "abuse" or "neglect," do you end up thinking about your childhood or the kind of parent you are now?
 6. Are you physically or emotionally abusing or neglecting one or more of your children?
 7. Do you want your relationship with your children to be different — your family life more fulfilling, less explosive and tense, more loving?
- If you see yourself as the parent described in these seven questions, please get in touch with Parents Anonymous. Their toll-free numbers are: In California: (800) 352-0386. Outside California: (800) 421-0353. — We Love Our Children
- Dear Ann: I have printed information about this splendid organization in the past and am pleased to do so again. Thank you for writing.

Not Possible

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 17-

ANN LANDERS

year-old girl with a very unusual problem. I had been having morning sickness a lot so I went to our family doctor yesterday. He is positive I am pregnant — at least three months, he said. The tests will be back in a few days.

I have NEVER messed around with boys. Right now I don't even have a steady. What do I tell my parents? They have always trusted me.

I'm not the kind of girl who would do anything like that. Is there a record of anyone else having this problem? — In Trouble

Dear Ann: Assuming the tests came back positive — no, dear. There was some talk a few years ago about a young girl who claimed she became pregnant from sperm picked up in the bathtub in which her brother had bathed a few minutes earlier. This was never proven scientifically and very few people believed it was possible. When a pregnancy occurs, it must be assumed that the female has had sexual relations.

A no-nonsense approach to how to deal with life's most difficult and most rewarding arrangement. Ann Landers' booklet, "Marriage — What to Expect," will prepare you for better or for worse. Send your request to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120, enclosing 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Plan Holiday For YOU

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — What makes a vacation successful? For one thing, vacationers themselves, and for another, careful planning, says veteran hotelman John F. Clifford.

After more than 40 years of observing vacationers of all ages, Clifford, general manager of the Breakers Hotel here, offers some tips to help make holidays happy, whether the budget's large or limited.

— Know your family. What are their interests? Golf, tennis, swimming, camping? Do they like to dress for dinner or to be completely casual? The answers help in selecting hotels or resorts.

— Think of the children. For younger travelers, look into special provisions — rates, supervised play areas and particular attractions for them.

— Be realistic, especially about money. Economics plays a big part in the selection of a vacation spot. Better a less ambitious schedule than a budget stretched out of shape.

— Consider traveling off season. Inquire about trips to areas of the country you'd like to visit at a time that isn't the height of their vacation season. There are attractive off-season package rates almost everywhere.

— Face up to tipping. Allow for it in advance, along with other expenses. Then relax.

— Check your attitude. Expect to have a good time. Leave worries and doubts at home. Smile; you'll most likely receive a smile in return.

— Stay cool. If something goes amiss, a responsible staff will right any wrong in short order. They value your respect and approval. And, remember, a sense of humor often helps in any situation.

— Concentrate on the here and now. Enjoy the new and unfamiliar; even the unexpected can be fun.

— Be yourself. Do what pleases you. It's your vacation.

Kitchen Maid Hands?

What's the fun of being a gourmet cook, if your hands look like a kitchen maid's?

On the spot hand care is the way to be able to serve gastronomic delights with beautiful hands.

Keep a raw potato handy, for rubbing over hands to pick up cooking and food odors, especially stubborn things like garlic.

Nearly should be a bottle of baby lotion for frequent application to soften hands and leave them smelling fresh. The baby lotion puts back the natural softness that water takes away, so having it right in the kitchen where hands are in and out of water insures on the spot hand care.

The rich natural oils in baby lotion will make hands young and beautiful — so one can be as proud of them as of a culinary creation.

Erma Bombeck

Mother's Queen

We were born just ten months apart, Queen Elizabeth and I — which is probably why my mother has always paralleled our lives.

You'll probably find this hard to believe, but even as children we had very little in common. My mother refused to believe this. "Why can't you be neat like Elizabeth?" Look at her — her little anklets folded down neatly, her ruffles standing up and her little hair ribbon nestled under her crown.

Later it was, "So, why don't you meet a nice, tall man like Elizabeth did and settle down?" Look at him. He worships the Commonweath that girl walks upon. You know your trouble? You stick to domestic brands. It would pay you to shop other countries instead of settling for those creeps who sit out front and lay on the horn."

Predictably, she pushed for children. "I see where Elizabeth has three children already and you have zilch. What are you waiting for? Trading stamps? Or are you going to get a friend to carry it around for you for nine months?"

When Elizabeth ascended to the throne in 1952, there was no living with Mother. "What I wouldn't give for you to have a steady job like that. So, you give up wearing teased hair the rest of your life. Is that so important? A crown is like a graduation cap. After awhile, you stop laughing at it."

Periodically, there have been reminders of "Elizabeth just raised her mother's allowance. It took an act of Parliament to do it, but she figures her mother is worth it."

The other day a headline caught both of our eyes. Elizabeth II is beginning her second 25 years on the throne and a biographer was granted a rare moment with her.

"She's always had great skin," said Mother wistfully.

"People always say that when you're chunky, have prominent teeth, ordinary hair, and talk through your nose. It's like saying, 'The veins in your nose match your convertible.' It's reaching."

"Why don't you like Elizabeth?"

"I've always liked Elizabeth," I said irritably. "I voted for her twice."

"There you go. You're jealous because she has a daughter who is married."

"Mother! I'm also beginning my second 25 years on the throne. My husband is employed. My kids are well. The freezer is paid for. I had no cavities last month. The car is running. My checkbook balanced. The cat isn't pregnant."

"You've got nice skin," said Mother. She never gives up.

We have three children. All of them get a few infections during the year. The middle one, 9, seems to have more infections than all the others combined. Could she have some kind of deficiency that the others don't have? — Mrs. G.E.A., Maine

Dear Mrs. A.: It is not unusual for a 9-year-old child to have six or eight upper respiratory infections during the year, without having any special kind of deficiency.

Some children may easily pick up infections from other children at school. The number and the severity of infections depend on the child's general health, the time of the year and age group.

Only rarely is a defect in the body's immune system present. Yet more and more physicians are taking advantage of the advances in immunology when recurring infections seem to threaten the health and life of a child. Special tests for anti-body deficiency are now available. After these tests are performed, if there seems to be definite anti-body deficiencies, treatment can be started.

Injections of gamma globulin are very effective where the tests reveal the need.

Advances in immunology

have been extensive. Dozens of screening tests can now pinpoint the nature and the severity of abnormal body immunity. Most large hospitals have departments of immunology where these tests can be carried out, when the doctor suspects some abnormal resistance to infection. Dr. E.Z. Ezdinli, at the Chicago Medical School, believes that eventually, immunity to cancer might be transferred to patients.

You should know, however, that the possibility of immune deficiency in your child is not great. The frequency of respiratory infections will probably diminish as she grows older.

Is it safe to take an ice cold shower after playing tennis? My husband does this and I wonder if it's good for him. — Mrs. T.E., Mich.

Dear Mrs. E.:

A Chicago cardiologist reported this, in the Journal of the Academy of Family Physicians. "Cold showers, especially after exercise, can be hazardous. Changes in circulation occur within 20 seconds and are equivalent to accelerating a car to 40 miles an hour, and then shifting it into reverse."

Boy Found Guilty Of Killing Girl, 3

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Psychiatrists say 13-year-old Tommy Albrecht learned about violence through his father's threats and thrashings. Now Tommy faces five years in state custody for beating to death a 3-year-old girl.

Juvenile Court Judge John Miller ordered Tommy turned over to the Division of Youth

Services Tuesday after denying an insanity plea and finding him guilty of manslaughter. Officials said Tommy could be kept in state institutions until he reaches age 18.

The boy was charged with second-degree murder for hitting and kicking Staci Chubin to death last Oct. 26 after he spent 20 hours babysitting the child. The judge reduced the

psychiatric center, administrators at his elementary school placed him in a special class

for emotionally disturbed children after repeated incidents with classmates. But records indicate he seemed to be getting better last year. He maintained a solid "B" average in the seventh grade.

Fraud Indictments Name Fifty-Three

DETROIT (AP) — A federal grand jury handed down indictments Tuesday charging that 53 current and former employees of the Internal Revenue Service defrauded the welfare system of more than $200,000.

U.S. Atty. Philip Van Dam of Detroit said the latest indictments brought to 250 the number of Michigan IRS employees who have been charged with submitting false claims for welfare.

Van Dam said the employees involved were collecting Aid to Dependent Children benefits while earning salaries ranging from $7,500 to $15,000.

All of the indictments charge multiple counts of mail fraud and making false statements to the government. The charges carry sentences ranging up to a five-year jail term and a $10,000 fine.

"Except for 15 or 16 individuals awaiting trial, all persons indicted up to today have been convicted and received stiff penalties in federal court," Van Dam said.

Van Dam said the persons indicted Tuesday would be arraigned within the week.

He said the Tuesday's indictments represented $222,200 worth of fraudulent welfare claims. The 250 fraudulent claims uncovered so far totalled $1,411,432 he said.

"Once we have completed our review of the various federal agencies, we shall begin to move onto local and county employment rolls," he said.

She said that as Tommy grew older, he began to imitate his father, displaying a violent temper and beating his sister.

"Tommy's reaction to discipline was similar to his father's — violence," Mrs. Albrecht testified. "Once he ran over the neighbor's kitten with his tricycle because he was mad at the little girl next door."

Tommy's mother divorced his father in 1972. Albrecht has refused to discuss any details of his family life.

With An Eye To Energy

LANSING (AP) — A joint House-Senate committee to study energy shortages in Michigan has been proposed by state Rep. Claude A. Trim, D-Davison, and House Speaker Bobby Crim, D-Davison. If approved by both houses of the legislature, the special committee would research the state's energy problems and report its findings back to the legislature by the end of the current session.

State PBB Trial Has New Angle

By PIET BENNETT
Associated Press Writer
CADILLAC, Mich. (AP) — A state feed inspector says he was summoned at taxpayers' expense to Lansing to be questioned by a lawyer for a private firm being sued in Michigan's first PBB contamination trial.

Harold Wester, a feed inspector with the Michigan Department of Agriculture for 29 years, testified Tuesday he was ordered by the state to make the trip from his base at Lake City two or three weeks ago.

He said another feed inspector who covers the Michigan Farm Bureau Services plant in Battle Creek, where the fire-retardant polybrominated biphenyl (PBB) accidentally was mixed into livestock feed in 1973, also met with lawyer Kenneth McIntyre in Lansing. McIntyre represents Farm Bureau Services in the trial.

But Wester never was asked if the other inspector was ordered to the meeting or had expenses paid by the state.

Wester testified after Roy Tacoma, the Missaukee County dairyman who filed the suit, finished seven days on the witness stand. The first of 8 to 10 employees from the Michigan Chemical Co., the other major defendant and maker of PBB, was slated to start testifying today.

McIntyre objected vehemently to parts of Wester's testimony Tuesday. At one point, the lawyer described himself as "powerless" to reply to what Wester was saying since a lawyer cannot testify. "If you're powerless, I'll not take advantage of you," Wester promptly assured McIntyre.

During cross-examination, McIntyre noted that Gary Schenk, one of Tacoma's attorneys, interviewed Wester some time later than McIntyre did. But McIntyre never asked where Schenk's interview was held or who paid Wester's expenses.

Much of Wester's testimony dealt with feed samples he took from the three branches of the Falmouth Co-op, another defendant in the suit. Tacoma contends he bought tainted feed from the co-op.

Wester said feed residues from the co-op's main plant in Falmouth still showed traces of PBB this year.

He also reported he once was ordered to close the co-op's McBain mill but was talked out of it by a Farm Bureau official, who claimed his company was developing a new paint to seal in PBB.

However, Wester said he never learned if the mill was painted with the substance, and said that plant showed PBB residues for months after the closing order was suspended.

Gas Diversion Is Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texaco, Inc. diverted 172 million cubic feet of natural gas daily from federal lands it leases and used it for its own purposes, apparently a violation of the law, columnist Jack Anderson and The Washington Post reported today. The oil company took the gas from the lands it leases off the Louisiana coast to its refinery in Port Arthur, Texas. The action was taken without approval of the Federal Power Commission, they said. In a telegram to the FPC, Texaco conceded it has taken 580 billion cubic feet of gas since 1961, according to the two accounts. The Post said Texaco was burning enough natural gas each year to heat 523,000 homes. A Texaco spokesman in New York City said the company "has complied with all requirements of the FPC in seeking and obtaining approval to transport" the gas.

Land, Stock Deals Detailed

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Complicated land and stock deals involving former Arizona Republican chairman Harry Rosenzweig are detailed in published accounts of the latest articles by a group of investigative reporters. The latest story did not include any allegations of illegality in the intricate deals, but stressed the presence — sometimes on the periphery — of convicted extortionist and land promoter Ned Warren Sr. The published accounts — appearing in Wednesday editions of the Indianapolis Star and the Miami Herald available Tuesday night — were the latest in a copyright series by investigative reporters and editors, Inc. Thirty-six journalists went to the state after the murder of reporter Don Bolles of the Arizona Republic. The series, for use over 24 days, was released to participating newspapers and broadcast outlets beginning Sunday. The series already has drawn criticism from U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and his brother Robert, mentioned in earlier installments.

Were 'Moonies' Brainwashed?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A routine court hearing has ballooned into a "trial" of the Rev. Sun Myung Moon's Unification Church and the professional deprogrammers hired to battle his influence on the young people called moonies. At issue are "brainwashing" tactics each side claims the other uses — one to win converts to the church; the other, to wean them away. Caught in the middle are four young women and a young man who sit quietly in the courtroom every day beside their parents, who are their adversaries in the strange proceeding. The parents have asked Superior Court Judge S. Lee Vavuris to grant them 30-day "conservatorships" over their adult children to remove them from the influence of Moon's church for deprogramming.

Chilean Defiance Growing

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chile's 3½-year-old military government has hardened its position against resistance at home and criticism from abroad on the issue of human rights. Increased Chilean defiance of foreign pressures on the rights issue seems sure to raise tension between the President Augusto Pinochet's government and the Carter administration. Officials showed open irritation last week at reports that hundreds of Chileans disappeared after being arrested by security agents. A decree last Saturday dissolving political parties was aimed chiefly at the Christian Democrats, once the country's largest and most powerful party, who have been active on behalf of persons reported missing.

'Pot' Backer Says House Is Ducking Legal Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lead of an organization that advocates decriminalizing marijuana says the House is "ducking" the issue.

Keith Stroup, director of the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws, criticized a special House narcotics committee Tuesday for holding hearings on marijuana while it is powerless to write legislation.

Ballenger Chief Of Licensing

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — William Ballenger, former state legislator, has been named director of the state Department of Licensing and Regulation.

Aides to Gov. William Milliken said Tuesday that Ballenger, 35, would help the newly reorganized department assume more of a consumer protection role. He also will act as state coordinator of consumer activities.

In a surprise announcement, Milliken said department director Beverly Clark is resigning after nearly four years at the department's helm. Aides said Mrs. Clark asked to be returned to a civil service job as a hearings examiner, although that means a pay cut.

Mrs. Clark was one of two women among the state's 19 department heads.

The Ballenger appointment is effective March 28. The job pays $24,500 a year.

Ballenger was deputy assistant secretary of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare after an unsuccessful 1974 bid for the Republican nomination to Congress.

Before that, he served two years in the state House and four in the state Senate. Milliken's top aide, George Weeks, said Ballenger was recruited because he was "a very strong, effective and articulate consumer advocate" while in the legislature.

The panel, which will report its findings to Congress, was holding a third day of hearings today.

"You won't take a position," Stroup angrily testified. "You're not voting. You're ducking, that's what you're doing."

Stroup asked Rep. Paul Rogers, D-Fla., whose House Commerce subcommittee on health and the environment has jurisdiction over the issue, "Why has your subcommittee not scheduled hearings?"

Although he has said he favors civil rather than criminal penalties for the possession of small amounts of marijuana for personal use,

Rogers has not scheduled hearings on decriminalization bills submitted over the past four years.

In response to Stroup and in an interview later, Rogers said he believes the subcommittee has more important health matters to consider, especially since hearings were held in the Senate and no action was taken.

"I want to wait and see what recommendations the special committee makes," Rogers said. Asked if the subcommittee might then take the matter up, he said, "It is always possible if the time element permits." But he added that he would like to see the Senate act first.

Rogers also told Stroup that efforts for decriminalization should be concentrated on state legislatures, since less than one per cent of the 400,000 marijuana arrests each year are made under federal law.

Stroup and other advocates of decriminalization said action by Congress would spur states into decriminalization.

Eight states have already passed such laws.

The legislation pending in Congress would repeal federal criminal penalties for possession of up to one ounce — enough for about 20 cigarettes — for personal use.

PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYMENT PROJECTS

The Berrien County CETA Program is now accepting applications for short-term Special Public Service Employment Projects, pursuant to revisions of the Title VI Federal Regulations. Eligible applicants include units of general purpose local government and agencies thereof, combinations of associations of such governmental units whose primary purpose is to provide public services, special purpose political subdivisions having the power to tax and spend funds, local educational agencies, institutions of higher education, community development corporations, non-profit groups and organizations serving Indians and other non-profit private organizations or institutions engaged in public service. A portion of the overall funding allocation to Berrien County will be used in projects to non-profit groups and organizations.

Projects must run a minimum of three (3) months but not longer than twelve (12) months. All projects must begin before September 30, 1977. Projects must be clearly defined specific tasks, which have a public service objective, and which results in a specific product or accomplishment when completed and which would not otherwise be accomplished with existing funds. If a project proposes to expand a current public service to any degree, the specific and product of the expansion of services must be defined and an explanation of how the need for the expanded level of service will no longer exist at the conclusion of the project.

Public service activity includes, but is not limited to, the following: identification, conservation, crime prevention and control, education, child care, environmental quality, fire protection, health care, housing and neighborhood improvements, manpower service, parks, streets and other public safety, recreation, rural development, solid waste removal, transportation, veterans outreach, community surveys or canvassing, etc. It excludes building and highway construction work (except that which the applicant is authorized to do and would normally perform itself rather than contract out). The CETA Act forbids participants to be employed in the construction, operation or maintenance of such part of any facility as is used or will be used for sectarian instruction or as a place of religious worship.

There will be an offeror's conference on March 17, 1977 at 2:00 p.m. at the Niles Community Library Auditorium or March 18, 1977 at 2:00 p.m. at the Berrien County Courthouse, Board of Commissioners Room, to answer any questions with regard to Special Projects or the completion of an application.

Special Projects applications are currently available at the CETA Office, 145 West Main Street, Benton Harbor, Michigan 49022, 927-2476. The allocation of special project funds will be by project approval. The deadline for all project applications is 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 31, 1977.

U-M Won't Reveal Psychiatric Records Of VA Nurse

DETROIT (AP) — The University of Michigan has refused to reveal the psychiatric records of a deceased nursing supervisor who claimed responsibility for the 1975 Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital killings.

Attorneys for the university and its psychiatric hospital appeared in U.S. District Court here Tuesday to fight defense subpoenas for the woman's mental health records.

"COME OUT HERE, HARRY. I WANT YOU TO HEAR THIS GUY TRY TO PRONOUNCE BICYCLOHEPTENE DICARBOXIMIDE."

University officials also said they have suspended a psychiatric care worker who told a Detroit Free Press reporter about statements the woman made while she was hospitalized last year.

The worker, 33-year-old Henry Bryant, was suspended from his job at the U-M Neuropsychiatric Institute (NPI) for "breaching confidentiality," according to university lawyer William Lemmer. The suspension could lead to Bryant's dismissal, Lemmer said.

Bryant said Tuesday he revealed the statements because he felt a moral duty to disclose evidence that might be important to Filipina Narciso, 30, and Leonora Perez, 32.

The two Filipina nurses are charged with using the muscle-relaxant drug Pavulon to murder two patients and poison seven others at the hospital in 1975. Jury selection for their trial entered its third week in federal court Tuesday.

More than 50 mysterious breathing failures occurred at the VA hospital between July 1 and Aug. 15, 1975. Eleven of the patients died.

"The issue is basically life versus an absolute degree of privacy," said Bryant, who has worked for 2½ years at NPI, where Betty Jakim, 51, was confined after suffering a total mental breakdown last year.

"The patient is dead.... Two other lives are involved. You have to weigh (those factors) and make a moral judgment," Bryant said.

Mrs. Jakim was supervisor on the evening shift at the VA facility at the time of the breathing failures. She was investigated by the FBI for the killings, but authorities now say she was not involved in any criminal activities at the hospital.

Last August, Mrs. Jakim, terminally ill with cancer and suffering acute guilt feelings, severe depression and hallucinations, was admitted to NPI. Workers there say the woman claimed responsibility for the killings.

Mrs. Jakim was released in December and went to Florida with her husband, Emil. She died at Highlands General Hospital in Sebring, Fla., on Feb. 3 after swallowing two nearly full bottles of drugs, authorities said.

The Free Press said sources claim the woman left a suicide note insisting on the innocence of the two accused nurses.

Gas Diversion Is Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texaco, Inc. diverted 172 million cubic feet of natural gas daily from federal lands it leases and used it for its own purposes, apparently a violation of the law, columnist Jack Anderson and The Washington Post reported today. The oil company took the gas from the lands it leases off the Louisiana coast to its refinery in Port Arthur, Texas. The action was taken without approval of the Federal Power Commission, they said. In a telegram to the FPC, Texaco conceded it has taken 580 billion cubic feet of gas since 1964, according to the two accounts. The Post said Texaco was burning enough natural gas each year to heat 523,000 homes. A Texaco spokesman in New York City said the company "has complied with all requirements of the FPC in seeking and obtaining approval to transport" the gas.

Land, Stock Deals Detailed

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Complicated land and stock deals involving former Arizona Republican chairman Harry Rosenzweig are detailed in published accounts of the latest of articles by a group of investigative reporters. The latest story did not include any allegations of illegality in the intricate deals, but stressed the presence — sometimes on the periphery — of convicted extortionist and land promoter Ned Warren Sr. The published accounts — appearing in Wednesday editions of the Indianapolis Star and the Miami Herald available Tuesday night — were the latest in a copyright series by Investigative Reporters and Editors, Inc. Thirty-six journalists went to the state after the murder of reporter Don Bolles of the Arizona Republic. The series, for use over 23 days, was released to participating newspapers and broadcast outlets beginning Sunday. The series already has drawn criticism from U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and his brother Robert, mentioned in earlier installments.

Were 'Moonies' Brainwashed?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A routine court hearing has ballooned into a "trial" of the Rev. Sun Myung Moon's Unification Church and the professional deprogrammers hired to battle his influence on the young people called moonies. At issue are "brainwashing" tactics each side claims the other uses — one to win converts to the church; the other, to wean them away. Caught in the middle are four young women and a young man who sit quietly in the courtroom every day beside their parents, who are their adversaries in the strange proceeding. The parents have asked Superior Court Judge S. Lee Vavuris to grant them 30-day "conservatorships" over their adult children to remove them from the influence of Moon's church for deprogramming.

Chilean Defiance Growing

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chile's 3½-year-old military government has hardened its position against resistance at home and criticism from abroad on the issue of human rights. Increased Chilean defiance of foreign pressures on the rights issue seems sure to raise tension between the President Augusto Pinochet's government and the Carter administration. Officials showed open irritation last week at reports that hundreds of Chileans disappeared after being arrested by security agents. A decree last Saturday dissolving political parties was aimed chiefly at the Christian Democrats, once the country's largest and most powerful party, who have been active on behalf of persons reported missing.

'Pot' Backer Says House Is Ducking Legal Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of an organization that advocates decriminalizing marijuana says the House is "ducking" the issue. Keith Stroup, director of the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws, criticized a special House narcotics committee Tuesday for holding hearings on marijuana while it is powerless to write legislation.

The panel, which will report its findings to Congress, was holding a third day of hearings today.

"You won't take a position," Stroup angrily testified. "You're not voting. You're ducking, that's what you're doing."

Stroup asked Rep. Paul Rogers, D-Fla., whose House Commerce subcommittee on health and the environment has jurisdiction over the issue, "Why has your subcommittee not scheduled hearings?"

Although he has said he favors civil rather than criminal penalties for the possession of small amounts of marijuana for personal use,

Rogers has not scheduled hearings on decriminalization bills submitted over the past four years.

In response to Stroup and in an interview later, Rogers said he believes the subcommittee has more important health matters to consider, especially since hearings were held in the Senate and no action was taken.

"I want to wait and see what recommendations the special committee makes," Rogers said. Asked if the subcommittee might then take the matter up, he said, "It is always possible if the time element permits." But he added that he would like to see the Senate act first.

Rogers also told Stroup that efforts for decriminalization should be concentrated on state legislatures, since less than one per cent of the 400,000 marijuana arrests each year are made under federal law.

Stroup and other advocates of decriminalization said action by Congress would spur more states into decriminalization.

Eight states have already passed such laws.

Ballenger Chief Of Licensing

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — William Ballenger, former state legislator, has been named director of the state Department of Licensing and Regulation.

Aides to Gov. William Milliken said Tuesday that Ballenger, 35, would help the newly reorganized department assume more of a consumer protection role. He also will act as state coordinator of consumer activities.

In a surprise announcement, Milliken said department director Beverly Clark is resigning after nearly four years at the department's helm. Aides said Mrs. Clark asked to be returned to a civil service job as a hearings examiner, although that means a pay cut.

Mrs. Clark was one of two women among the state's 19 department heads.

The Ballenger appointment is effective March 28. The job pays $34,500 a year.

Ballenger was deputy assistant secretary of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare after an unsuccessful 1974 bid for the Republican nomination to Congress.

Before that, he served two years in the state House and four in the state Senate. Milliken's top aide, George Weeks, said Ballenger was recruited because he was "a very strong, effective and articulate consumer advocate" while in the legislature.

Democrats Attack Milliken Over PBB

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Freshmen House Democrats went for the jugular Tuesday with the most biting attack yet on Gov. William Milliken's handling of the state's PBB contamination.

They blasted him for "lame explanations" of the issue. And they told him to "have some intestinal fortitude" by taking responsibility for a lack of leadership and the failure of the state Agriculture Commission to lower PBB tolerance levels in food.

"We are reasonably certain that you will soon be issuing another press release showing how you've led the way on the PBB issue and tossing off our criticisms as partisan potshots," the freshmen said in a three-page letter to Milliken Tuesday.

"We don't think the public is going to continue to buy your lame explanations on this issue," it said. "What they will buy is an honest admission by you, finally, that your administration did not function properly in responding to the PBB contamination."

Signed by eight of nine freshman Democrats, the letter was the third exchange in recent weeks between the freshmen and the governor that point up the political tinge the PBB crisis has assumed.

PBB, polybrominated biphenyl, is a toxic fire retardant chemical which accidentally was mixed in 1973 with animal feed distributed in Michigan.

Tuesday's letter, released to the press by state Rep. Michael Benname, D-Detroit, was written by Edie Clark and Wall Sorg, Benname said, although he and another legislator polished it.

Ms. Clark and Sorg are aides to House Speaker Bobby Crim, a possible Democratic contender for governor in 1978.

Following similar criticism earlier this month from the freshmen Democrats, the governor issued a press release saying, "If you seek villains, look around you." That was a reference to the legislature's failure last year to lower PBB tolerance levels in food after Milliken asked for stricter levels.

Tuesday, the freshmen said they were "very proud to be counted among Milliken's villains."

They said the executive branch has "totally mishandled the PBB scandal from its inception," and without pressures from the legislature the state would not be so close to resolving the problem.

The letter cited several instances it termed mishandling of the issue, including the failure last year of the Milliken-appointed Agriculture Commission to lower the tolerance level on its own.

Also mentioned was the failure of Milliken's office to take up a 1974 offer by Dr. Irving Selikoff to study PBB's impacts on human health. Aides to the governor have maintained, however, that the offer from the New York specialist was made to one former aide and that the aide never told anyone else — including the governor — of Selikoff's idea.

Later, Crim's office found out about the offer and invited Selikoff to Michigan to do the study. Selikoff has tentatively linked PBB, a toxic fire retardant chemical, with various human health problems.

Dylan Divorce Petition Filed

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Attorneys for singer-songwriter Bob Dylan and his wife, Sarah, have met in court to settle preliminary matters dealing with the couple's divorce, court officials say.

Mrs. Dylan's petition for divorce cited irreconcilable differences, which is all California law requires.

On March 1, she was granted temporary custody of the couple's five children and exclusive use of the rambling, dome-topped house the two built in the coastal Malibu colony.

Dylan and the former Sarah Lownds were married Nov. 22, 1965, in New York.

DEAD CALVES: Roger Bergeron, 38, a quarantined Arenac county farmer, stands near pile of dead calves. His dairy herd was stricken with PBB in 1973, but he said deaths may be attributed to new chemical contamination coming from a long-used wood preservative. (AP Wirephoto)

State Asks Federal Aid In Gauging PCP Taint

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan's governor has called for federal help in gauging the potential health impact of potent poisons found in a common wood preservative.

In a telegram sent Tuesday to President Carter, Gov. William Milliken said the contamination, discovered in Michigan, has national implications.

The preservative, pentachlorophenol — known as penta or PCP — has been in wide use across the country for some 40 years, Milliken said.

Penta itself is regarded by scientists as harmless. But dioxins, substances produced as byproducts of its manufacture, "are extremely toxic, sometimes in the range of parts per trillion," Milliken said.

"Obviously, this discovery has implications for the entire nation," he said.

"I urge you to direct the appropriate federal agencies to provide full cooperation and assistance to aid Michigan in its efforts to assess fully the potential hazards associated with this problem," Milliken said.

Eight central Michigan dairy herds have been quarantined — seven of them since last Friday — because cows were ill, had abnormal deaths, and showed levels of penta in their blood.

Dioxins have been found in one herd quarantined late last year, while tests continue on the others to see if they also are contaminated with the poison.

Michigan also has banned penta from sale or use in Michigan until the problem is solved.

The governor told Carter that federal help will be needed:

—To find the best way to dispose of food products that may be contaminated with dioxins.

—To investigate the possibility that other pesticides and chemicals may contain dioxins and may be adding the poison to the food chain.

—To assure that federal laboratories give a high priority to testing samples from Michigan herds for the presence of penta and the toxic dioxins.

Milliken also indicated, for the first time since the new chemical contamination was discovered, that tests on humans for the presence of penta and dioxins may be done.

He also asked for federal help on that project.

U-M Won't Reveal Psychiatric Records Of VA Nurse

DETROIT (AP) — The University of Michigan has refused to reveal the psychiatric records of a deceased nursing supervisor who claimed responsibility for the 1975 Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital killings.

Attorneys for the university and its psychiatric hospital appeared in U.S. District Court here Tuesday to fight defense subpoenas for the woman's mental health records.

University officials also said they have suspended a psychiatric care worker who told a Detroit Free Press reporter about statements the woman made while she was hospitalized last year.

Hill, project engineer for Teledyne Continental Motors of Muskegon, Mich., shows a model of the variable compression piston of a clean-burning, lightweight diesel auto engine his firm developed under federal energy research contract. Volkswagen will offer the engine as an option next month on Rabbit models, and General Motors and Ford are said to be interested. (AP Wirephoto)

MR. TWEEDY by Ned Riddle

"COME OUT HERE, HARRY. I WANT YOU TO HEAR THIS GUY TRY TO PRONOUNCE BICYCLOHEPTENE DICARBOXIMIDE."

The worker, 33-year-old Henry Bryant, was suspended from his job at the U-M Neuropsychiatric Institute (NPI) for "breaching confidentiality," according to university lawyer William Lemmer. The suspension could lead to Bryant's dismissal, Lemmer said.

Bryant said Tuesday he revealed the statements because he felt a moral duty to disclose evidence that might be important to Filipina Narciso, 30, and Leonora Perez, 32.

The two Filipina nurses are charged with using the muscle-relaxant drug Pavulon to murder two patients and poison seven others at the hospital in 1975. Jury selection for their trial entered its third week in federal court Tuesday.

More than 50 mysterious breathing failures occurred at the VA hospital between July 1 and Aug. 15, 1975. Eleven of the patients died.

"The issue is basically life versus an absolute degree of privacy," said Bryant, who has worked for 2½ years at NPI, where Betty Jakim, 51, was confined after suffering a total mental breakdown last year. "The patient is dead.... Two other lives are involved. You have to weigh (those factors) and make a moral judgment," Bryant said.

Mrs. Jakim was supervisor on the evening shift at the VA facility at the time of the breathing failures. She was investigated by the FBI for the killings, but authorities now say she was not involved in any criminal activities at the hospital.

Last August, Mrs. Jakim, terminally ill with cancer and suffering acute guilt feelings, severe depression and hallucinations, was admitted to NPI. Workers there say the woman claimed responsibility for the killings.

Mrs. Jakim was released in December and went to Florida with her husband, Emil. She died at Highlands General Hospital in Sebring, Fla., on Feb. 3 after swallowing two nearly full bottles of drugs, authorities said.

The Free Press said sources claim the woman left a suicide note insisting on the innocence of the two accused nurses. FBI agents went to Florida Monday to question her husband. He refused to speak to reporters.

NO CANCELLATIONS

State Insurance Change Proposed

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Major Michigan insurance companies would be barred from cancelling or denying auto or homeowner coverage even to high risk customers under changes proposed Tuesday for the industry.

Legislation recommended by state Insurance Commissioner Thomas C. Jones is aimed at averting a looming shortage of auto and homeowners coverage, particularly in Michigan's large cities.

Now, consumers are "subject to the whim of the insurance industry as to whether insurance is available and whether, once it has been granted, it will be cancelled," Jones said.

Exactly how Jones' plan would affect insurance premiums is unclear, but he said it would help guarantee access to coverage at competitive and fair prices.
It also would substitute scientific data for methods some auto insurance companies now use when they base insurance premiums on customers' age, sex or marital status, Jones said.
Under his plan, anyone who asks a major Michigan company for coverage would get it. Insurance redlining also would be abolished since "it would not be possible to refuse to write home insurance under this system," he said.

Proposed In N. Van Buren

BANGOR — People interested in forming a "Right to Life" group in the northern Van Buren county area are being asked to attend a meeting at the Bangor Sacred Heart parish center Thursday, March 17, at 7:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Jerry Hutchins, route 2, Lawrence.
For further information, people can contact Mrs. Harold (Rita) Starbuck, 36th avenue, Bangor.

Girl, Boy Staters Picked At Coloma

COLOMA — Jacqui Brown and Don Arent, juniors at Coloma high school, have been selected as Coloma high representatives to Girls and Boys State, respectively, this summer.
Miss Brown, 16, will attend the nine-day program at Olivet college, Olivet, June 11-19. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, 6666 Paw Paw avenue, Coloma.
Arent, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Arent, 6650 Hill road, Coloma, will attend the eight-day program at Michigan State university, East Lansing, June 15-22.

The two delegates are being sponsored by Coloma American Legion post 362 and the Coloma American Legion auxiliary. They were selected by members of the junior class and the Coloma high school faculty, according to William Smith, assistant principal.
Students attending the program get leadership training and first-hand exposure to how democratic government works.

Name Use Apology

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A would-be Manton resort developer has apologized to four state officials and a lobbyist for the unauthorized use of their names in promoting land options in Cadillac. Blue Star Homes used the names of three state senators, a prominent lobbyist and the commissioner of the Michigan Lottery in promotional materials for South Shore Estates on Lake Cadillac. Advertisements said the men had taken options on property. Bruce Clason, the developer, sent letters of apology this week to state Sens. John F. Toepf, R-Cadillac; Donald Bishop, R-Rochester; and Jerome Hart, D-Saginaw; lobbyist Emil Lockwood and state lottery commissioner Gus Harrison. "We sincerely regret the misstatement and embarrassment that has engulfed our proposed development...we have not now nor will we ever intentionally take advantage of anyone," Clason said in the letters. He added that the firm would "drop our current interest in South Shore Estates as a belated effort to relieve the gross misunderstandings surrounding some upstanding citizens."

Wife-Beating Probe?

LANSING (AP) — A special legislative committee to probe wife-beating has been proposed by House Speaker Bobby Crim, D-Davison. "Recent studies indicate that spouse assault has reached staggering proportions in this state," Crim said in calling for a comprehensive statewide program to deal with the problem. The proposed House-Senate committee would set up an advisory committee representing police, women's rights organizations and judicial, educational and health groups to work with legislators.

They Welcome Sewage

DETROIT (AP) — Millions of gallons of Detroit sewage residue may be shipped to rural Lake County, but western Michigan isn't turning up its nose at the idea. The state is drafting a federal grant application for more than $100,000 to study the feasibility of using the sewage as fertilizer. Lake County officials hope they'll get more than sludge if the plan goes through. The county of 5,000 has an unemployment rate of more than 15 per cent. The sewage could provide jobs and help reforest acres of sandy, semibarren timberland. "Detroit has excess wastes, and we are a wasteland," said Harry Solomon, supervisor of Yates Township in Lake County. "We're hoping that this could increase tree growth by as much as three times."

Democrats Attack Milliken Over PBB

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Freshmen House Democrats went for the jugular Tuesday with the most biting attack yet on Gov. William Milliken's handling of the state's PBB contamination.

They blasted him for "lame explanations" of the issue. And they told him to "have some intestinal fortitude" by taking responsibility for a lack of leadership and the failure of the state Agriculture Commission to lower PBB tolerance levels in food.

"We are reasonably certain that you will soon be issuing another press release showing how you've led the way on the PBB issue and tossing off our criticisms as partisan potshots," the freshmen said in a three-page letter to Milliken Tuesday.

"We don't think the public is going to continue to buy your lame explanations on this issue," it said. "What they will buy is an honest admission by you, finally, that your administration did not function properly in responding to the PBB contamination."

Signed by eight of nine freshman Democrats, the letter was the third exchange in recent weeks between the freshmen and the governor that point up the political tinge the PBB crisis has assumed.

PBB, polybrominated biphenyl, is a toxic fire retardant chemical which accidentally was mixed in 1973 with animal feed distributed in Michigan.

Tuesday's letter, released to the press by state Rep. Michael Bennane, D-Detroit, was written by Edie Clark and Walt Sorg, Bennane said, although he and another legislator polished it.

Ms. Clark and Sorg are aides to House Speaker Bobby Crim, a possible Democratic contender for governor in 1978.

Following similar criticism earlier this month from the freshmen Democrats, the governor issued a press release saying, "If you seek villains, look around you." That was a reference to the legislature's failure last year to lower PBB tolerance levels in food after Milliken asked for stricter levels.

Tuesday, the freshmen said they were "very proud to be counted among Milliken's 'villains.'"

They said the executive branch has "totally mishandled the PBB scandal from its inception," and without pressures from the legislature the state would not be so close to resolving the problem.

The letter cited several instances it termed mishandling of the issue, including the failure last year of the Milliken-appointed Agriculture Commission to lower the tolerance level on its own.

Also mentioned was the failure of Milliken's office to take up a 1974 offer by Dr. Irving Selikoff to study PBB's impacts on human health. Aides to the governor have maintained, however, that the offer from the New York specialist was made to one former aide and that the aide never told anyone else — including the governor — of Selikoff's idea.

Later, Crim's office found out about the offer and invited Selikoff to Michigan to do the study. Selikoff has tentatively linked PBB, a toxic fire retardant chemical, with various human health problems.

Dylan Divorce Petition Filed

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Attorneys for singer-songwriter Bob Dylan and his wife, Sarah, have met in court to settle preliminary matters dealing with the couple's divorce, court officials say.

Mrs. Dylan's petition for divorce cited irreconcilable differences, which is all California law requires.

On March 1, she was granted temporary custody of the couple's five children and exclusive use of the rambling, dome-topped house the two built in the coastal Malibu colony.

Dylan and the former Sarah Lowndes were married Nov. 22, 1965, in New York.

DEAD CALVES: Roger Bergeron, 38, a quarantined Arenac county farmer, stands near pile of dead calves. His dairy herd was stricken with PBB in 1973, but he said deaths may be attributed to new chemical contamination coming from a long-used wood preservative. (AP Wirephoto)

State Asks Federal Aid In Gauging PCP Taint

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan's governor has called for federal help in gauging the potential health impact of potent poisons found in a common wood preservative.

In a telegram sent Tuesday to President Carter, Gov. William Milliken said the contamination, discovered in Michigan, has national implications.

The preservative, pentachlorophenol — known as penta or PCP — has been in wide use across the country for some 40 years, Milliken said.

Penta itself is regarded by scientists as harmless. But dioxins, substances produced as byproducts of its manufacture, "are extremely toxic, sometimes in the range of parts per trillion," Milliken said.

"Obviously, this discovery has implications for the entire nation," he said.

"I urge you to direct the appropriate federal agencies to provide full cooperation and assistance to aid Michigan in its efforts to assess fully the potential hazards associated with this problem," Milliken said.

Eight central Michigan dairy herds have been quarantined — seven of them since last Friday — because cows were ill, had abnormal deaths, and showed levels of penta in their blood.

Dioxins have been found in one herd quarantined late last year, while tests continue on the others to see if they also are contaminated with the poison.

Michigan also has banned penta from sale or use in Michigan until the problem is solved.

The governor told Carter that federal help will be needed:

—To find the best way to dispose of food products that may be contaminated with dioxins.

—To investigate the possibility that other pesticides and chemicals may contain dioxins and may be adding the poison to the food chain.

—To assure that federal laboratories give a high priority to testing samples from Michigan herds for the presence of penta and the toxic dioxins.

Milliken also indicated, for the first time since the new chemical contamination was discovered, that tests on humans for the presence of penta and dioxins may be done. He also asked for federal help on that project.

HEW Admits Medicare List Errors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is checking for mistakes on its list of doctors and medical clinics receiving more than $100,000 in Medicare payments for 1975, a list the American Medical Association says should never have been made public.

Dr. James H. Sammons, executive vice president of the AMA, said Tuesday releasing the names "serves only to badge a large segment of the profession and to establish guilt by innuendo."

He offered assistance to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in tracking down cases of possible wrongdoing by doctors. The department, in making the list public, made no allegations of wrongdoing by physicians.

The list, containing the names of 409 physicians, 1,752 groups and 38 laboratories, does contain apparent errors, however, and officials said they were going over their figures.

In some cases people listed as receiving more than $100,000 from Medicare in 1975 said they were retired at the time. In other cases doctors disputed the government's figures.

A department spokesman conceded some errors. The department urged doctors who find mistakes in the list to contact the nearest Medicare office.

Meanwhile, in Detroit, the wife of a doctor who left private practice about five years ago demanded an explanation from The Associated Press Tuesday after reading a published report that her husband had received more than $100,000 in Medicare payments in 1975.

"That's wrong," she exclaimed. "He was on salary in 1975 and didn't receive any payments for Medicare treatments."

Her husband was one of 79 Michigan doctors, clinics, groups and laboratories on a list, released by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW).

HEW said each of those listed received more than $100,000 in Medicare payments during 1975.

The HEW list included 16 payments to individual practitioners in Michigan.

In many cases, however, the names of clinics, laboratories and groups were not listed. Instead, an individual medical practitioner in the facility or group was listed as having received the entire amount.

Dr. Gaylord Alexander, a member of an anesthesiologist group at Sinai Hospital, said he was but one of 13 doctors who shared in $215,018 in payments. "I am not ashamed of my share of the payment," he said. "But it is not correct that I received $215,000. I think my share was closer to $15,000 to $18,000."

HEW also listed Thelma Hernandez of Pontiac as having received $142,433. She is one of 18 practitioners at Kenneth F. Porter and Associates. A woman in the business office said she didn't think the entire group received that much from Medicare in 1975.

Dr. Andrew Bedo of Mt. Pleasant was listed as having received $126,604 in 1975. But his wife said the payments actually were made to the Davis Clinic in Mount Pleasant where Dr. Bedo practiced pediatrics until about five years ago when he joined a clinic at Central Michigan University.

"Please point out that my husband is a pediatrician and that he was not even associated with the clinic during 1975," Mrs. Bedo said. Mrs. Bedo said she had talked to her congressman and that he told her HEW had made the list public without checking it thoroughly and that it would be corrected.

Dr. K.F. Burkhardt of Berrien Center is listed as having received $144,987 from Medicare. He is one of 12 physicians on the staff at the

Fennville School Salary Board Named

FENNVILLE — A committee has been named by the Fennville school board to make recommendations on compensation for school board members.

Board President Willis Mullins named six people to a board compensation committee at a school board meeting Monday night. The committee will recommend what amounts should be paid to board members for each meeting they attend. Under school code, Mullins said, the maximum would be $30 per meeting.

Appointed were Ross Alexander, Mrs. Mandy Evans, Al Pileta, Mrs. Ann Kohsel, Mrs. Connie Edholm and Mrs. Catherine Jackson.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the board heard appeals from two parents seeking to change punishments handed out by administrators to their children in separate incidents. The board said the cases would be reviewed.

Eugene Leonard asked the board to change a ruling banning his sons, John and Dan, from extra curricular activities for a year to some other discipline. The punishment was imposed on grounds the boys had caused damage in a band room.

Mrs. Judy Kasang, asked the board to erase a three-day suspension meted out to her son, Greg, on grounds the accusations leading to the suspension were false. He was suspended for leaving the school grounds before classes started one day and for smoking.

The board approved initial testing of sixth and seventh grade students in connection with a special reading program to be started in the middle school next year. Board member Margaret Sessions, the board's representative in the district's curriculum council told the board the program was to improve the reading level of students there.

John Lancaster, director of the community-school recreation program told the board a pre-application has been submitted to the state Department of Natural Resources for a grant of $23,000 for two additional tennis courts. The formal application will come in July, he said. The application is for a 50-50 matching grant and is being sought under the auspices of the Fennville city commission. The community-schools recreation program is a cooperative program of the school district and city.

High school Principal Albert

Truesdell told the board that a chapter of the National Honor society was to be reactivated at the high school. There has been no chapter at the school for several years. The honor society is open to juniors and seniors.

The board set a special meeting for April 18 to conduct regular business, because its April 11 meeting will be for discussion of the middle school reading proposal and to allow an extra week for preparation after spring vacation.

NO CANCELLATIONS

State Insurance Change Proposed

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Major Michigan insurance companies would be barred from cancelling or denying auto or homeowner coverage even to high risk customers under changes proposed Tuesday for the industry.

Legislation recommended by state Insurance Commissioner Thomas C. Jones is aimed at averting a looming shortage of auto and homeowners coverage, particularly in Michigan's large cities.

Now, consumers are "subject to the whim of the insurance industry as to whether insurance is available and whether, once it has been granted, it will be cancelled," Jones said. Exactly how Jones' plan would affect insurance premiums is unclear, but he said it would help guarantee access to coverage at competitive and fair prices.

It also would substitute scientific data for methods some auto insurance companies now use when they base insurance premiums on customers' age, sex or marital status, Jones said.

Under his plan, anyone who asks a major Michigan company for coverage would get it. Insurance redlining also would be abolished since "it would not be possible to refuse to write home insurance under this system," he said.

SCHOOL BOARD

Dowagiac Filing Deadline April 11

DOWAGIAC — Nominating petitions for a four-year seat on the Dowagiac school board must be filed with the school offices by 4 p.m., Monday, April 11, according to Supt. Lionel Stacey.

The term of James Corbit expires June 30. Nominating petitions are available at the school administration office, 206 Main street. Not less than 20 or more than 30 valid signatures are required.

May 16 is the last day to register to vote in the annual school election slated for June 13.

They Welcome Sewage

DETROIT (AP) — Millions of gallons of Detroit sewage residue may be shipped to rural Lake County, but western Michigan isn't turning up its nose at the idea. The state is drafting a federal grant application for more than $100,000 to study the feasibility of using the sewage as fertilizer. Lake County officials hope they'll get more than sludge if the plan goes through. The county of 5,000 has an unemployment rate of more than 15 per cent. The sewage could provide jobs and help reforest acres of sandy, semibarren timberland. "Detroit has excess wastes, and we are a wasteland," said Harry Solomon, supervisor of Yates Township in Lake County. "We're hoping that this could increase tree growth by as much as three times."

'Right-To-Life' Group

Proposed In N. Van Buren

BANGOR — People interested in forming a "Right to Life" group in the northern Van Buren county area are being asked to attend a meeting at the Bangor Sacred Heart parish center Thursday, March 17, at 7:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Jerry Hutchins, route 2, Lawrence.

For further information, people can contact Mrs. Harold (Rita) Starbuck, 36th avenue, Bangor.

Girl, Boy Staters Picked At Coloma

COLOMA — Jacqui Brown and Don Arent, juniors at Coloma high school, have been selected as Coloma high representatives to Girls and Boys State, respectively, this summer.

Miss Brown, 16, will attend the nine-day program at Olivet college, Olivet, June 11-19. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, 6666 Paw Paw avenue, Coloma.

Arent, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Arent, 6650 Hill road, Coloma, will attend the eight-day program at Michigan State university, East Lansing, June 15-22.

The two delegates are being sponsored by Coloma American Legion post 362 and the Coloma American Legion auxiliary. They were selected by members of the junior class and the Coloma high school faculty, according to William Smith, assistant principal.

Students attending the program get leadership training and first-hand exposure to how democratic government works.

TODAY In History

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Wednesday, March 16, the 75th day of 1977. There are 290 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1534, England severed all relations with the Roman Catholic Papacy.

On this date: In 1521, the Portuguese navigator, Ferdinand Magellan, reached the Philippines.

In 1676, Indians destroyed the Rhode Island settlements of Warwick and Providence.

In 1830, it was a slow day on Wall street — with only 31 shares of stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

In 1962, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's wife divorced him after 31 years of marriage.

In 1965, the Soviet Union moved toward closer economic relations with the West by announcing it would join the international agreement on patents.

In 1974, President Richard M. Nixon said in Chicago he would not resign because he refused to be party to the destruction of the Presidency of the United States.

Ten years ago: The U.S. Senate ratified a consular treaty that would increase diplomatic representation with the Soviet Union.

Five years ago: The U.S. asked for an impartial inspection of prisoner of war camps in North Vietnam in return for an understanding that there would be no new American raids to try to free prisoners.

One year ago: Laborite Harold Wilson resigned as British prime minister.

Today's birthdays: Mrs. Richard Nixon is 65. Former Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana is 74. Comedian Jerry Lewis is 51.

Thought for today: Facts do not cease to exist because they are ignored. — Aldous Huxley, British writer, 1894-1963.

Name Use Apology

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A would-be Manton resort developer has apologized to four state officials and a lobbyist for the unauthorized use of their names in promoting land options in Cadillac. Blue Star Homes used the names of three state senators, a prominent lobbyist and the commissioner of the Michigan Lottery in promotional materials for South Shore Estates on Lake Cadillac. Advertisements said the men had taken options on property. Bruce Clason, the developer, sent letters of apology this week to state Sens. John F. Toeppe, R-Cadillac; Donald Bishop, R-Rochester; and Jerome Hart, D-Saginaw; lobbyist Emil Lockwood and state lottery commissioner Gus Harrison. "We sincerely regret the misstatement and embarrassment that has engulfed our proposed development...we have not now nor will we ever intentionally take advantage of anyone," Clason said in the letters. He added that the firm would "drop our current interest in South Shore Estates as a belated effort to relieve the gross misunderstandings surrounding some upstanding citizens."

Wife-Beating Probe?

LANSING (AP) — A special legislative committee to probe wife-beating has been proposed by House Speaker Bobby Crim, D-Davison. "Recent studies indicate that spouse assault has reached staggering proportions in this state," Crim said in calling for a comprehensive statewide program to deal with the problem. The proposed House-Senate committee would set up an advisory committee representing police, women's rights organizations and judicial, educational and health groups to work with legislators.

HEW Admits Medicare List Errors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is checking for mistakes on its list of doctors and medical clinics receiving more than $100,000 in Medicare payments for 1975, a list the American Medical Association says should never have been made public.

Dr. James H. Sammons, executive vice president of the AMA, said Tuesday releasing the names "serves only to badger a large segment of the profession and to establish guilt by innuendo."

He offered assistance to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in tracking down cases of possible wrongdoing by doctors. The department, in making the list public, made no allegations of wrongdoing by physicians.

The list, containing the names of 409 physicians, 1,752 groups and 58 laboratories, does contain apparent errors, however, and officials said they were going over their figures.

In some cases people listed as receiving more than $100,000 from Medicare in 1975 said they were retired at the time. In other cases doctors disputed the government's figures.

A department spokesman conceded some errors. The department urged doctors who find mistakes in the list to contact the nearest Medicare office.

Meanwhile, in Detroit, the wife of a doctor who left private practice about five years ago demanded an explanation from The Associated Press Tuesday after reading a published report that her husband had received more than $100,000 in Medicare payments in 1975.

"That's wrong," she exclaimed. "He was on salary in 1975 and didn't receive any payments for Medicare treatments."

Her husband was one of 79 Michigan doctors, clinics, groups and laboratories on a list, released by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW). HEW said each of those listed received more than $100,000 in Medicare payments during 1975.

The HEW list included 16 payments to individual practitioners in Michigan.

In many cases, laboratories and groups were not listed. Instead, an individual medical practitioner in the facility or group was listed as having received the entire amount.

Dr. Gaylord Alexander, a member of an anesthesiologist group at Sinai Hospital, said he was but one of 13 doctors who shared in $215,618 in payments. "I am not ashamed of my share of the payment," he said. "But it is not correct that I received $215,000. I think my share was closer to $15,000 to $18,000."

HEW also listed Thelma Hernandez of Pontiac as having received $142,433. She is one of 18 practitioners at Kenneth F. Porter and Associates. A woman in the business office said she didn't think the entire group received that much from Medicare in 1975.

Dr. Andrew Bedo of Mt. Pleasant was listed as having received $126,604 in 1975. But his wife said the payments actually were made to the Davis Clinic in Mount Pleasant where Dr. Bedo practiced pediatrics until about five years ago when he joined a clinic at Central Michigan University.

"Please point out that my husband is a pediatrician and that he was not even associated with the clinic during 1975," Mrs. Bedo said. Mrs. Bedo said she had talked to her congressman and that he told her HEW had made the list public without checking it thoroughly and that it would be corrected.

Dr. K.F. Burkhardt of Berrien Center is listed as having received $144,987 from Medicare. He is one of 12 physicians on the staff at the

Fennville School Salary Board Named

FENNVILLE — A committee has been named by the Fennville school board to make recommendations on compensation for school board members.

Board President Willis Mullins named six people to a board compensation committee at a school board meeting Monday night. The committee will recommend what amounts should be paid to board members for each meeting they attend. Under school code, Mullins said, the maximum would be $30 per meeting.

Appointed were Ross Alexander, Mrs. Mandy Evans, Al Pihea, Mrs. Ann Kohsel, Mrs. Connie Edholm and Mrs. Catherine Jackson.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the board heard appeals from two parents seeking to change punishments handed out by administrators to their children in separate incidents. The board said the cases would be reviewed.

Bandits Strike In Three Spots

Three apparent unrelated armed robberies occurred last night in southwestern Michigan as lone gunmen robbed a Watervliet party store, plus gas stations in Paw Paw and Niles.

The first armed robbery occurred around 7:30 p.m. when a man entered the Trex service station, Kalamazoo street and 194. Paw Paw, brandishing a handgun and ordered the attendant to empty the cash register. About $400 was taken, according to George Fadel, Paw Paw police chief.

The Kory Korney Party store, corner Paw Paw Lake road and Hagar Shore road, Watervliet township, was robbed at 7:51 p.m. when a man wearing a dark blue ski mask and armed with a small caliber pistol barged through the front door demanding cash.

James Weatherly, 38, store

owner and his 15-year-old daughter, Rhonda, were behind the counter at the time. They were told to lie face down on the floor as the robber took $265 from the cash register and fled.

A lone gunman made off with about $70 in a holdup of the Clark service station, US-31 south of Niles, around 10:30 p.m.

Troopers at the Niles post said a ski-masked man wielding a sawed-off shotgun or rifle entered the station and ordered the attendant to hand over cash and then he on the floor while the bandit made his escape.

A state police tracking dog followed the scent for about a mile, where troopers believe an auto was waiting for the robber.

All three holdup men were described as white, but police said they believe the holdups were not connected.

'Pot' Raid Nets 6,000 Pounds!

LAPEER, Mich. (AP) — A raid Tuesday on a rural home in Lapeer County's Elba Township netted about 6,000 pounds of marijuana worth $850,000, state police said today. Three men were arrested and were scheduled for arraignment in Lapeer District Court on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to deliver, police said. Troopers said raid followed an investigation by the state police intelligence unit, and was carried out with assistance from the Lapeer state police post and Lapeer County sheriff's department.

Decatur Dwellings Damaged By Fires

DECATUR — Decatur firemen extinguished two fires Tuesday, one that destroyed a house trailer just east of the village limits and another that damaged a home four miles south of here.

Fire Chief John Brigham said the first fire at 3:30 a.m. destroyed a house trailer owned by Mrs. Bonnie Reeves on Michigan avenue just east of here. Seven people in the trailer at the time escaped. A young boy in the trailer received a cut hand, but was treated and released from Lake View Community hospital, Paw Paw.

Brigham estimated damage to the trailer at $8,000 and said it was insured. Cause of the blaze remains under investigation.

The second fire occurred at 8:30 p.m. at the Charles Burkett Jr., residence, Graham street, in Cass county's Volina township.

Twain Lakes firemen assisted Decatur firemen in extinguishing the blaze which started in the kitchen. Burkett's four sons were home at the time, but none were injured. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett are in Florida on vacation.

Brigham said the kitchen and upstairs were badly damaged by the fire. Burkett owns the Burkett Saw Mill in Decatur. Estimated damage to his home was unknown.

'Marriage Penalty' To Be Reduced

and she were still single.

For persons who earn more and qualify for the maximum standard deduction, the penalty is $2,000 ($4,800 for two singles compared with $2,800 for a couple).

Both the House and Senate and the Carter administration appear to agree on the need to simplify tax returns by approving one flat standard deduction for singles and another for couples. The debate is over how much.

President Carter recommended a $2,200 standard deduction for singles and $3,000 for couples, which would have meant a $1,400 marriage penalty. The House, seeking to prevent a tax hike for some single persons, voted $2,400 and $3,000, resulting in a $800 hike in the current $1,300 penalty.

Sen. Russell B. Long, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, told his colleagues Tuesday the House bill would tax "people for doing something that society wants them to do" — marrying and raising a family.

Sen. Bob Packwood, R-Ore., contended many women no longer see their mission in life as quitting work, marrying and having children.

The committee staff came up with a compromise that would mean a $1,500 penalty, with a $3,100 standard deduction for joint returns and $2,300 for singles. "That makes so much better sense than what the House has in its bill," Long said. Nobody on the committee disagreed.

What does the marriage penalty mean in terms of tax dollars?

For a couple in the 25 per cent tax bracket, the penalty under current law costs between $325 and $500 a year. Carter's proposal would result in a $350 penalty; the House formula, $450, and Long's plan, $375.

The House-passed bill would result in lower taxes, averaging about $105 a year, for 45 million couples or individuals who do not itemize.

Long's plan would mean even more benefits for 48.5 million couples above what the House voted. But 25 million single persons would lose some of the House-approved tax cut. And 1.8 million of them would actually pay about $25 more a year than they pay now.

A Turin newspaper, La Stampa, said Porcari viewed the hijacking as "the final chapter" of a book he was writing about his life. Ugo Moretti, a newsman and author, said Porcari had asked him six months ago for assistance in writing about his eventful life, which he said included the blowing up of a bridge linking Rhodesia to Malawi in exchange for $15,000 from black African guerrillas.

Moretti said Porcari called him collect from Barcelona on Monday and told him he would read the final chapter in newspapers the next day.

The longest hijack was an 8,800-mile flight in April 1976 by three Filipino gunmen demanding independence for Moslem areas in the southern Philippines. They hijacked a Philippines Airlines jet to Libya by way of Thailand and Pakistan.

$760,000 Embezzler Sentenced

DETROIT (AP) — A 36-year-old Birmingham woman who admitted embezzling $760,000 from a suburban bank to buy her lover expensive gifts, has been sentenced to five years in prison.

Mildred Wattleworth was assistant vice-president in charge of mortgage loans at the Michigan National Bank's Metro West branch in Livonia was arrested last November.

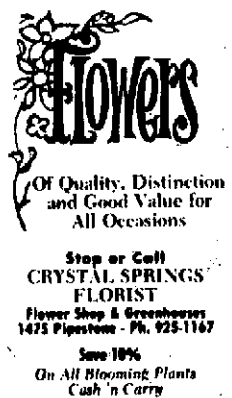

She tearfully admitted stealing the money to give her lover an interest free loan to get started in the restaurant business and buy him gifts.

U.S. District Court Judge Charles Joiner canceled Mrs. Wattleworth's $10,000 personal bond Tuesday and ordered her to jail after she unknowingly told an off-duty FBI agent she would flee the country rather than serve a jail term.

The agent turned the information over to federal prosecutors who put it on the record and asked the court to cancel her bond.

Trooper Chief To Leave Post

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — George Halverson, director of the Michigan State Police, said today he will retire in about six weeks after 25 years in the department to become a public safety director in suburban Detroit. Halverson, 48, told field commanders of his plans Monday, saying he knew there had been rumors of his retirement for some time. The Marquette native was appointed director in 1974 by Gov. William Milliken.

He will become safety director May 1 at Farmington Hills, a Detroit suburb. Halverson was eligible for retirement Jan. 28. He formally told Milliken by letter of his decision Monday, a spokesman for the governor said. Milliken said he sincerely regrets losing Halverson, whom he "greatly admires." Halverson, who does not have a formal college education, launched his state police career at the East Lansing post as a trooper in 1952 after a stint in the U.S. Marines. Subsequently, he served at posts in Traverse City, Mount Pleasant, South Haven, Reed City and Detroit.

FIRE'S AFTERMATH: Coloma firemen water down what's left of Mr. Pancake House restaurant, 251 Paw Paw street, Coloma, following fire early today. Front of building collapsed from blaze about 20 minutes after it was reported. Rest of structure followed in short time. (Cliff Stevens photo)

Pancake House Is Destroyed

COLOMA — Fire of undetermined origin leveled the Mr. Pancake House restaurant here early today and left part of the city without electricity for a time.

Fire Chief Leonard Dolezan estimated damage to the business at $100,000 to $150,000 and said only the lack of a wind kept the blaze from threatening the entire east side of the business district.

The front five windows of the business blew out from intense heat as a Coloma township officer spotted the flames.

Officer Gary Wigent said he spotted the flames at the rear portion of the three-story structure and was just getting out of the car when the windows blew.

According to firemen, the front wall of the building collapsed about 20 minutes after the fire was reported about 1 a.m. The rest of the structure followed a short time later.

Officials said that the electricity was knocked out to the city's northside during the height of the blaze, leaving only the glow from the flames to illuminate the northern part of the business district.

The restaurant, opened in 1970, was closed for interior remodeling when the blaze struck. Owner George Kleronimus said he had left the building about 6:30 p.m. and that only the heating unit had been left on.

The building had been a lumber company and the community's opera house in years past and was estimated to be about 75 years old.

When opened, the restaurant was named the Mr. Jemima Pancake House. The formal name was changed in the past year, however, to Mr. Pancake House. Kleronimus said that the business was well known by the Mr. Jemima name still.

Kleronimus said he carried $65,000 in fire insurance and that his future plans for the business were unknown early today.

Coloma firemen were joined by firemen from Watervliet in battling the flames which engulfed the structure and soared skyward.

Downtown Fire Loss
Over $100,000

By 2:45 a.m. city public works crews moved into the area to start the clean up of the street for traffic.

The Coloma fire chief said he would contact the state fire marshal's office for an investigation. Cause of the fire, he said, has not been determined although it started in the southwest corner of the building where the office area is located.

DEJECTED: George Kleronimus, owner of Mr. Pancake House restaurant, Coloma, watches as firemen battle blaze which destroyed his restaurant early today. Restaurant was in process of being remodeled inside.

South Haven Board Eyes Big Curriculum Change

By TOM RENNER
South Haven Correspondent

SOUTH HAVEN — A proposed major change in the curriculum of the South Haven high school was presented to members of the board of education for review during their regular monthly meeting last night.

The change would require that a student select either a college preparatory or vocational oriented course of study.

The existing curriculum has had very little correlation between the career and the chosen subject matter, according to school officials.

Under the proposed change, each course of study would prescribe required courses needed for graduation. School officials said additional emphasis has been placed in the area of English, reading and math.

A significant addition to course requirements for college prep students would be a foreign language as well as algebra and geometry.

The new curriculum is expected to assist the high school guidance department to realistically lay out a four-year course of study and to better inform parents of courses required for graduation, according to school officials.

Current high school students would be exempt from some of the requirements.

Board members scheduled a workshop session for next Tuesday to discuss the proposal further.

In other areas, a change in procedure for determining the difference between an excused and unexcused absence for high school students drew mixed reaction from the board.

Under the new policy, the school would no longer be required to use its discretion in determining if an absence from school should be excused. The new policy requires only that the parent explain the nature of the absence.

Superintendent Harold Gaarde said the policy change places responsibility on the parents to make the determination for absences and that the high school will allow the absence for any reason as long as the student's total absences for the school year does not exceed 18 days. After the 18th day a student can be denied course credit.

Board member Glenn Sperry questioned whether the school

might be becoming too permissive, claiming that truancy won't mean much anymore.

"If a student decides to spend a day on the beach and his parents don't care then we are going to condone it under this new policy," said Sperry.

"In essence we are giving students 18 legal skip days," said board member David Griffin.

Assistant high school principal Howard Jessup said the current policy of determining the difference between an excused and unexcused absence has too many gray areas.

"The current policy forces parents to lie about their son or daughter's absence for fear of not getting an excused absence," said Jessup.

The policy change was tabled until a future meeting.

The board approved hiring the Michigan Association of School Boards to provide negotiation services in upcoming contract talks with teachers. Cost of the service is expected to be approximately $5,000.

The retirement of Mrs. Lowell (Eleanor) Harry was approved. A sixth grade teacher at Central school, Mrs. Harry has taught in the South Haven for the past 11 years.

Assistant Supt. David Jones said that four petitions for two school board seats have been filed. The candidates include incumbent Mrs. David (Jane) White and challengers Kenneth Miles Schmidt, Emil F. Westling and Mrs. Ernest (Barbara) Adler.

The second incumbent, Glenn Sperry, indicated after the meeting that he plans to seek re-election and is circulating a petition.

Deadline for filing petitions is April 11 at 1 p.m. Petitions are available at the superintendent's office.

The creation of a junior varsity football team for girls was approved. The coach will receive a stipend of four percent of his/her salary.

The low $4,969 bid of Russ Hyma Chevrolet of South Haven for a car to transport special education students was accepted.

The board designated the Van Buren intermediate school district as its agent in implementing a state-mandated bilingual program for students having difficulty performing classwork in English.

Gaarde said he was checking to see why the South Haven system has not received an adequate student allotment at the Van Buren skill center.

Based on enrollment, the South Haven system should be allowed 207 students at the skill center next year, but has been designated only 182, according to Gaarde. He said he is attempting to determine the reason.

Gaarde commended the South Haven police department, especially preventive officer Sgt. William Crow. He said the working relationship between the school system and police department is excellent.

Veteran Principal Retiring

SOUTH HAVEN — Longtime South Haven high school principal Adrian G. Slikkers Sr. announced his retirement at the end of the school year to members of the board of education last night.

Slikkers, 58, has been employed by the South Haven public schools since 1946, the last 10 as principal of the senior high.

Slikkers and his wife Bette said they will continue to reside in South Haven, but plan to travel extensively in the U.S. and overseas.

He began his teaching career in the Coopersville, Mich. school system in 1940 after graduating from Hope college. He served in the Navy four years before receiving an honorable discharge with the rank of lieutenant in January 1946.

He joined the South Haven system the following fall and taught mathematics as well as coaching basketball, javyee football, golf and tennis. Slikkers was named assistant junior high school principal in 1964 and a year later was appointed junior high principal. He became senior high principal in July, 1966.

In addition to membership in several professional organizations, he is president of the Furniture City Rambler Travel Trailer club of Grand Rapids. He and his wife attend Hope Reformed church, South Haven.

New Buffalo Gives Mayor 2nd Term

NEW BUFFALO — Mrs. Carol Bond was re-elected mayor here last night and Elmer Kerns was re-elected mayor pro-tem during the city council's reorganizational meeting.

Mrs. Bond, 35, was re-elected for another year by a 4-1 vote of the council. The lone dissenting vote was voiced by Councilman Frank Magro. Voting for Mrs. Bond's re-election besides herself were Carl Keefer, Clarence Sayles and Kerns.

Kerns was re-elected by a 3-1 vote. Sayles, newly elected councilman voted against Kerns, while Mrs. Bond, Magro, and Keefer voted yes. Kerns abstained from voting.

Mrs. Bond was first elected New Buffalo mayor a year ago, the first woman to hold the position. She is divorced and the mother of two sons.

Sayles was sworn in last night after the Berrien county board of canvassers yesterday verified he defeated William VanMeer by a vote of 175 to 67 in Monday's city election.

In other areas, Atty. Lee Boothby of Berrien Springs, city legal counsel, informed the council that a hearing date for April 27 has been set in federal district court, Grand Rapids, on whether a new trial will be granted the city on the Simu condemnation suit.

In January a six-man jury in that court issued a verdict for Louis Sima totaling $244,000. The city and federal government had filed condemnation proceedings against Sima for 4.28 acres of land south of the Galien River bridge in conjunction with its refuge harbor program.

William Marx, city manager, reported that preliminary budget figures indicate that tax revenue for the city will be up between $20,000 and $25,000, but due to inflation the city will be hard pressed for money to balance this year's budget.

The council approved using $250 in federal revenue sharing funds to purchase periodicals for the city library.

Councilman Keefer was appointed to serve on the Pine Grove cemetery board. The board is jointly made up of both city and township officials.

Thomas Lininger was re-appointed to another three-year term on the harbor commission and it was voted to advertise for a member to fill a park board vacancy when Mrs. Wanda Black's term expires this month.

During the water board meeting that preceded the council meeting, Marx reported that frozen water mains and meters cost the city $3,000 in overtime labor and $3,200 in equipment use to thaw the mains.

LMC To Break Ground Friday

The regular March meeting of the Lake Michigan college board of trustees will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, and campus ground breaking ceremonies for the $6 million-plus community center building will be at 11:15 a.m. Friday.

LMC President James Lehman said State Sen. Charles O. Zoller will be a special guest at Friday's ceremony, at the construction site just east of LMC's main building.

Lehman said the board meeting was changed from the usual third Monday of the month to allow last minute arrangements for the groundbreaking. Lehman said a report will be received on site preparation bids. He said the board also will review the tentative 1977-78 general operating budget for the college.

Lehman said the college has advertised for site preparation bids for the new center and these will be opened March 30. He said the ground breaking ceremony was selected for Friday simply because it seemed an appropriate time before earth moving work began.

The center, expected to cost in excess of $6 million, is financed by a $5 million federal grant and part of a $2.5 million bond issue approved by trustees last month. The grant finances on positive action toward construction by April, Lehman reported earlier. Lehman said advertising for other construction bids on the project will begin after architectural plans are completed.

Dr. Charlie K. Field, dean of continuing education and community services, who heads the ground breaking committee, said small explosive charges, instead of shovels, will highlight the ceremony. The explosives will be supervised by Berrien sheriff's department personnel.

The center will contain a major auditorium, a small theater, a large convention area and dining facilities. It also will include offices, music rehearsal rooms and conference rooms.

Delinquent Fathers Get Jail Sentences

An unemployed father owing more than $2,000 in child support was sentenced this week in Berrien Circuit court to 60 days in jail while another who holds a job but still has an arrearage of $4,550 got a 30-weekend jail term.

Chief Investigator Edward Patrick of the Berrien friend of the court's office reported:

Judge Zoe S. Burkholz imposed the 60-day term on Scott Monahan, of 630 South Fifth street, Niles, for $2,012 arrears for one child on ADC. She held him in contempt of court, placed him on two years probation, and ordered Monahan to find employment within 30 days of his release from jail or spend another 60 days behind bars.

Judge Burkholz held Dennis Till, of Buchanan, in contempt and ordered a 30-weekend jail sentence for $4,550 arrears for three ADC children. Till was placed on two years probation and ordered to sign a wage assignment of $30 weekly support and $10 per week on the arrears. Patrick noted Till's $100 bond was applied to the arrearage.

In other sentences by Judge Burkholz:

William Thorne, of Beaverton, Mich., received two years probation for $4,533 arrears for two children on ADC, and avoided a 30-day jail term by paying $500 towards the arrearage. Thorne was ordered to sign a wage assignment of $29 weekly support and $5 weekly on the arrearage.

Gale E. Gillenwater, of South Bend, got two years probation for $2,393 arrears for two children not on ADC, paid $100 towards the arrearage, and was told to pay $15 weekly support and $10 per week towards the arrears.

In sentences by Judge Julian E. Hughes:

Ronnie Thomas, of 847 Mineral avenue, Benton Harbor, had a previous probation extended one year until June, 1979, for $1,224 arrears for one child not on ADC. Thomas paid $150 towards the arrearage and was ordered to pay all refunds from his state and federal tax returns towards the remaining arrearage.

Roger W. Molter, of Dowagiac, got two years probation for $1,336 arrears for one child not on ADC, and was told to pay $27 weekly support and $3 weekly on the arrearage while unemployed.

Bandits Strike In Three Spots

Three apparent unrelated armed robberies occurred last night in southwestern Michigan as lone gunmen robbed a Watervliet party store, plus gas stations in Paw Paw and Niles.

The first armed robbery occurred around 7:40 p.m. when a man entered the Texaco service station, Kalamazoo street and I-94, Paw Paw, brandishing a handgun and ordered the attendant to empty the cash register. About $400 was taken, according to George Fadel, Paw Paw police chief.

The Kozzy Korner Party store, corner Paw Paw Lake road and Hagar Shore road, Watervliet township, was robbed at 7:54 p.m. when a man wearing a dark blue ski mask and armed with a small caliber pistol barged through the front door demanding cash.

James Weatherly, 38, store

owner and his 15-year-old daughter, Rhonda, were behind the counter at the time. They were told to lie face down on the floor as the robber took $266 from the cash register and fled.

A lone gunman made off with about $70 in a holdup of the Clark service station, US-31 south of Niles, around 10:30 p.m.

Troopers at the Niles post said a ski-masked man wielding a sawed-off shotgun or rifle entered the station and ordered the attendant to hand over cash and then lie on the floor while the bandit made his escape.

A state police tracking dog followed the scent for about a mile, where troopers believe an auto was waiting for the robber.

All three holdup men were described as white, but police said they believe the holdups were not connected.

'Pot' Raid Nets 6,000 Pounds!

LAPEER, Mich. (AP) — A raid Tuesday on a rural home in Lapeer County's Elba Township netted about 6,000 pounds of marijuana worth $850,000, state police said today. Three men were arrested and were scheduled for arraignment in Lapeer District Court on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to deliver, police said. Troopers said raid followed an investigation by the state police intelligence unit, and was carried out with assistance from the Lapeer state police post and Lapeer County sheriff's department.

Decatur Dwellings Damaged By Fires

DECATUR — Decatur firemen extinguished two fires Tuesday, one that destroyed a house trailer just east of the village limits and another that damaged a home four miles south of here.

Fire Chief John Brigham said the first fire at 3:30 a.m. destroyed a house trailer owned by Mrs. Bonnie Reeves on Michigan avenue just east of here. Seven people in the trailer at the time escaped. A young boy in the trailer received a cut hand, but was treated and released from Lake View Community hospital, Paw Paw.

Brigham estimated damage to the trailer at $8,000 and said it was insured. Cause of the blaze remains under investigation.

The second fire occurred at 8:30 p.m. at the Charles Burkett Jr., residence, Graham street, in Cass county's Volina township.

Twin Lakes firemen assisted Decatur firemen in extinguishing the blaze which started in the kitchen. Burkett's four sons were home at the time, but none were injured. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett are in Florida on vacation.

Brigham said the kitchen and upstairs were badly damaged by the fire. Burkett owns the Burkett Saw Mill in Decatur. Estimated damage to his home was unknown.

said Margherita Porcari. "He wanted a family of his own like everyone else and he had a right to."

A Turin newspaper, La Stampa, said Porcari viewed the hijacking as "the final chapter" of a book he was writing about his life. Ugo Moretti, a newsman and author, said Porcari had asked him six months ago for assistance in writing about his eventful life, which he said included the blowing up of a bridge linking Rhodesia to Malawi in exchange for $15,000 from black African guerrillas. Moretti said Porcari called him collect from Barcelona on Monday and told him he would read the final chapter in newspapers the next day.

The longest hijack was an 8,800-mile flight in April 1976 by three Filipino gunmen demanding independence for Moslem areas in the southern Philippines. They hijacked a Philippines Airlines jet to Libya by way of Thailand and Pakistan.

$760,000 Embezzler Sentenced

DETROIT (AP) — A 36-year-old Birmingham woman who admitted embezzling $760,000 from a suburban bank to buy her lover expensive gifts, has been sentenced to five years in prison.

Mildred Wattleworth was assistant vice-president in charge of mortgage loans at the Michigan National Bank's Metro West branch in Livonia when she was arrested last November.

She tearfully admitted stealing the money to give her lover an interest free loan to get started in the restaurant business and buy him gifts.

U.S. District Court Judge Charles Joiner canceled Mrs. Wattleworth's $10,000 personal bond Tuesday and ordered her to jail after she unknowingly told an off-duty FBI agent she would flee the country rather than serve a jail term.

The agent turned the information over to federal prosecutors who put it on the record and asked the court to cancel her bond.

Trooper Chief To Leave Post

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — George Halverson, director of the Michigan State Police, said today he will retire in about six weeks after 25 years in the department to become a public safety director in suburban Detroit. Halverson, 48, told field commanders of his plans Monday, saying he knew there had been rumors of his retirement for some time. The Marquette native was appointed director in 1974 by Gov. William Milliken.

He will become safety director May 1 at Farmington Hills, a Detroit suburb. Halverson was eligible for retirement Jan. 28. He formally told Milliken by letter of his decision Monday, a spokesman for the governor said. Milliken said he sincerely regrets losing Halverson, whom he "greatly admires." Halverson, who does not have a formal college education, launched his state police career at the East Lansing post as a trooper in 1952 after a stint in the U.S. Marines. Subsequently, he served at posts in Traverse City, Mount Pleasant, South Haven, Reed City and Detroit.

Razor Slash Puts Woman In Hospital

A Benton Harbor woman was hospitalized with cuts to her cheek and neck Tuesday night after she was slashed by a man with a razor in front of a downtown bar, Benton Harbor police said.

Listed in "good" condition this morning at Mercy hospital was Alberta Partee, 23, of 956 Buss avenue, hospital officials said.

Police said Alberta Partee, who is also known as Alberta Watson, was slashed in front of the Brooklyn tavern, 379 Territorial road. A dispute began inside the tavern and developed into a fight in front of tavern, police said.

Covert, Buchanan Will Count On Speed

Speed.

Covert and Buchanan are hoping that ingredient will result in a victory recipe in Thursday's state quarterfinals.

The Bulldogs take on top-ranked Class D power Detroit East Catholic at 7:30 p.m. at Marshall. The Bucks battle Shelby in a Class C quarterfinal repeat at Wyoming-Godwin Heights.

Both Buchanan and Covert will face a height disadvantage in their contest. And the duo are hoping to overcome the problem with speed.

"We're going to have to do what we've been doing," Covert coach Rod DeYoung says. "And that's use our speed and quickness. We have to keep them from doing what they want to do offensively. We at least want to make it difficult for them. We can't let them score at will."

East Catholic sports a sparkling 21-1 record, losing only to Class A power Birmingham Brother Rice 81-48. East Catholic returns its entire front line from the team which ousted Galien from the tournament in last year's quarterfinals.

Leading the front line are forwards Ted Anderson and Donnell Williams. The 6-6 Anderson and 6-1 Williams are both averaging 18 points per game. Terry Triplett, who also stands 6-6, is scoring 9.0 points, while 5-10 senior guards Thomas Martin and Dwone McMillan chip in four and eight points, respectively.

East Catholic coach Dave Soules plans to use his team's height advantage to the fullest.

"We'll probably have to go to our strength," he says. "That's our height. They're really quick and aggressive and they go after the ball. We're going to have to beat their press to win the game."

Covert's bench has continued to spark the 22-3 Bulldogs. Heading Covert's offensive attack is substitute guard Jerry Starks, now averaging 17.7 points per game.

Regulars Robert Maggard and James DeBoe are also in double digits with 14.3 and 12.9 marks respectively.

"This game is what it's all about, I guess," DeYoung says. "We're playing the best. This game could go a long ways toward deciding the Class D title."

Meanwhile, Shelby will be out to avenge a 91-67 shellacking which Buchanan handed it in last year's quarterfinals.

When one talks about Buchanan, Gerald Busby is the first name that comes to mind. The 6-4 Busby is averaging 28.4 points per game on year. But the All-State candidate is scoring at a 29.0 clip during five tournament games.

"Busby is the best individual we've played against in the two years I've been here," Shelby coach Jim Tate says. "We've been using both a halfcourt trap and a match-up zone defense this year. We'll probably combine the two to try and get some help on Busby."

Tate adds, however, "We're not going to change what got us into the quarterfinals."

Two of Shelby's three losses came against teams still in the state tournament. The Tigers.

21-3 overall, lost to Class B Cedar Springs 65-53 and to Class D Muskegon Christian 56-55.

"We're glad to be back in the quarterfinals again," Tate says. "And we're looking forward to playing Buchanan again. It caps a great season."

Heading Shelby's scoring attack will be 6-7 junior center Dave Kuipers, 6-4 junior forward Brian Beckman and 6-3 senior guard Jack Near, all scoring around 15 points per game. Beckman is the only returning starter from last year's team.

Buchanan brings a 10-game winning streak and 20-5 record into the quarterfinals. And probably the most pleasant return for the Bucks is that of Mo Kyles. Normally a forward, Kyles opened at guard against Kalamazoo Hickel in the regional title contest and was the spark which turned the game around in the third quarter.

Besides Busby, the Bucks are getting double digit scoring out of Mo Kyles (14.5), 6-4 Greg Frazier (12.3) and guard Joe Kyles (10.6). Buck coach Jon Bohannon plans to open with that quartet and one of two sophomores, Ronnie Williams or Joe Watts.

"We're anticipating a lot of trapping from both teams," Bohannon says. "But we don't want to foul. We don't want to be in a free throw contest with Shelby."

Thursday's winners will compete in the state semifinals Saturday at Lansing Eastern high school.

Bonnies Edge Oregon In NIT

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Satalin, aged 23 years in 13 seconds.

"I felt I was 33," said the St. Bonaventure basketball coach.

Satalin in reality is 30, but it is no wonder he felt older after St. Bonaventure's 76-73 victory over Oregon in the National Invitation Tournament Tuesday night.

The last few seconds obviously seemed like the longest mile to Satalin, what with the following events occurring:

—Kevin Small hit one foul shot at the 10-second mark for Oregon's 73rd point, then missed another attempt and the ball went out of bounds off a St. Bonaventure player.

—With eight seconds remaining and the score 76-73 in favor of the Bonnies, Oregon rebounded the ball and got it inside to Greg Ballard.

But the Ducks' high scorer, looking for a three-point play, hit the rim and St. Bonaventure's Greg Sanders came down with the rebound at the buzzer.

The way the ball bounced sent St. Bonaventure into Thursday night's semifinals at Madison Square Garden against Villanova, which beat Massachusetts 81-71 in an earlier quarter-final game Tuesday.

Alabama and Houston, which won quarter-final games Monday night, will play in the other semifinal.

The Bonnies appeared to have the Ducks in tow midway through the second half with a 15-point lead behind the dominating play of Sanders. But then they slowed things down, giving the Pac-8 team a chance to catch up.

Before the slowdown, though, the Bonnies had been speeding things up considerably behind the omnipresent Sanders. The left-handed shooting forward scored 30 points, including 20 in the second half.

The first game did not have nearly the drama as the nightcap. Villanova broke open the contest with a 20-9 second-half streak behind brothers Keith and Larry Herron. Keith Herron wound up with 20 points and Larry had 16.

U-M Stars Named

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Ricky Green and Phil Hubbard of Big Ten champion Michigan and Dutch Lee and Bo Ellis of Marquette have landed spots on the coaches' NCAA District Four college basketball all-stars.

Joining the foursome on the six-man first unit were Mike Thompson of Minnesota and Kent Benson of Indiana. Hubbard and Ellis tied in the voting for the fifth spot on the squad, said Dayton Coach Don Donohue, chairman of the selections committee.

Hubbard is a sophomore, Thompson and Lee juniors and the rest seniors.

On the third squad were Terry Tyler of Detroit, Bruce King of Iowa, Ray Williams of Minnesota, Bob Miller of Cincinnati and Dave Corzine of DePaul.

Irish Eye St. Patrick's Day Win

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Notre Dame Coach Digger Phelps wished North Carolina Coach Dean Smith a Happy St. Patrick's Day, but his Fighting Irish will be trying to make it the unhappiest day of Smith's season.

Phelps fervently hopes that

Irish eyes will be smiling St. Patrick's Day when fifth-ranked North Carolina and 10th-ranked Notre Dame collide in the NCAA East Regional semifinals at College Park, Md.

Smith held a news conference here Tuesday and Phelps talked with reporters by telephone.

The Irish, 22-6, raced to a 7-0 early season record, including victories at Maryland and UCLA, but the bottom soon dropped out.

Kentucky clobbered the Irish 102-78 in December, the first of four straight losses, but things turned around with the return of injured center Bruce Flowers, Phelps said.

"Once we got Flowers back, we won 14 of our last 15 games," he said.

North Carolina was soon to lose its center, however. Tom LaGarde, a member of the U.S. Olympic team, sprained a knee in practice and missed the Tar Heels' last nine games.

LaGarde tried to come back for the NCAA Tournament, but reinjured the knee Monday and was to undergo surgery during the East Regional.

"Yesterday, Tom LaGarde threw away his crutches, did real well for 10 minutes, made a good move on (reserve center) Jeff Wolf and the knee locked," Smith said.

Smith said, "It may be a blessing in disguise for Tom in his pro career. Doctors had said the knee could lock any day, any week. Now they will operate."

However, All-Atlantic Coast Conference forward Walter Davis had sufficiently recovered from a broken index finger to play, Smith said.

"The odds are very good Walter will play," he said. "He may not be up to standard, but Walter not being up to standard is still pretty good."

Phelps and Smith agreed that Notre Dame would have a rebounding advantage, with Smith adding that he expected to face a zone defense, by which the Irish could seal off the inside and utilize their height advantage on the boards.

However, he noted that Wake Forest had been the only team during the season to beat the Tar Heels with a zone defense.

Smith also said he was less impressed than Phelps with Notre Dame's stretch drive.

"We played as many tournament teams as Notre Dame and there weren't any Stonehills or Valparaisos on our schedule," Smith said. "Notre Dame has been pointed to as an upset team, but I don't think you can point to any game. If Notre Dame won, it wouldn't be that much of an upset."

Channel Five Switches Coverage To Michigan

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Michigan coach Johnny Orr calls Thursday's matchup between his top-ranked Wolverines and No. 12 Detroit "the greatest game for fan interest in our state's history."

And Channel 5 in Chicago agrees with him. Channel 5 announced Tuesday it will be televising the Michigan-Detroit game instead of the Notre Dame-North Carolina clash as originally planned.

The Wolverine-Titan game can also be seen on Channel 8 (Grand Rapids) and will be carried at 8 p.m.

Notre Dame and North Carolina will be televised locally on Channel 16 (South Bend).

The Michigan-Detroit match will follow the first semifinal, pitting No. 17 UNC-Charlotte against No. 6 Syracuse.

UNC-C Coach Lee Rose says his 49ers already deserve a Purple Heart.

The 49ers wrapped up the Sun Belt Conference tournament last Wednesday, edging New Orleans 71-70 for the championship.

The team has since kept busy, defeating Central Michigan 91-85 in overtime in UNC-Charlotte's NCAA debut Sunday in first round action in Bloomington, Ind.

South Haven Board Eyes Big Curriculum Change

South Haven Correspondent

SOUTH HAVEN — A proposed major change in the curriculum of the South Haven high school was presented to members of the board of education for review during their regular monthly meeting last night.

The change would require that a student select either a college preparatory or vocational oriented course of study.

The existing curriculum has had very little correlation between the career and the chosen subject matter, according to school officials.

Under the proposed change, each course of study would prescribe required courses needed for graduation. School officials said additional emphasis has been placed in the area of English, reading and math.

A significant addition to course requirements for college prep students would be a foreign language as well as algebra and geometry.

The new curriculum is expected to assist the high school guidance department to realistically lay out a four-year course of study and to better inform parents of courses required for graduation, according to school officials.

Current high school students would be exempt from some of the requirements.

Board members scheduled a workshop session for next Tuesday to discuss the proposal further.

In other areas, a change in procedure for determining the difference between an excused and unexcused absence for high school students drew mixed reaction from the board.

Under the new policy, the school would no longer be required to use its discretion in determining if an absence from school should be excused. The new policy requires only that the parent explain the nature of the absence.

ADRIAN G. SLIKKERS SR.
Stepping Down

football, golf and tennis.

Slikkers was named assistant junior high school principal in 1964 and a year later was appointed junior high principal. He became senior high principal in July, 1966.

In addition to membership in several professional organizations, he is president of the Furniture City Rambler Travel Trailer club of Grand Rapids.

He and his wife attend Hope Reformed church, South Haven.

Supt. Harold Gaarde said the policy change places responsibility on the parents to make the determination for absences and that the high school will allow the absence for any reason as long as the student's total absences for the school year does not exceed 18 days. After the 18th day a student can be denied course credit.

Board member Glenn Sperry questioned whether the school

might be becoming too permissive, claiming that truancy won't mean much anymore.

"If a student decides to spend a day on the beach and his parents don't care then we are going to condone it under this new policy," said Sperry.

"In essence we are giving students 18 legal skip days," said board member David Griffin.

Assistant high school principal Howard Jessup said the current policy of determining the difference between an excused and unexcused absence has too many gray areas.

"The current policy forces parents to lie about their son or daughter's absence for fear of not getting an excused absence," said Jessup.

The policy change was tabled until a future meeting.

The board approved hiring the Michigan Association of School Boards to provide negotiation services in upcoming contract talks with teachers. Cost of the service is expected to be approximately $5,000.

The retirement of Mrs. Lowell (Eleanor) Harry was approved. A sixth grade teacher at Central school, Mrs. Harry has taught in the South Haven for the past 11 years.

Assistant Supt. David Jones said that four petitions for two school board seats have been filed. The candidates include incumbent Mrs. David (Jane) Witte and challengers Kenneth Miles Schmidt, Emil F. Wessling and Mrs. Ernest (Barbara) Adler.

The second incumbent, Glenn Sperry, indicated after the meeting that he plans to seek re-election and is circulating a petition.

Deadline for filing petitions is April 11 at 4 p.m. Petitions are available at the superintendent's office.

The creation of a junior varsity softball team for girls was approved. The coach will receive a stipend of four percent of his/her salary.

The low $4,969 bid of Russ Hyma Chevrolet of South Haven for a car to transport special education students was accepted.

The board designated the Van Buren intermediate school district as its agent in implementing a state-mandated bilingual program for students having difficulty performing classroom in English.

Gaarde said he was checking to see why the South Haven system has not received an adequate student allotment at the Van Buren skill center. Based on enrollment, the South Haven system should be allowed 207 students at the skill center next year, but has been designated only 182, according to Gaarde. He said he is attempting to determine the reason.

Gaarde commended the South Haven police department, especially juvenile officer Sgt. William Crow. He said the working relationship between the school system and police department is excellent.

Pancake House Is Destroyed

COLOMA — Fire of undetermined origin leveled the Mr. Pancake House restaurant here early today and left part of the city without electricity for a time.

Fire Chief Leonard Dolezan estimated damage to the business at $100,000 to $150,000 and said only the lack of a wind kept the blaze from threatening the entire east side of the business district.

The front five windows of the business blew out from intense heat as a Coloma township officer spotted the flames.

Officer Gary Wigent said he spotted the flames at the rear portion of the three-story structure and was just getting out of the car when the windows blew.

According to firemen, the front wall of the building collapsed about 20 minutes after the fire was reported about 1 a.m. The rest of the structure followed a short time later.

Officials said that the electricity was knocked out to the city's northside during the height of the blaze, leaving only the glow from the flames to illuminate the northern part of the business district.

The restaurant, opened in 1970, was closed for interior remodeling when the blaze struck. Owner George Kleronomos said he had left the building about 6:30 p.m. and that only the heating unit had been left on.

The building had been a lumber company and the community's opera house in years past and was estimated to be about 75 years old.

When opened, the restaurant was named the Mr. Jemima Pancake House. The formal name was changed in the past year, however, to Mr. Pancake House. Kleronomos said that the business was well known by the Mr. Jemima name still.

Kleronomos said he carried $65,000 in fire insurance and that his future plans for the business were unknown early today.

Coloma firemen were joined by firemen from Watervliet in battling the flames which engulfed the structure and soared skyward.

By 2:45 a.m. city public works crews moved into the area to start the clean up of the street for traffic.

The Coloma fire chief said he would contact the state fire marshal's office for an investigation. Cause of the fire, he said, has not been determined although it started in the southeast corner of the building where the office area is located.

Delinquent Fathers Get Jail Sentences

An unemployed father owing more than $2,000 in child support was sentenced this week in Berrien Circuit court to 60 days in jail while another who holds a job but still has an arrearage of $4,550 got a 30-weekend jail term.

Chief Investigator Edward Patrick of the Berrien friend of the court's office reported:

Judge Zoe S. Burkholz imposed the 60-day term on Scott Monahan, of 630 South Fifth street, Niles, for $2,012 arrears for one child on ADC. She held him in contempt of court, placed him on two years probation, and ordered Monahan to find employment within 30 days of his release from jail or spend another 60 days behind bars.

Judge Burkholz held Dennis Toll, of Buchanan, in contempt and ordered a 30-weekend jail sentence for $4,550 arrears for three ADC children. Toll was placed on two years probation and ordered to sign a wage assignment of $30 weekly support and $10 per week on the arrears. Patrick noted Toll's $100 bond was applied to the arrearage.

In other sentences by Judge Burkholz:

William Thorne, of Beaverton, Mich., received two years probation for $4,533 arrears for two children on ADC, and avoided a 30-day jail term by paying $500 towards the arrearage. Thorne was ordered to sign a wage assignment of $29 weekly support and $5 weekly on the arrearage.

Gale E. Gillenwater, of South Bend, got two years probation for $2,593 arrears for two children not on ADC, paid $100 towards the arrearage, and was told to pay $15 weekly support and $10 per week towards the arrears.

In sentences by Judge Julian E. Hughes: Ronnie Thomas, of 847 Mineral avenue, Benton Harbor, had a previous probation extended one year until June, 1979, for $1,224 arrears for one child not on ADC. Thomas paid $150 towards the arrearage and was ordered to pay all refunds from his state and federal tax returns towards the remaining arrearage.

Roger W. Molter, of Dowagiac, got two years probation for $1,356 arrears for one child not on ADC, and was told to pay $27 weekly support and $3 weekly on the arrearage while unemployed.

New Buffalo Gives Mayor 2nd Term

NEW BUFFALO — Mrs. Carol Bond was re-elected mayor here last night and Elmer Kerns was re-elected mayor pro-tem during the city council's reorganizational meeting.

Mrs. Bond, 35, was re-elected for another year by a 4-1 vote of the council. The lone dissenting vote was voiced by Councilman Frank Magro. Voting for Mrs. Bond's re-election besides herself were Carl Keefer, Clarence Sayles and Kerns.

Kerns was re-elected by a 3-1 vote. Sayles, newly elected councilman, voted against Kerns, while Mrs. Bond, Magro, and Keefer voted yes. Kerns abstained from voting.

Mrs. Bond was first elected New Buffalo mayor a year ago, the first woman to hold the position. She is divorced and the mother of two sons.

Sayles was sworn in last night after the Berrien county board of canvassers yesterday verified he defeated William VanMeer by a vote of 175 to 67 in Monday's city election.

In other areas, Atty. Lee Boothby of Berrien Springs, city legal counsel, informed the council that a hearing date for April 27 has been set in federal district court, Grand Rapids, on whether a new trial will be granted the city on the Sima condemnation suit.

In January a six-man jury in that court issued a verdict for Louis Sima totaling $244,000. The city and federal government had filed condemnation proceedings against Sima for 4.428 acres of land south of the Galien River bridge in conjunction with its refuge harbor program.

William Marx, city manager, reported that preliminary budget figures indicate that tax revenue for the city will be up between $20,000 and $25,000, but due to inflation the city will be hard pressed for money to balance this year's budget.

The council approved using $250 in federal revenue sharing funds to purchase periodicals for the city library.

Councilman Keefer was appointed to serve on the Pine Grove cemetery board. The board is jointly made up of both city and township officials.

Thomas Liminger was re-appointed to another three-year term on the harbor commission and it was voted to advertise for a member to fill a park board vacancy when Mrs. Wanda Black's term expires this month.

During the water board meeting that preceded the council meeting, Marx reported that frozen water mains and meters cost the city $3,000 in overtime labor and $3,200 in equipment use to thaw the mains.

Lindsay To Become New Wings' Boss?

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit radio station says the National Hockey League Detroit Red Wings have fired General Manager Alex Delvecchio and replaced him with Ted Lindsay.

The club on Tuesday called what it termed "a major news conference" for 10 a.m. today, but a team spokesman declined to say what would be discussed.

Radio station WJR reported early today that Delvecchio was summoned to New York for a meeting with club owner Bruce Norris Tuesday, and relieved of his job effective immediately.

Lindsay is a member of the hockey Hall of Fame, and skated on Detroit's legendary "production line" with Sid Abel and Gordie Howe.

Lindsay had been coaching at Hillsdale College and running a Detroit business since he retired from active competition after 17 seasons with Detroit and the Chicago Black Hawks.

On Monday, Hillsdale College announced it was dropping its hockey program because it was too expensive.

Lindsay is in second place on the NHL's all-time penalty minutes list and ranks 18th on the all-time scoring list.

He won the league scoring title in the 1949-50 season but was better known for his hardhitting style than his goal output.

Delvecchio is in the middle of his third season as the team's general manager. He moved into the front office after 23 seasons as a player.

The Red Wings recently became the first team to be mathematically eliminated from the playoffs this season. They set the worst record in the league, 16-44-9, and have been last in the Norris Division since November.

Detroit has not qualified for post-season play since the 1967-68 season.

Delvecchio was handling double duty as coach and GM until mid-January when the club hired Larry Wilson to work behind the bench.

Neither Lindsay nor Delvecchio could be reached for comment immediately.

This season, Hillsdale's first varsity team had a 17-5-3 record. The Chargers took the championship in the Midwest College Invitational hockey tournament at Allen Park in December.

"Coach (Lindsay) has taught us every dirty trick in the book," one Hillsdale player said recently.

One reason Lindsay went to Hillsdale was because he was asked to by his son, Blake, who was then a student at the college. Blake is gone now. But Lindsay's daughter, Lynn, a senior, remains.

Lindsay is a wealthy businessman and former NBC-TV hockey analyst.

He sought the job as Red Wings' general manager several years ago. A few months ago, he was asked if he was disappointed he didn't get the post and had become a college coach.

"I love the game and I think it's the greatest game in the world," Lindsay replied. "This way, it stays as my hobby, not taking as much time as a pro job would have. But I work hard at it."

Union College Suspends Ex-Wing Coach Harkness

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — Ned Harkness, former Detroit Red Wings coach who built college hockey powerhouses at three upstate New York schools, was suspended from all coaching and recruiting activities at Union College Tuesday.

Harkness admitted visiting the home of a prospective recruit in violation of New England Small College Athletic Conference rules and failing to inform Union officials of the full truth about the situation.

Union President Thomas Bonner said the suspension would continue pending a review of the matter by the academically prestigious school's board of trustees within two weeks.

Harkness-coached hockey teams at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, at Cornell University and at Union have won a total of 401 games, lost 123 and tied 10 over the past quarter-century.

In two years at Union, Harkness, 55, has built a hockey program from scratch. He did the same thing at RPI, coming up with a national championship team within four years. At Cornell, his teams won five Ivy League titles and two national championships.

Union's hockey team concluded its 1976-77 season last weekend, dropping a 6-4 decision to Merrimack in the Eastern College Athletic conference Division II championship game.

The suspension by Union, Harkness told a news conference, was the "first time in a 25-year career anything like this has happened to me."

And he said he was "extremely sorry," adding that his admitted recruiting violation occurred "in the heat of competition."

Bonner said Harkness, an aggressive disciplinarian, "seriously misrepresented" the facts of the case to him and to Union's athletic director and that "this misrepresentation was subsequently conveyed ... in good faith to the athletic directors of the other NESCAC schools."

"The violation involved visitation in the home of a prospective athlete who did not enroll at Union," Bonner said. "The misrepresentation was Coach Harkness' failure to inform me of the truth when asked directly for the facts of what had occurred."

'M' Drills Start

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The University of Michigan opened preparations for its 98th intercollegiate football season today when Coach Do Schembechler greeted 88 varsity candidates.

Schembechler said his prime concern is replacing five key defensive players who are graduating this spring, including linebacker Calvin O'Neal and tackle Greg Morton, rated among the top senior defensive players in the nation last year.

"The interior defensive line and linebackers are the areas where we will have to find replacements," Schembechler said.

Offensively, Michigan returns nine regulars, including quarterback Rick Leach, fullback Russell Davis and tailback Harlan Hukleby.

The entire offensive line led by guard Mark Donahue returns intact, although tackle Bill Dufek will miss spring drills because of a shoulder operation. The defending Big Ten champions have 20 practice sessions available including the final spring scrimmage April 16.

Tartar Coach Resigns

DETROIT (AP) — Bob Samaras, Wayne State University's basketball coach for the past four seasons, resigned Monday.

Samaras, 48, will remain on the WSU faculty as an associate professor in the physical education department.

Samaras said he resigned "for the good of Tartar basketball." He said the change may give the program a needed stimulus.

76ers Back On Track?

Gilmore Helps Bulls Topple Boston

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

The Philadelphia 76ers may be back on the track.

Having aired their gripes and spoken their pieces, the 76ers settled down to what they do best Tuesday night and routed the Cleveland Cavaliers 133-102.

"I think the stories cleared the air," suggested 76ers forward George McGinnis, referring to reports of discord on the team which had surfaced earlier this week. "Everybody came into the lockerroom tonight with a different attitude."

If this can be a turning point for us, it couldn't come at a better time."

Indeed, if the 76ers are to go far in the National Basketball Association playoffs — which are only a month away — they will have to play better than they did for the past month, when they had difficulty breaking even.

The way they played against Cleveland would be just fine, however.

In other NBA games, the Denver Nuggets beat the Los Angeles Lakers 107-95, the Portland Trail Blazers defeated the New Orleans Jazz 131-101, the Kansas City Kings edged the Washington Bullets 101-98, the Chicago Bulls beat the Boston Celtics 107-96 and the San Antonio Spurs stopped the New York Nets 118-108.

Julius Erving scored 29 points for Philadelphia and McGinnis had 23, including 13 in the decisive third period. The 76ers led 57-46 at intermission, started the second half with a 10-2 burst and outscored Cleveland 43-25 in the third quarter, putting the game away.

Baskets by Dan Issel, Jim Price and David Thompson within a span of 16 seconds midway through the third quarter helped Denver beat Los Angeles in a matchup of the two teams with the best records in the NBA. That flurry stretched the Nuggets' lead to 17 points and the Lakers did not threaten after that.

Thompson led the Nuggets with 26 points while Bobby Jones had 15 points and 12 rebounds.

Portland snapped a three-game losing streak behind Lionel Hollins and Maurice Lucas, who scored 22 and 20 points, respectively, and handed New Orleans its eighth straight loss.

Kansas City won its sixth in a row and dealt Washington its fourth straight defeat as Sam Lacey scored two baskets and a pair of free throws in the final minute, clinching a Kings' rally that erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit.

Chicago posted its 10th victory in the last 11 games and moved within two games of the 300 mark as Arlis Gilmore scored six of his 28 points in the final three minutes against Boston and Norm Van Lier and Wilbur Holland chipped in with five points apiece.

Mark Olberding scored 22 points and tied his career high with 13 rebounds for San Antonio, which led by as many as 21 points in the third period and eased to victory.

Career Clips

Bob Ackerman, assistant pro at Orchard Hills country club in Buchanan, won second place and $2,250.00 in the San Destin, Florida stop on the American golf tour last week. Ackerman, former Bridgman star, had 217 for the three rounds. Tom Valentine of Gainesville, Ga., won first place with 214 and $3,750.00.

Gallen's Don Kouy, a freshman at the University of Michigan, ended up playing in all 13 games on the Wolverines' junior varsity basketball team. He averaged 11.0 points and seven rebounds a game for a team which went 11-2.

Covert, Buchanan Will Count On Speed

Clubs Face 'Tall' Tasks In Quarterfinals

Speed. Covert and Buchanan are hoping that ingredient will result in a victory recipe in Thursday's state quarterfinals. The Bulldogs take on top-ranked Class D power Detroit East Catholic at 7:30 p.m. at Marshall. The Bucks battle Shelby in a Class C quarterfinal repeat at Wyoming-Godwin Heights.

Both Buchanan and Covert will face a height disadvantage in their contest. And the duo are hoping to overcome the problem with speed.

"We're going to have to do what we've been doing," Covert coach Rod DeYoung says. "And that's use our speed and quickness. We have to keep them from doing what they want to do offensively. We at least want to make it difficult for them. We can't let them score at will."

East Catholic sports a sparkling 21-1 record, losing only to Class A power Birmingham Brother Rice 61-49. East Catholic returns its entire front line from the team which ousted Gallien from the tournament in last year's quarterfinals.

Heading the front line are forwards Ted Anderson and Donnell Williams. The 6-6 Anderson and 6-1 Williams are both averaging 16 points per game. Terry Tripplett, who also stands 6-6, is scoring 9.0 points, while 5-10 senior guards Thomas Martin and Dwone McMillan chip in four and eight points, respectively.

East Catholic coach Dave Soules plans to use his team's height advantage to the fullest. "We'll probably have to go to our strength," he says. "That's our strength. They're really quick and aggressive and they go after the ball. We're going to have to beat their press to win the game."

Covert's bench has continued to spark the 22-3 Bulldogs. Heading Covert's offensive attack is substitute guard Jerry Starks, now averaging 17.7 points per game.

Regulars Robert Maggard and James DeBoe are also in double digits with 14.3 and 12.9 marks respectively. "This game is what it's all about, I guess," DeYoung says. "We're playing the best. This game could go a long way toward deciding the Class D title."

Meanwhile, Shelby will be out to avenge a 91-67 shellacking which Buchanan handed it in last year's quarterfinals.

When one talks about Buchanan, Gerald Busby is the first name that comes to mind. The 6-4 Busby is averaging 26.4 points per game on year. But the All-State candidate is scoring at a 29.0 clip during five tournament games.

"Busby is the best individual we've played against in the two years I've been here," Shelby coach Jim Tate says. "We've been using both a halfcourt trap and a match-up zone defense this year. We'll probably combine the two to try and get some help on Busby."

Tate adds, however, "We're not going to change what got us into the quarterfinals."

Two of Shelby's three losses came against teams still in the state tournament. The Tigers.

21-3 overall, lost to Class B Cedar Springs 65-63 and to Class D Muskegon Christian 56-55.

"We're glad to be back in the quarterfinals again," Tate says. "And we're looking forward to playing Buchanan again. It caps a great season."

Heading Shelby's scoring attack will be 6-7 junior center Dave Kuipers, 6-4 junior forward Brian Beckman and 6-3 senior guard Jack Near, all scoring around 15 points per game. Beckman is the only returning starter from last year's team.

Buchanan brings a 10-game winning streak and 20-5 record into the quarterfinals. And probably the most pleasant return for the Bucks is that of Mo Kyles. Normally a forward, Kyles opened at guard against Kalamazoo Hackett in the regional title contest and was the spark which turned the game around in the third quarter.

Besides Busby, the Bucks are getting double digit scoring out of Mo Kyles (14.5), 6-4 Greg Frazier (12.3) and guard Joe Kyles (10.6). Buck coach Jon Bohannon plans to open with that quartet and one of two sophomores, Ronnie Williams or Joe Watts.

"We're anticipating a lot of trapping from both teams," Bohannon says. "But we don't want to foul. We don't want to be in a free throw contest with Shelby."

Thursday's winners will compete in the state semifinals Saturday at Lansing Eastern high school.

Bonnies Edge Oregon In NIT

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Satalin, 23, scored 13 points in 13 seconds.

"I felt I was 53," said the St. Bonaventure basketball coach.

Satalin in reality is 30, but it is no wonder he felt older after St. Bonaventure's 76-73 victory over Oregon in the National Invitation Tournament Tuesday night.

The last few seconds obviously seemed like the longest mile to Satalin, what with the following events occurring:

—Kelvin Small hit one foul shot at the 10-second mark for Oregon's 73rd point, then missed another attempt and the ball went out of bounds off a St. Bonaventure player.

—With eight seconds remaining and the score 76-73 in favor of the Bonnies, Oregon in-bounded the ball and got it inside to Greg Ballard. But the Ducks' high scorer, looking for a three-point play, hit the rim and St. Bonaventure's Greg Sanders came down with the rebound at the buzzer.

The way the ball bounced sent St. Bonaventure into Thursday night's semifinals at Madison Square Garden against Villanova, which beat Massachusetts 81-71 in an earlier quarter-final game Tuesday.

Alabama and Houston, which won quarter-final games Monday night, will play in the other semifinal.

The Bonnies appeared to have the Ducks in tow midway through the second half with a 15-point lead behind the dominating play of Sanders. But then they slowed things down, giving the Pac-8 team a chance to catch up.

Before the slowdown, though, the Bonnies had been speeding things up considerably behind the omnipresent Sanders. The left-handed shooting forward scored 30 points, including 20 in the second half.

The first game did not have nearly the drama as the nightcap. Villanova broke open the contest with a 20-9 second-half streak behind brothers Keith and Larry Herron. Keith Herron wound up with 20 points and Larry had 16.

U-M Stars Named

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Rickey Green and Phil Hubbard of Big Ten champion Michigan and Butch Lee and Bo Ellis of Marquette have landed spots on the coaches' NCAA District Four college basketball all-stars.

Joining the foursome on the six-man first unit were Mike Thompson of Minnesota and Kent Benson of Indiana. Hubbard and Ellis tied in the voting for the fifth spot on the squad, said Dayton Coach Don Donohue, chairman of the selections committee.

the rest seniors.

On the third squad were Terry Tyler of Detroit, Bruce King of Iowa, Ray Williams of Minnesota, Bob Miller of Cincinnati and Dave Corzine of DePaul.

Irish Eye St. Patrick's Day Win

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Notre Dame Coach Digger Phelps wished North Carolina Coach Dean Smith a Happy St. Patrick's Day, but his Fighting Irish will be trying to make it the unhappiest day of Smith's season.

Phelps fervently hopes that

Irish eyes will be smiling St. Patrick's Day when fifth-ranked North Carolina and 10th-ranked Notre Dame collide in the NCAA East Regional semifinals at College Park, Md.

Smith held a news conference here Tuesday and Phelps talked with reporters by telephone.

The Irish, 22-6, raced to a 7-0 early season record, including victories at Maryland and UCLA, but the bottom soon dropped out.

Kentucky clobbered the Irish 102-78 in December, the first of four straight losses, but things turned around with the return of injured center Bruce Flowers,

Phelps said.

"Once we got Flowers back, we won 14 of our last 15 games," he said.

North Carolina was soon to lose its center, however. Tom LaGarde, a member of the U.S. Olympic team, sprained a knee in practice and missed the Tar Heels' last nine games.

LaGarde tried to come back for the NCAA Tournament, but re-injured the knee Monday and was to undergo surgery during the East Regional.

"Yesterday, Tom LaGarde threw away his crutches, did real well for 10 minutes, made a good move on (reserve center) Jeff Wolf and the knee locked," Smith said. "It may be a blessing in disguise for Tom in his pro career. Doctors had said the knee could lock any day, any week. Now they will operate."

However, All-Atlantic Coast Conference forward Walter Davis had sufficiently recovered from a broken index finger to play, Smith said.

"The odds are very good Walter will play," he said. "He may not be up to standard, but Walter not being up to standard is still pretty good."

Phelps and Smith agreed that Notre Dame would have a rebounding advantage, with Smith adding that he expected to face a zone defense, by which the Irish could seal off the inside and utilize their height advantage on the boards.

However, he noted that Wake Forest had been the only team during the season to beat the Tar Heels with a zone defense.

Smith also said he was less impressed than Phelps with Notre Dame's stretch drive.

"We played as many tournament teams as Notre Dame and there weren't any Stonehills or Valparaisos on our schedule," Smith said. "Notre Dame has been pointed to as an upset team, but I don't think you can point to any game. If Notre Dame won, it wouldn't be that much of an upset."

Channel Five Switches Coverage To Michigan

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Michigan coach Johnny Orr calls Thursday's matchup between his top-ranked Wolverines and No. 12 Detroit "the greatest game for fan interest in our state's history."

And Channel 5 in Chicago agrees with him. Channel 5 announced Tuesday it will be televising the Michigan-Detroit game instead of the Notre Dame-North Carolina clash as originally planned.

The Wolverine-Titan game can also be seen on Channel 8 (Grand Rapids) and will be carried at 8 p.m.

Notre Dame and North Carolina will be televised locally on Channel 16 (South Bend).

The Michigan-Detroit match will follow the first semifinal, pitting No. 17 UNC-Charlotte against No. 6 Syracuse. UNC-C Coach Lee Rose says his 49ers already deserve a Purple Heart.

The 49ers wrapped up the Sun Belt Conference tournament last Wednesday, edging New Orleans 71-70 for the championship.

The team has since kept busy, defeating Central Michigan 91-86 in overtime in UNC-Charlotte's NCAA debut Sunday in first round action at Bloomington, Ind.

Yankees' Blomberg Regains Bat Form

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

"It feels," Ron Blomberg said, "like you're a fan and you jumped up and hit a home run." Blomberg ought to know. For the past 1½ years, he has been little more than a fan.

Tuesday night, he became a hitter again. A career .302 hitter before suffering a shoulder injury that wiped him out in July, 1975 and limited him to one game and two at-bats last season, Blomberg unloaded a 400-foot two-run homer and a run-scoring grounder as the New York Yankees defeated the Minnesota Twins 9-4 in an exhibition game.

But it was much more than a meaningless spring game in the 28-year-old Blomberg, who is trying to recapture his spot as the Yankees' designated hitter against right-handed pitching.

"This was like a regular-season game for me. The home run felt good, it feels like my swing is coming back," said Blomberg, whose powerful, compact stroke is one of baseball's neatest swings. "If I show them I can swing the bat I'll probably be a part of this team."

Meanwhile, Buzz Capra, who used to pitch in New York for the Mets and is trying to make it back to Atlanta's starting rotation following arm surgery, worked three scoreless innings, allowing two hits, in the Braves' 6-1 triumph over the Houston Astros. Phil Niekro, the Atlanta starter, allowed one hit in four scoreless innings.

The world champion Cincinnati Reds split their squad and made two Canadian clubs happy. One team of Reds bowed to the Montreal Expos 5-2 — ex-Reds first baseman Tony Perez homered in his first game against his former team and later scored what proved to be the winning run — while the fledgling Toronto Blue Jays edged the Reds' other group 9-8 in 11 innings.

The Baltimore Orioles also split their squad with somewhat different results. They downed the Boston Red Sox 3-0 as Rudy May, Dennis Martinez and Fred Holdsworth combined on a two-hitter — Dwight Evans' two-out single in the eighth inning and Fred Lynn's double in the ninth — and also whipped the Texas Rangers 7-3 as Doug DeCinces slugged a tie-breaking two-run homer.

Elsewhere, Dave Kingman hit his second homer in two days as the New York Mets beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-2; Tim Lincecum's two-run homer gave the Detroit Tigers a 3-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies in 11 innings, and the Los Angeles Dodgers scored six times in the fifth inning — Rick Monday and Dave Lopes each drove in a pair — and trounced the St. Louis Cardinals 13-3.

Home runs by Ralph Garr and Larry Foster powered the Chicago White Sox to a 4-0 victory over Kansas City in the opener of a doubleheader, but the Royals took the nightcap 10-3 as John Wathan and Luis Silverio homered; Vida Blue allowed two hits in five scoreless innings as the Oakland A's beat the Cleveland Indians 4-2; Jerry Morales singled in the winning run as the Chicago Cubs edged the California Angels 4-3; the San Diego Padres got homers from George Hendrick and Jerry Turner in defeating the Milwaukee Brewers 7-4, and the Seattle Mariners scored five runs in the seventh inning and beat the San Francisco Giants 6-1.

Williams Champion

Kathy Williams took a first place in the 100 breaststroke for the St. Joe Aquatics Club in the Michigan A.A.U. state short course swim meet over the weekend at Royal Oak.

Kathy, competing in the 15 and over class, was timed in 1:11.19. She also placed fourth in the 200 breaststroke and seventh in the individual medley.

Nancy Chinery also was a standout with thirds in the 100 butterfly and 200 I.M., fourths in the 50 butterfly and 50 breaststroke and fifths in the 100 breaststroke and 100 I.M.

In the 11-12 division, June Russell had a seventh in the 50 freestyle and 11th in the 100 backstroke while Ingrid Wyse was 11th in the 500 freestyle.

Audrey Flood (15 and over) placed fifth in 200 butterfly, sixth in 100 butterfly, seventh in 1650 freestyle and 200 freestyle and 11th in 50 freestyle. Diana Grandy was eighth in the 200 backstroke, 10th in the 100 backstroke and 11th in the 100 butterfly while Kenna Finch placed 10th in the 200 freestyle and 11th in the 500 freestyle.

The local girls (Grandy, Williams, Flood, Finch) took third in the 15 and over 400 medley relay and fourth in the 400 freestyle relay. The team of Grandy, Williams, Finch and Goodhart was fifth in the 800 freestyle relay.

Kickers Set Registration

Red-Hot Atlanta Flames Burn Pittsburgh

From ASSOCIATED PRESS
When you're hot, you're hot ... and right now the Atlanta Flames are as torrid as their nickname.

Not only did they win their third National Hockey League game in four nights, but they blasted a club record 59 shots at the Pittsburgh net in a 7-3 rout of the Penguins Tuesday night.

The triumph moved the Flames eight points ahead of the New York Rangers — their victims twice over the weekend — in the battle for the third and final playoff berth in the Patrick Division.

In other action, the Vancouver Canucks pounded the Detroit Red Wings 7-1, the Toronto Maple Leafs downed the St. Louis Blues 4-1 and the Cleveland Barons whipped the Washington Capitals 5-1.

Eric Vail and Tom Lysiak each scored two first-period goals in a game that included a league mark. The NHL record came in the third period when Pittsburgh's Wayne Bianchin and Atlanta's Guy Chouinard scored just four seconds apart, the fastest goals ever by players from opposing teams.

Don Lever scored a goal and added three assists while Gerry O'Flaherty and Derek Sanderson each had a goal and two assists as the surging Canucks climbed into a third-place tie with idle Minnesota in the Smythe Division, just one point behind second-place Chicago.

Second-period goals by Lanny McDonald — his 41st of the season — and Jim McKenney sparked Toronto over St. Louis. McDonald's goal snapped a 1-1 tie and came just six seconds after St. Louis' Brian Sutter was sent to the penalty box. McKenney fired a 30-footer past St. Louis goalie Doug Grant with 1:46 left in the period with both teams a man short.

Whitey Widing and Brent Meeker each had a goal and an assist for Cleveland. The Barons wrapped it up with three goals in 87 seconds early in the third period, by Bob Girard, Widing and Rich Hampton.

Lindsay To Become New Wings' Boss?

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit radio station says the National Hockey League Detroit Red Wings have fired General Manager Alex Delvecchio and replaced him with Ted Lindsay.

The club on Tuesday called what it termed "a major news conference" for 10 a.m. today, but a team spokesman declined to say what would be discussed. Radio station WJR reported early today that Delvecchio was summoned to New York for a meeting with club owner Bruce Norris Tuesday, and relieved of his job effective immediately.

Lindsay is a member of the hockey Hall of Fame, and skated on Detroit's legendary "production line" with Sid Abel and Gordie Howe.

Lindsay had been coaching at Hillsdale College and running a Detroit business since he retired from active competition after 17 seasons with Detroit and the Chicago Black Hawks.

On Monday, Hillsdale College announced it was dropping its hockey program because it was too expensive.

Lindsay is in second place on the NHL's all-time penalty minutes list and ranks 18th on the all-time scoring list.

He won the league scoring title in the 1949-50 season but was better known for his hardhitting style than his goal output.

Delvecchio is in the middle of his third season as the team's general manager. He moved in to the front office after 23 seasons as a player.

The Red Wings recently became the first team to be mathematically eliminated from the playoffs this season. They set the worst record in the league, 16-44-9, and have been last in the Norris Division since November.

Detroit has not qualified for post-season play since the 1987-88 season.

Delvecchio was handling double duty as coach and GM until mid-January when the club hired Larry Wilson to work behind the bench.

Neither Lindsay nor Delvecchio could be reached for comment immediately.

This season, Hillsdale's first varsity team had a 17-5-3 record. The Chargers took the championship in the Midwest College Invitational hockey tournament at Allen Park in December.

"Coach (Lindsay) has taught us every dirty trick in the book," one Hillsdale player said recently.

One reason Lindsay went to Hillsdale was because he was asked to by his son, Blake, who was then a student at the college. Blake is gone now. But Lindsay's daughter, Lynn, a senior, remains.

Lindsay is a wealthy businessman and former NBC-TV hockey analyst.

He sought the job as Red Wings' general manager several years ago. A few months ago, he was asked if he was disappointed he didn't get the post and had become a college coach.

"I love the game and I think it's the greatest game in the world," Lindsay replied. "This way, it stays as my hobby, not taking as much time as a pro job would have. But I work hard at it."

76ers Back On Track?

Gilmore Helps Bulls Topple Boston

AP Sports Writer

The Philadelphia 76ers may be back on the track.

Having aired their gripes and spoken their pieces, the 76ers settled down to what they do best Tuesday night and routed the Cleveland Cavaliers 133-102.

"I think the stories cleared the air," suggested 76ers forward George McGinnis, referring to reports of discord on the team which had surfaced earlier this week. "Everybody came into the locker room tonight with a different attitude."

"If this can be a turning point for us, it couldn't come at a better time."

Indeed, if the 76ers are to go far in the National Basketball Association playoffs — which are only a month away — they will have to play better than they did for the past month, when they had difficulty breaking even.

The way they played against Cleveland would be just fine, however.

In other NBA games, the Denver Nuggets beat the Los Angeles Lakers 107-95, the Portland Trail Blazers defeated the New Orleans Jazz 131-104, the Kansas City Kings edged the Washington Bullets 101-99, the Chicago Bulls beat the Boston Celtics 107-96 and the San Antonio Spurs stopped the New York Nets 118-108.

Julius Erving scored 29 points for Philadelphia and McGinnis had 23, including 13 in the decisive third period. The 76ers led 57-46 at intermission, started the second half with a 10-2 burst and outscored Cleveland 43-25 in the third quarter, putting the game away.

Baskets by Dan Issel, Jim Price and David Thompson within a span of 16 seconds midway through the third quarter helped Denver beat Los Angeles in a matchup of the two teams with the best records in the NBA. That flurry stretched the Nuggets' lead to 17 points and the Lakers did not threaten after that.

Thompson led the Nuggets with 26 points while Bobby

Jones had 15 points and 12 rebounds.

Portland snapped a three-game losing streak behind Lionel Hollins and Maurice Lucas, who scored 22 and 20 points, respectively, and handed New Orleans its eighth straight loss.

Kansas City won its sixth in a row and dealt Washington its fourth straight defeat as Sam Lacey scored two baskets and a pair of free throws in the final minute, clinching a Kings' rally that erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit.

Chicago posted its 10th victory in the last 11 games and moved within two games of the 500 mark as Artis Gilmore scored six of his 28 points in the final three minutes against Boston and Norm Van Lier and Wilbur Holland chipped in with five points apiece.

Union College Suspends Ex-Wing Coach Harkness

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — Ned Harkness, former Detroit Red Wing coach who built college hockey powerhouses at three upstate New York schools, was suspended from all coaching and recruiting activities at Union College Tuesday.

Harkness admitted visiting the home of a prospective recruit in violation of New England Small College Athletic Conference rules and failing to inform Union officials of the full truth about the situation.

Union President Thomas Bonner said the suspension would continue pending a review of the matter by the academically prestigious school's board of trustees within two weeks.

Harkness-coached hockey teams at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, at Cornell University and at Union have won a total of 401 games, lost 123 and tied 10 over the past quarter-century.

In two years at Union, Harkness, 55, has built a hockey program from scratch. He did the same thing at RPI, coming up with a national championship team within four years. At Cornell, his teams won five Ivy League titles and two national championships.

Union's hockey team concluded its 1976-77 season last weekend, dropping a 6-4 decision to Merrimack in the Eastern College Athletic conference Division II championship game.

The suspension by Union, Harkness told a news conference, was the "first time in a 25-year career anything like this has happened to me."

And he said he was "extremely sorry," adding that his admitted recruiting violation occurred "in the heat of competition."

Bonner said Harkness, an aggressive disciplinarian, "seriously misrepresented" the facts of the case to him and to Union's athletic director and that "this misrepresentation was subsequently conveyed" in good faith to the athletic directors of the other NESCAC schools.

"The violation involved visitation in the home of a prospective athlete who did not enroll at Union," Bonner said. "The misrepresentation was Coach Harkness' failure to inform me of the truth when asked directly for the facts of what had occurred."

'M' Drills Start

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The University of Michigan opened preparations for its 98th intercollegiate football season today when Coach Bo Schembechler greeted 88 varsity candidates.

Schembechler said his prime concern is replacing five key defensive players who are graduating this spring, including linebacker Calvin O'Neal and tackle Greg Morton, rated among the top senior defensive players in the nation last year.

"The interior defensive line and linebackers are the areas where we will have to find replacements," Schembechler said.

Offensively, Michigan returns nine regulars, including quarterback Rick Leach, fullback Russell Davis and tailback Harlan Huckleby.

The entire offensive line led by guard Mark Donahue returns intact, although tackle Bill Dufek will miss spring drills because of a shoulder operation. The defending Big Ten champions have 20 practice sessions available including the final spring scrimmage April 16.

Tartar Coach Resigns

DETROIT (AP) — Bob Samaras, Wayne State University's basketball coach for the past four seasons, resigned Monday.

Samaras, 48, will remain on the WSU faculty as an associate professor in the physical education department.

Samaras said he resigned "for the good of Tartar basketball."

He said the change may give the program a needed stimulus.

HELLMAN: Happy with Fonda as her

Ron Ziegler Making Use Of Contacts At The Top

Q: Whatever happened to Nixon's fast-talking press secretary, Ron Ziegler? — L.M., Little Rock, Ark.

firm — making deals to lay oil pipelines in the Middle East. Ron bumped into Secretary of State Cy Vance's party at the Meridien hotel in Damascus last month and tried to give pointers to Huddling Carter. Vance's press spokesman, Carter wasn't interested.

Q: Is Lillian Hellman happy about Jane Fonda playing her in the film version of "Julia"? — N.D., Andover, Mass.

A: Hellman says it never occurred to her that she would be portrayed on the screen as herself. Rather, she hoped the screen version would use a fictionalized name in place of her real one. However, she says she's happy about Fonda getting the role, though originally she suggested Lauren Bacall, whom the producers turned down for not being the right age. Now the famous writer is anxious that the film be a good one and faithful to her true, tragic adventure in pre-World War II Europe.

FAME HELPS: Since "Network," Faye Dunaway has

been offered practically every movie in town. She turned down "Fun With Dick and Jane," which is earning mixed reviews for Jane Fonda. She also rejected "Julia," which Fonda snapped up. Another Dunaway reject was "Six Weeks," the film Audrey Hepburn's going to do. Faye's price per movie has jumped to half a million now — a nice tidy raise over the $200,000 she collected for "Network."

Q: How does Secretary of State Cyrus Vance take to being surrounded by heavily-armed Secret Service agents? — R.M., Dallas

A: He takes to it so little that he's just quietly called off the troops. From now on, Vance will be guarded only by a couple of lightly armed State Department men. Incidentally, Cy drove his Secret Service agents crazy in Saudi Arabia last month by taking off without any security for a two-hour drive with Foreign Minister Koming Saud. Saud himself drove the open car. Vance sat in the front seat, and they chatted away.

BOOKS YOU'LL NEVER SEE: The book publishing firm of W.W. Norton has in its files a 10-year-old contract with a Prof. Henry Kissinger to write an elementary textbook on

HALEY: Don't look for the book

American history. And Viking House has an ancient agreement with one Alex Haley to do a book for its junior series called "The History of a Race." Strictly speaking, Henry and Alex should take time out to write these books before getting on to bigger things. But don't bet on it. Things just don't work that way.

SANDWICH SPECIAL: The luxurious San Souci restaurant in Washington, D.C., where all the tippy-top people dine on expensive French food, has gotten on the Carter handwagon. The menu now features a "Peanut Butter Sandwich a la Plaines." The sandwich, unfortunately, costs $9.50, which hardly is in the spirit of Carter's economy drive. Maybe you get a little jelly with it.

Q: What's happened to Bud Cort, that strange little actor who was so good with Ruth

Gordon in the film "Harold and Maude"? — S.J., Eugene, Ore.

A: Though "Harold and Maude" has become an underground cult classic, playing months and months in some revival houses around the country, Bud doesn't seem to get many job offers. He did a short called "Bernice Bobs Her Hair," with Shelley Duvall last summer (it's based on an F. Scott Fitzgerald short story), and the last we heard he had taken up residence, with, believe it or not, Groucho Marx and Groucho's steady companion, Erin Fleming, in Beverly Hills.

CQ Congress Votes

BY CONGRESSIONAL QUARTERLY

WASHINGTON — Votes of area members of Congress on key roll calls for the week ending March 11 were:

SENATE

Warnke nomination — By a 58-40 vote, the Senate confirmed President Carter's nomination of Paul C. Warnke to head the U.S. delegation to the strategic arms limitation (SALT) talks with the Russians. The vote in favor of the nomination, however, was less than the two-thirds Senate majority that would be necessary to approve a new SALT treaty.

Opponents charged Warnke's long public record of opposition to many U.S. weapons programs undercut his credibility as a negotiator and indicated that he was a poor judge of Soviet aims and weaponry.

Supporters insisted that the opponents were quoting out of context recommendations which Warnke had made at various points over an eight-year period, and that the President was entitled to have the negotiator of his choice.

Voting to confirm Warnke as SALT negotiator: Riegle (D).
Voting against confirming: Griffin (R).

Haley Honored

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has honored author Alex Haley, who wrote the novel "Roots."

It unanimously adopted a resolution Monday in tribute to "his exceptional achievement."

The resolution was sponsored by Sen. John Glenn, D-Ohio.

Water projects amendment — By a 65-24 vote, the Senate adopted an amendment to a public works bill intended to force President Carter to spend funds appropriated by Congress for 19 water projects. The administration had proposed no funds for the projects, mainly dams and irrigation facilities located in the West, in its amendments to the fiscal 1978 budget.

Backers of the water projects amendment argued that a warning to the President was necessary. They claimed only Congress could decide whether to cancel particular projects, and that the administration's list of 19 projects had been compiled "on the flimsiest kind of evidence."

Opponents of the water projects amendment essentially backed the administration's position that the projects posed serious economic and environmental questions that should be addressed before proceeding further. They made clear, however, that they did not support impoundment of appropriated funds.

Voting for water projects amendment: Griffin (R), Riegle (D).

HOUSE

Tax cuts — President Carter's plan for $50 rebates survived a Republican effort to kill it. The House rejected by a vote of 194-219 an attempt to drop rebates and provide instead cuts in individual tax rates in the lowest tax brackets.

Sponsors of the move argued the lower tax rates would bring more permanent improvements in the economy and that the $80 rebate was too small to be of any use and was difficult to administer.

Opponents of lower tax rates said the rebate was the best way to inject stimulus quickly into the economy and that in combination with other portions of the administration's package it would improve the nation's economy.

Voting for tax rate cuts in place of the tax rebate: Brown (R), Stockman (R), Vander Jagt (R), Rhodes (Minority Leader).

Voting against tax rate cuts: Blanchard (D), Conyers (D), Wright (Majority Leader).

Yankees' Blomberg Regains Bat Form

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

"It feels," Ron Blomberg said, "like you're a fan and you jumped up and hit a home run." Blomberg ought to know. For the past 1½ years, he has been little more than a fan.

Tuesday night, he became a hitter again. A career .302 hitter before suffering a shoulder injury that wiped him out in July, 1975 and limited him to one game and two at-bats last season, Blomberg unloaded a 400-foot two-run homer and a run-scoring grounder as the New York Yankees defeated the Minnesota Twins 9-4 in an exhibition game.

But it was much more than a meaningless spring game to the 28-year-old Blomberg, who is trying to recapture his spot as the Yankees' designated hitter against right-handed pitching.

"This was like a regular-season game for me. The home run felt good, it feels like my swing is coming back," said Blomberg, whose powerful, compact stroke is one of baseball's neatest swings. "If I show them I can swing the bat I'll probably be a part of this team."

Meanwhile, Buzz Capra, who used to pitch in New York for the Mets and is trying to make it back to Atlanta's starting rotation following arm surgery, worked three scoreless innings, allowing two hits, in the Braves' 6-1 triumph over the Houston Astros. Phil Niekro, the Atlanta starter, allowed one hit in four scoreless innings.

The world champion Cincinnati Reds split their squad and made two Canadian clubs happy. One team of Reds bowed to the Montreal Expos 5-2 — ex-Reds first baseman Tony Perez homered in his first game against his former team and later scored what proved to be the winning run — while the fledgling Toronto Blue Jays edged the Reds' other group 9-8 in 11 innings.

The Baltimore Orioles also split their squad with somewhat different results. They downed the Boston Red Sox 3-0 as Rudy May, Dennis Martinez and Fred Holdsworth combined on a two-hitter — Dwight Evans' two-out single in the eighth inning and Fred Lynn's double in the ninth — and also whipped the Texas Rangers 7-3 as Doug DeCinces slugged a tie-breaking two-run homer.

Elsewhere, Dave Kingman hit his second homer in two days as the New York Mets beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-2; Tim Lincecum's two-run homer gave the Detroit Tigers a 3-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies in 11 innings, and the Los Angeles Dodgers scored six times in the fifth inning — Rick Monday and Dave Lopes each drove in a pair — and trounced the St. Louis Cardinals 13-3.

Home runs by Ralph Garr and Larry Foster powered the Chicago White Sox to a 4-0 victory over Kansas City in the opener of a doubleheader, but the Royals took the nightcap 10-3 as John Wathan and Luis Silverio homered; Vida Blue allowed two hits in five scoreless innings as the Oakland A's beat the Cleveland Indians 4-2; Jerry Morales singled in the winning run as the Chicago Cubs edged the California Angels 4-3; the San Diego Padres got homers from George Hendrick and Jerry Turner in defeating the Milwaukee Brewers 7-4, and the Seattle Mariners scored five runs in the seventh inning and beat the San Francisco Giants 6-4.

Williams Champion

Kathy Williams took a first place in the 100 breaststroke for the St. Joe Aquatics Club in the Michigan A.A.U. state short course swim meet over the weekend at Royal Oak.

Kathy, competing in the 15 and over class, was timed in 1:11.19. She also placed fourth in the 200 breaststroke and seventh in the individual medley.

Nancy Chinery also was a standout with thirds in the 100 butterfly and 200 I.M., fourths in the 50 butterfly and 50 breaststroke and fifths in the 100 breaststroke and 100 I.M.

In the 11-12 division, June Russell had a seventh in the 50 freestyle and 11th in the 100 backstroke while Ingrid Wyse was 11th in the 500 freestyle.

Audrey Flood (15 and over) placed fifth in 200 butterfly, sixth in 100 butterfly, seventh in 1600 freestyle and 200 freestyle and 11th in 50 freestyle. Diana Grandy was eighth in the 200 backstroke, 10th in the 100 backstroke and 11th in the 100 butterfly while Kenna Finch placed 10th in the 200 freestyle and 11th in the 500 freestyle.

The local girls (Grandy, Williams, Flood, Finch) took third in the 15 and over 400 medley relay and fourth in the 400 freestyle relay. The team of Grandy, Williams, Finch and Goodhart was fifth in the 800 freestyle relay.

Red-Hot Atlanta Flames Burn Pittsburgh

From ASSOCIATED PRESS
When you're hot, you're hot ... and right now the Atlanta Flames are as torrid as their nickname.

Not only did they win their third National Hockey League game in four nights, but they blasted a club record 59 shots at the Pittsburgh net in a 7-3 rout of the Penguins Tuesday night.

The triumph moved the Flames eight points ahead of the New York Rangers — their victims twice over the weekend — in the battle for the third and final playoff berth in the Patrick Division.

In other action, the Vancouver Canucks pounded the Detroit Red Wings 7-1, the Toronto Maple Leafs downed the St. Louis Blues 4-1 and the Cleveland Barons whipped the Washington Capitals 5-1.

Eric Vail and Tom Lysiak each scored two first-period goals in a game that included a league mark. The NHL record came in the third period when Pittsburgh's Wayne Bianchin and Atlanta's Guy Chouinard scored just four seconds apart, the fastest goals ever by players from opposing teams.

Don Lever scored a goal and added three assists while Gerry O'Flaherty and Derek Sanderson each had a goal and two assists as the surging Canucks climbed into a third-place tie with idle Minnesota in the Smythe Division, just one point behind second-place Chicago.

Second-period goals by Lanny McDonald — his 41st of the season — and Jim McKenny sparked Toronto over St. Louis. McDonald's goal snapped a 1-1 tie and came just six seconds after St. Louis' Brian Sutter was sent to the penalty box. McKenny fired a 30-footer past St. Louis goalie Doug Grant with 1:46 left in the period with both teams a man short.

Whitney Widig and Brent Meeke each had a goal and an assist for Cleveland. The Barons wrapped it up with three goals in 87 seconds early in the third period, by Bob Girard, Widig and Rich Hampton.

SOME THINGS that modern packaging can never replace: sauerkraut in a barrel; beer in a keg, and sold by the pitcher (growler); cheese cut from a huge wheel and cotton candy in a paper cornucopia. . . .
Folklore: If your nose itches three times in an hour, it's a sign that rain is coming. . . .
Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) at his best is unselfish, devoted, lovable, demanding little and giving much — eager always to sacrifice for others. . . . It is claimed that a person's walk will indicate his character. More than usual swinging of the arms says he's ambitious. If he walks hard on his heels, he's honest and courageous. And if he walks on his toes, he's shy! . . .
Graphology Note: When "i" dots are all different shapes, sometimes like little crescents or semi-circle or wiggly lines, they reveal the writer's sense of humor.

BEAUTY HINT from Elke Sommer: Warm compresses of lemon juice and hot water help remove circles from under the eyes. . . .
Overworked Expression: "Eat your heart out." . . .
Famous Last Words: "We can take the children to this movie — I'm sure there's no foul language or nudity in it." . . .
Bar-Snooping: At The Assembly Steakhouse: A squirt of club soda in a martini will give it more zest. . . .
Remembered Quotes — Françoise Sagan (1957): "Men have more problems than women. In the first place, they have to put up with women!" . . .
Illinois motorists, stopped for speeding, may soon be able to pay their fines with a credit card. A tentatively approved plan calls for policemen to have credit card machines in their cars. . . . You can bet the movie on TV is a real oldie if the actor-director says, "I don't think it's serious, but I gave her a sedative and I'll drop in later to see how she's doing."

KITCHEN-SNOOPING: For a treat, add one can of fruit cocktail to coleslaw prepared with sour cream (Christie's, NYC). . . . A little olive oil added to salted water, when cooking spaghetti, will keep strands from sticking together (Riviera, Vegas). . . . Sautéed Edam cheese slices topped with fried eggs makes a tasty breakfast dish (Brasserie, NYC).

TALK about movie-buff stamina, Beate John Lennon has seen "2001, A Space Odyssey" more than 50 times and he still keeps seeking it out! . . . Did you know that Hawaii was originally known and so recorded by Captain Cook as "Owhy-he"? . . . I forgot who made this comment: "Baby sitting is a delicate art that requires waking up just before the parents come home." . . .
More Lucky Days and Numbers: Cancer — Monday and two (2); Leo — Sunday and one (1); Virgo — Wednesday and five (5).

HELLMAN: Happy with Fonda as her

Ron Ziegler Making Use Of Contacts At The Top

Q: Whatever happened to Nixon's fast-talking press secretary, Ron Ziegler? — L.M., Little Rock, Ark.

A: Like any good politico, Ron's making the most of the contacts he made during his days at the top. At the moment, he's shuttling between Washington and Damascus for the giant Bechtel engineering firm — making deals to lay oil pipelines in the Middle East. Ron bumped into Secretary of State Cy Vance's party at the Meridien hotel in Damascus last month and tried to give pointers to Hoddging Carter. Vance's press spokesman, Carter wasn't interested.

Q: Is Lillian Hellman happy about Jane Fonda playing her in the film version of "Julia"? — N.D., Andover, Mass.

A: Hellman says it never occurred to her that she would be portrayed on the screen as herself. Rather, she hoped the screen version would use a fictionalized name in place of her real one. However, she says she's happy about Fonda getting the role, though originally she suggested Lauren Bacall, whom the producers turned down for not being the right age. Now the famous writer is anxious that the film be a good one and faithful to her true, tragic adventure in pre-World War II Europe.

FAME HELPS: Since "Network," Faye Dunaway has

been offered practically every movie in town. She turned down "Fun With Dick and Jane," which is earning mixed reviews for Jane Fonda. She also rejected "Julia," which Fonda snapped up. Another Dunaway reject was "Six Weeks," the film Audrey Hepburn's going to do. Faye's price per movie has jumped to half a million now — a nice tidy raise over the $200,000 she collected for "Network."

Q: How does Secretary of State Cyrus Vance take to being surrounded by heavily-armed Secret Service agents? — R.M., Dallas

A: He takes to it so little that he's just quietly called off the troops. From now on, Vance will be guarded only by a couple of lightly armed State Department men. Incidentally, Cy drove his Secret Service agents crazy in Saudi Arabia last month by taking off without any security for a two-hour drive with Foreign Minister Koming Saud. Saud himself drove the open car, Vance sat in the front seat, and they chatted away.

BOOKS YOU'LL NEVER SEE: The book publishing firm of W.W. Norton has in its files a 10-year-old contract with a Prof. Henry Kissinger to write an elementary textbook on

HALEY: Don't look for the book

American history. And Viking House has an ancient agreement with one Alex Haley to do a book for its junior series called "The History of a Race." Strictly speaking, Henry and Alex should take time out to write these books before getting on to bigger things. But don't bet on it. Things just don't work that way.

SANDWICH SPECIAL: The luxurious San Souci restaurant in Washington, D.C., where all the tippy-top people dine on expensive French food, has gotten on the Carter bandwagon. The menu now features a "Peanut Butter Sandwich a la Plains." The sandwich, unfortunately, costs $9.50, which hardly is in the spirit of Carter's economy drive. Maybe you get a little jelly with it.

Gordon in the film "Harold and Maude"? — S.J., Eugene, Ore.

A: Though "Harold and Maude" has become an underground cult classic, playing months and months in some revival houses around the country, Bud doesn't seem to get many job offers. He did a short called "Bernice Bobs Her Hair," with Shelley Duvall last summer (it's based on an F. Scott Fitzgerald short story), and the last we heard he had taken up residence, with, believe it or not, Groucho Marx and Groucho's steady companion, Erin Fleming, in Beverly Hills.

SENATE
Warnke nomination — By a 58-40 vote, the Senate confirmed President Carter's nomination of Paul C. Warnke to head the U.S. delegation to the strategic arms limitation (SALT) talks with the Russians. The vote in favor of the nomination, however, was less than the two-thirds Senate majority that would be necessary to approve a new SALT treaty.

Opponents charged Warnke's long public record of opposition to many U.S. weapons programs undercut his credibility as a negotiator and indicated that he was a poor judge of Soviet aims and weaponry.

Supporters insisted that the opponents were quoting out of context recommendations which Warnke had made at various points over an eight-year period, and that the President was entitled to have the negotiator of his choice.

Voting to confirm Warnke as SALT negotiator: Riegle (D).
Voting against confirming: Griffin (R).

Water projects amendment — By a 65-24 vote, the Senate adopted an amendment to a public works bill intended to force President Carter to spend funds appropriated by Congress for 19 water projects. The administration had proposed no funds for the projects, mainly dams and irrigation facilities located in the West, in its amendments to the fiscal 1978 budget.

Backers of the water projects amendment argued that a warning to the President was necessary. They claimed only Congress could decide whether to cancel particular projects, and that the administration's list of 19 projects had been compiled "on the flimsiest kind of evidence."

Opponents of the water projects amendment essentially backed the administration's position that the projects posed serious economic and environmental questions that should be addressed before proceeding further. They made clear, however, that they did not support impoundment of appropriated funds.

Voting for water projects amendment: Griffin (R), Riegle (D).

rebate was too small to be of any use and was difficult to administer.

Opponents of lower tax rates said the rebate was the best way to inject stimulus quickly into the economy and that in combination with other portions of the administration's package it would improve the nation's economy.

Voting for tax rate cuts in place of the tax rebate: Brown (R), Stockman (R), Vander Jagt (R), Rhodes (Minority Leader).

Voting against tax rate cuts: Blanchard (D), Conyers (D), Wright (Majority Leader).

Parent-Teacher Conferences Slated At Most BH Schools

The Benton Harbor school district has scheduled parent-teacher conferences for Thursday, March 17, at its three junior high schools and announced a change of dates for similar conferences in elementary schools.

Parent-teacher conferences at elementary schools will be Monday through Wednesday, March 28-30, the district announced. Students will be dismissed at 10:30 a.m. on each day. Elementary conferences originally were planned for late March and early April.

Parent-teacher conferences Thursday at the junior high schools are as follows:

Benton Harbor junior high, 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and noon to 3:15 p.m.; Fairplain junior high, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.; and Hull school, 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and noon to 3:15 p.m.

Junior high students will be dismissed at 10:15 a.m.

Schools Supl. Richard F. Helser advised parents to make a list in advance of things they want to discuss with teachers.

Helser said schools have established individual conference times with parents. He asked parents to contact their children's schools directly for further information.

Helser also reminded that full school days are planned for March 31 and April 1, before spring vacation, which begins at the close of school Friday, April 1. Students will return to classes Monday, April 11.

A BETTER WAY TO COOK!

Select the one best way to cook your favorite dishes better - with the new Litton combination microwave range. Cook with a combination of microwave speed and conventional heat in one oven. Or cook with microwave only. Or conventional baking and broiling.

Why combine microwave and conventional cooking?

Simply because the two in combination cook better as one. Microwaves penetrate the food and cook quickly; conventional heat browns-in crispness.

SOME THINGS that modern packaging can never replace: sauerkraut in a barrel; beer in a keg, and sold by the pitcher (growler); cheese cut from a huge wheel and cotton candy in a paper cornucopia.

Folklore: If your nose itches three times in an hour, it's a sign that rain is coming.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) at his best is unselfish, devoted, lovable, demanding little and giving much — eager always to sacrifice for others.

It is claimed that a person's walk will indicate his character. More than usual swinging of the arms says he's ambitious. If he walks hard on his heels, he's honest and courageous. And if he walks on his toes, he's shy!

Graphology Note: When "i" dots are all different shapes, sometimes like little crescents or semi-circle or wiggly lines, they reveal the writer's sense of humor.

BEAUTY HINT from Elke Sommer: Warm compresses of lemon juice and hot water help remove circles from under the eyes.

Overworked Expression: "Eat your heart out."

Famous Last Words: "We can take the children to this movie — I'm sure there's no foul language or nudity in it."

Bar-Snooping at The Assembly Steakhouse: A squirt of club soda in a martini will give it more zest.

Remembered Quotes — Francoise Sagan (1957): "Men have more problems than women. In the first place, they have to put up with women!"

Illinois motorists, stopped for speeding, may soon be able to pay their fines with a credit card. A tentatively approved plan calls for policemen to have credit card machines in their cars.

You can bet the movie on TV is a real oldie if the actor-doctor says, "I don't think it's serious, but I gave her a sedative and I'll drop in later to see how she's doing."

KITCHEN-SNOOPING: For a treat, add one can of fruit cocktail to coleslaw prepared with sour cream (Christo's, NYC).

A little olive oil added to salted water, when cooking spaghetti, will keep strands from sticking together (Riviera, Vegas).

Sauteed Edam cheese slices topped with fried eggs makes a tasty breakfast dish (Brasserie, NYC).

TALK about movie-buff stamina, Beatle John Lennon has seen "2001, A Space Odyssey" more than 50 times and he still keeps seeking it out!

Did you know that Hawaii was originally known and so recorded by Captain Cook as "O-why-he"? ... I forgot who made this comment: "Baby sitting is a delicate art that requires waking up just before the parents come home."

More Lucky Days and Numbers: Cancer — Monday and two (2); Leo — Sunday and one (1); Virgo — Wednesday and five (5).

Sears highway passenger tire warranty

Full warranty during first 25% of usable treadlife

If the tire fails apparently due to a defect in material or workmanship during the first 25% of the original usable tread (original tread less 2/32"), Sears will replace the tire, free of charge, or refund the purchase price.

Limited warranty

If the tire fails apparently due to a defect in material or workmanship after 25% of the tread is worn, and for the remaining 75% of the original usable tread, Sears will replace the tire or give you a refund, charging you only the proportion of the current price plus Federal Excise Tax that represents the portion of the usable tread used.

Tread wearout: If the tread wears out (2/32" or less remaining) before you receive the miles specified, Sears will, at its option, either replace the tire or give a refund, charging in either case the proportion of the current price plus Federal Excise Tax that represents the ratio of miles of usage actually received to the miles specified. This does not apply to wearout caused by improper inflation, misalignment, or failure to use and maintain the tire as recommended.

To obtain warranty service, simply return the tire to the nearest Sears store throughout the United States.

Holdup Suspects Bound For Trial

Three men accused of robbing the Arco gas station on Napier avenue, Benton township, March 3 were bound over to Berrien Circuit court yesterday on charges of armed robbery.

Bound over were Steve L. Bailey, 18, of 718 Lions Park drive, St. Joseph; Wendall O. Wyatt, 21, of 329 Pipestone street, Benton Harbor; and Thomas P. Moore, 19, of Medford, Mass.

All three were returned to jail in lieu of $25,000 bond for Moore and $10,000 each for Wyatt and Bailey.

In testimony yesterday, Joe Gladotti, the station attendant, identified Moore as the man who entered the station armed with a sawed-off shotgun and took about $125 cash, according to Judge John T. Hammond, who presided over the hearing.

Further testimony implicated Bailey as the driver of the get-away car and Wyatt as a passenger in the car, according to Judge Hammond.

Bailey and Moore were reported to be absent without leave from the Navy's USS Ainsworth of New York, according to state police.

Also bound over was James J. Jones, 37, of 365 Territorial road, Benton Harbor, on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon — a rifle — against Frank Joshua in Benton Harbor Jan. 22.

Demanding preliminary examinations were:

Robert C. Matthews, 26, of 537 Columbus avenue, Benton Harbor, on a charge of breaking and entering a house in Benton Harbor March 8.

Sentenced were:

Terry O. Kyles, 22, of 647 East High street, Benton Harbor, 90 days jail for assault and battery on a two-year-old boy Nov. 13 and 14. The charge had been reduced from child cruelty.

A co-defendant, Clintonia Randolph, 20, also of 647 East High street, was sentenced to $200 fine and costs and two years probation for assault and battery against the child. Her charge had been reduced from aggravated assault.

The boy is Miss Randolph's nephew for whom the two were babysitting when the alleged assaults occurred, according to the prosecutor's office.

Reginald L. Williams, 21, of 1025 Pavone street, Benton Harbor, 45 days for attempted petty larceny — money from a

Gary L. Hager, 21, of 413 Snow road, Berrien Springs, three days, $500 and two years probation for use of amphetamines in Lake township March 4.

Randy W. Nellis, 23, of Muskegon, $82 for use of marijuana and possession of an open intoxicant in a motor vehicle in Watervliet township Dec. 8.

Sentenced for reckless driving were Dennis Bridgeman, 20, of 800 McMillister avenue, Benton Harbor, $100 and six months probation; and Mark A. Krieger, 18, of 434 Lake street, Bridgman, $150.

Lawton Okays Higher Budget

LAWTON — A fiscal 1977-78 budget of $240,000, which is $20,000 more than this year's expenditures, was approved by the Lawton village council last night.

Councilmen said much of the increase was due to rising costs, particularly utilities. The budget also includes 20 cent per hour pay raises for five hourly employees.

Anticipated revenue includes $118,050 from local taxes; $550 from licenses and permits; $71,500 from state and federal sources; $8,800 in reimbursed administrative costs for sewer and streets programs; and $41,000 in other revenue. The latter figure includes a carryover of $33,655 from this year's budget.

General government costs are budgeted at $131,785; police at $53,600; and other functions (including cemetery, streets, park and insurance costs) at $54,815.

The council also voted to keep the property tax millage rate at the current level of 14.1 mills. That figure includes 13.1 mills for general operation, .9 mill for debt retirement, and .1 mill for ambulance service.

In other areas, the council voted 4-2 to approve the facilities plan for a proposed $8 million Paw Paw area sewage treatment system. Also included in the plan are Paw Paw township, and parts of Paw Paw village and Waverly and Autwerp townships.

Approval of the plan does not necessarily obligate Lawton village toward constructing its share of the system. The village's portion, if approved, would include expansion of its wastewater treatment plant and extension of sewers generally to areas on the northwest side of town.

Councilman Burl Unrath and Marshall Sanderson voted against the plan, saying they did not know enough about it. Voting in favor were Russell Hackenberg, Clifford Alwater, Donald Birely and Warren Conklin.

Council also authorized the fire board to make exhaust and brake repairs on three fire trucks and approved the purchase of two walkie-talkies for the department at a total cost of about $1,000.

The fire department was also given permission to hold a parade and fireworks display on July 3 and to flush water hydrants on April 11.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Former Solicitor General Robert H. Bork, who fired Watergate Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox on orders from then-President Richard M. Nixon, is returning to Yale Law School to teach.

Free Ride Ends In County Jail

BY DENNIS COGSWELL
Paw Paw Bureau

PAW PAW — Two Albin men looking for a free ride to the Indiana state line ended up instead yesterday with a one-way ticket to the Van Buren county jail.

Roy L. Edwards, 20, and John J. Colon, 18, were sentenced by Judge William C. Buhl to spend 90 days apiece in jail after pleading guilty to charges of filing a false report with police.

State police at Paw Paw reported they were called to a Hartford gas station Monday night to investigate a report of a stolen car. Officers said that when they arrived, Edwards and Colon told them they had picked up three hitchhikers on I-94 who had pulled a gun on them and then stolen their car.

Police said they became suspicious when one man told them the car theft occurred between Battle Creek and Marshall, and the other said it happened about five miles from Hartford.

Edwards and Colon later admitted, police said, that they had been hitchhiking from Albion to Chicago and had hoped that after they had told troopers that their car was stolen, police might give them a ride to the Indiana state line.

Demanding preliminary examinations in other cases were:

Allen Lee Baldwin, 23, Kalamazoo, on a charge of unlawfully using an automobile belonging to Bernice Mae Grier, 108 West Willow, Bloomingdale, Sunday in Gobles. Bond was set at $1,500 pending a March 22 hearing.

James M. Gray, 20, 408 North Franklin, Lawton, on a charge of attempted larceny from a motor vehicle, a CB radio from a truck belonging to Paul Harris, 306 North Railroad, Lawton, on Monday night. Gray was released on his own recognizance pending a March 22 hearing.

Wendell Ray Hammons, 35, Romulus, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, a .38-caliber pistol, in a semi-truck on I-94 in Paw Paw township Monday. A March 22 hearing was ordered and Hammons released on his own recognizance.

The Benton Harbor school district has scheduled parent-teacher conferences for Thursday, March 17, at its three junior high schools and announced a change of dates for similar conferences in elementary schools.

Parent-teacher conferences at elementary schools will be Monday through Wednesday, March 28-30, the district announced. Students will be dismissed at 10:30 a.m. on each day. Elementary conferences originally were planned for late March and early April.

Parent-teacher conferences Thursday at the junior high schools are as follows:

Benton Harbor junior high, 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and noon to 3:15 p.m.; Fairplain junior high, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.; and Hull school, 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and noon to 3:15 p.m. Junior high students will be dismissed at 10:15 a.m.

Schools Supt. Richard F. Helser advised parents to make a list in advance of things they want to discuss with teachers.

Helser said schools have established individual conference times with parents. He asked parents to contact their children's schools directly for further information.

Helser also reminded that full school days are planned for March 31 and April 1, before spring vacation, which begins at the close of school Friday, April 1. Students will return to classes Monday, April 11.

Travelogue Visits Mexico

"Viva Mexico," the Twin City Camera club's next film in the Travel and Adventure series, takes viewers to the Sierra Madre mountains, Mayan temples and modern resort towns such as Acapulco and Puerto Vallarta.

The travelogue will be shown Sunday at 2:30 p.m. and Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the St. Joseph high school auditorium.

The film was compiled by Romain Wilhelmsen, an East Lansing man, during some 20 trips to Mexico.

Wilhelmsen takes viewers to the colorful country where the contrasting terrain reflects the variety of fun awaiting the traveler. More than 6,000 miles of coastline are bathed by the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific ocean. Mountain ranges along the east and west coast shadow a high plateau where climates range from desert to snowy peaks. The rivers of the tropics, the lazy beaches along the coast, cool and sunny lake areas, canyons and mountains are contrasting parts of "Viva Mexico."

Back To School

ESSEXVILLE, Mich. (AP) — The Kern generating plant operated by Consumers Power Co. has been returned to service after a two-month shutdown, the utility said Tuesday. The plant had been down for maintenance and installation of anti-pollution equipment.

Holdup Suspects Bound For Trial

Three men accused of robbing the Arco gas station on Napier avenue, Benton township, March 3 were bound over to Berrien Circuit court yesterday on charges of armed robbery.

They were bound over following a joint preliminary examination in Berrien District court.

Bound over were Steve L. Bailey, 18, of 718 Lions Park drive, St. Joseph; Wendall O. Wyatt, 21, of 529 Pipestone street, Benton Harbor; and Thomas P. Moore, 19, of Medford, Mass.

All three were returned to jail in lieu of $25,000 bond for Moore and $10,000 each for Wyatt and Bailey.

In testimony yesterday, Joe Ghidotti, the station attendant, identified Moore as the man who entered the station armed with a sawed-off shotgun and took about $125 cash, according to Judge John T. Hammond, who presided over the hearing.

Further testimony implicated Bailey as the driver of the get-away car and Wyatt as a passenger in the car, according to Judge Hammond.

Bailey and Moore were reported to be absent without leave from the Navy's USS Ainsworth of New York, according to state police.

Also bound over was James J. Jones, 37, of 365 Territorial road, Benton Harbor, on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon — a rifle — against Frank Joshua in Benton Harbor Jan. 22.

Demanding preliminary examinations were:

Jimmy Norman, 29, of 895 Pavone street, Benton Harbor, on a charge of breaking and entering a car wash in Benton township Jan. 12.

Robert C. Matthews, 26, of 537 Columbus avenue, Benton Harbor, on a charge of breaking and entering a house in Benton Harbor March 8.

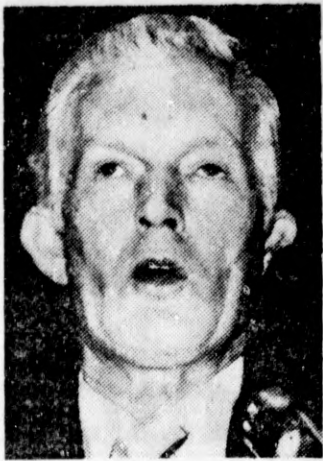

Sentenced were:

Terry O. Kyles, 22, of 647 East High street, Benton Harbor, 90 days jail for assault and battery on a two-year-old boy Nov. 13 and 14. The charge had been reduced from child cruelty.

A co-defendant, Clinteria Randolph, 20, also of 647 East High street, was sentenced to $200 fine and costs and two years probation for assault and battery against the child. Her charge had been reduced from aggravated assault.

The boy is Miss Randolph's nephew for whom the two were babysitting when the alleged assaults occurred, according to the prosecutor's office.

Reginald L. Williams, 21, of 1025 Pavone street, Benton Harbor, 45 days for attempted petty larceny — money from a

Gary L. Hager, 21, of 413 Snow road, Berrien Springs, three days, $500 and two years probation for use of amphetamines in Lake township March 4.

Randy W. Nellis, 23, of Muskegon, $82 for use of marijuana and possession of an open intoxicant in a motor vehicle in Watervliet township Dec. 9.

Sentenced for reckless driving were Dennis Bridgman, 20, of 860 McAllister avenue, Benton Harbor, $100 and six months probation; and Mark A. Krieger, 18, of 4341 Lake street, Bridgman, $150.

Lawton Okays Higher Budget

LAWTON — A fiscal 1977-78 budget of $240,000, which is $20,000 more than this year's expenditures, was approved by the Lawton village council last night.

Councilmen said much of the increase was due to rising costs, particularly utilities. The budget also includes 20 cent per hour pay raises for five hourly employees.

Anticipated revenue includes $118,050 from local taxes; $550 from licenses and permits; $71,500 from state and federal sources; $8,800 in reimbursed administrative costs for sewer and streets programs; and $41,000 in other revenue. The latter figure includes a carryover of $33,685 from this year's budget.

General government costs are budgeted at $131,785; police at $53,600; and other functions (including cemetery, streets, park and insurance costs) at $54,615.

The council also voted to keep the property tax millage rate at the current level of 14.4 mills. That figure includes 13.1 mills for general operation, .9 mill for debt retirement, and .4 mill for ambulance service.

In other areas, the council voted 4-2 to approve the facilities plan for a proposed $9 million Paw Paw area sewage treatment system. Also included in the plan are Paw Paw township, and parts of Paw Paw village and Waverly and Antwerp townships.

Approval of the plan does not necessarily obligate Lawton village toward constructing its share of the system. The village's portion, if approved, would include expansion of its wastewater treatment plant and extension of sewers generally to areas on the northwest side of town.

Councilmen Burl Unrath and Marshall Sanderson voted against the plan, saying they did not know enough about it. Voting in favor were Russell Hackenberg, Clifford Atwater, Donald Bitely and Warren Conklin.

Council also authorized the fire board to make exhaust and brake repairs on three fire trucks and approved the purchase of two walkie-talkies for the department at a total cost of about $1,000.

The fire department was also given permission to hold a parade and fireworks display on July 3 and to flush water hydrants on April 11.

"Viva Mexico," the Twin City Camera club's next film in the Travel and Adventure series, takes viewers to the Sierra Madre mountains, Mayan temples and modern resort towns such as Acapulco and Puerto Vallarta.

The travelogue will be shown Sunday at 2:30 p.m. and Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the St. Joseph high school auditorium.

Tickets, on sale at the door, cost $1.50 for adults and $1 for students.

The film was compiled by Romain Wilhelmsen, an East Lansing man, during some 20 trips to Mexico.

Wilhelmsen takes viewers to the colorful country where the contrasting terrain reflects the variety of fun awaiting the traveler. More than 6,000 miles of coastline are bathed by the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific ocean. Mountain ranges along the east and west coast shadow a high plateau where climates range from desert to snowy peaks. The rivers of the tropics, the lazy beaches along the coast, cool and sunny lake areas, canyons and mountains are contrasting parts of "Viva Mexico."

Back To School

ESSEXVILLE, Mich. (AP) — The Karn generating plant operated by Consumers Power Co. has been returned to service after a two-month shutdown, the utility said Tuesday. The plant had been down for maintenance and installation of anti-pollution equipment.

ANCIENT MAYAN RUINS: The camera of Romain Wilhelmsen captures the peaks, beaches and history of Mexico in "Viva Mexico" which is the next program in the Twin City Camera club's Travel and Adventure series.

MOUNTIES PROTECT PROTESTOR: Scores of Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers keep picketing fishermen from helicopter of seal hunt protestor Brian Davies in St. Anthony, Newfoundland, Tuesday, while mechanics try to get it started. (CP Wirephoto)

Canada Seal Hunt Called 'Massacre'

SEPT-ILES, Canada (AP) — French film actress Brigitte Bardot said today she wants to meet Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau to persuade him to stop the annual baby seal hunt.

Miss Bardot, who arrived in this isolated northern Quebec community on her way to the scene of the controversial hunt, declared:

"The whole world has risen up against the baby seal hunt and Canada runs the risk of diplomatic conflicts if the situation doesn't change."

She claimed the present rate of killing would finish off the last of the seals by 1955. The animals belong to the natural heritage of Canada, she said, and the government must stop "the massacre."

The actress was to visit the scene of the hunt today and then fly to Ottawa to meet with Trudeau if he can fit her into his schedule.

She said some Europeans have stopped buying seal fur coats, and numerous protests are held throughout Europe against the killing of the baby seals.

President Valéry Giscard d'Estaing has decided to ban import of seal pelts into France, she said.

If Canada stopped the hunt, she told reporters gathered in her hotel room, other countries such as Norway would follow suit and extermination of the seals would be prevented.

Meanwhile, at St. Anthony, Newfoundland, 80 Mounted Police reinforcements were brought in to keep the peace between seal hunters and conservationists.

The Greenpeace Foundation from Vancouver said it is considering filing a charge of criminal negligence against a sealing ship owner because of the injury to a Greenpeace member Tuesday while protesting the hunt.

Paul Watson, leader of the protest group in St. Anthony, apparently suffered a dislocated shoulder when he was winched up to the Canadian sealing ship Martin Karlson while dangling from a pile of seal skins to which he had handcuffed himself.

The Canadian fisheries service reported the opening day kill on Tuesday totaled 11,930 seals. Canadian vessels accounted for 6,000 and Norwegian vessels 5,900. Quotas for the season are 62,000 skins for Canada and 35,000 for Norway, the only other nation taking part in the hunt.

The family of Mr. Johnson wishes to thank the love and kindness shown toward us during our bereavement. Especially the kind words from the Rev. Ellis, Rev. Brown & Rev. Bracken and also Mrs. Prince.

Howard Johnson, Gladys Norwood, Bernice Ford

THE FAMILY OF NITE ROBINSON

Would like to extend sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy received at the time of his death.

Mate was deeply touched and encouraged by the countless expressions of sympathy given to him during the years of his illness by the people of the community in which he spent the major part of his life. It is not possible for us to acknowledge each individual kindness. However, we would like to say a special thank you to:

1. The Community Church of God and Christ No. 1
2. The Pillers Rest Baptist Church
3. The Backster 14 Club
4. The Goshippers Hunting Club
5. The Luther Rice Seminary
6. The B.H. and J. Social Club, Chicago, Illinois

8. Bronson Hospital Staff, Kalamazoo, Michigan
9. Barnes Hospital Staff, Kalamazoo, Michigan
10. Dr. Park, Dr. Haddad, Dr. Green, Dr. Block, Dr. Bernos & Dr. Argeres

It is difficult to express feelings of gratitude but perhaps they can best be described by paraphrasing Nite's own words, made at one of several benefits given in his honor. He said that he felt extremely fortunate to be able to receive his flowers (expressions of kindness) while he was still able to appreciate them.

These are the people who loved him and he loved them. He said that he had a rest for the first time in his life, living it to the fullest. His courage and strength will always be an inspiration. Mate gave everything he had, no one could ask for more.

Again, thank you all. Your generosity will never be forgotten.

NEWS OF MARKETS

Market Heading Up Again

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market headed up again today, opening higher for the third straight session.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks rose about a fraction in the early going, adding to its two-day advance.

Gainers outnumbered losers by nearly 2-1 among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts felt the market's performance, advancing this week with stepped up trading, was drawing investors back into the market.

In addition, traders got a boost from some good economic news after the market's close. The industrial production, which fell in January because of the weather, rebounded in February.

Today's early prices included Kresge, up 1/4 to 34; Xerox, down 1/4 to 49 1/2; and General Motors, ahead 3/8 to 72 1/2.

On Tuesday, the Dow Jones average, ahead by more than eight points during the day, was up 6.73 at 965.09 at the close.

Gainers outnumbered losers by nearly 2-1 on the NYSE.

Big Board volume reached 23.94 million shares, against 19.29 million Monday.

The NYSE's composite index was ahead 28 to 55.38.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index rose .45 at 111.59.

Jobless Rate Dips In 1976

WASHINGTON (AP) — The unemployment rate declined in all but four states during 1976, the Labor Department said Tuesday.

Michigan was one of five states that reported jobless rates over 10 per cent in January.

Michigan and the other four — California, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania — taken together accounted for nearly 40 per cent of the nation's unemployed, the Labor Department said.

The lowest unemployment rates in January were in the geographic center of the nation. The rates were higher in the northeastern and Pacific states and states at the southwestern rim. The department said it was essentially the same geographic pattern that prevailed in 1976.

Five states reported relatively low unemployment of less than 5 per cent in January, with Nebraska the lowest at 3.8 per cent. The others were Kansas, Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming.

By contrast, 18 states reported jobless rates above the unadjusted national average of 8.3 per cent in January.

Throughout 1976, the department said only six states had jobless rates averaging below 4.5 per cent for the year, illustrating "the pervasiveness of the unemployment that affected the nation last year."

However, in all but four states — South Dakota, Louisiana, Idaho and Alaska — unemployment was less severe this January than a year earlier.

Bloomington Set To Pick Architect

BLOOMINGTON — Two meetings between the Bloomington school board and six different architects have been held here and a special board meeting has been set to choose an architect to design additions to the high school.

The board met with the architectural firms Monday and Tuesday to hear their proposals on costs, fees and type of construction for 10 new classrooms, a music room, drafting room and library materials center. The board last night set a special meeting for Monday, March 21, at 8 p.m. in the high school library to make a decision on an architect.

The school additions are being sought in order to allow the middle and high school relieve overcrowding which has necessitated split sessions at the high school and middle school for the past six years.

Firms under consideration include Binda Associates, Battle Creek; G.F. Diekema and associates, Adrian; Noordhoek, Kingscott Associates and Richard Prince Associates, all of Kalamazoo; and Davenport Associates, Grand Rapids.

Credit Union Assets Over $1.4 Million

The 1,474-member credit union elected George Pesko, Joseph Sineni and Larry Velthouse to the board of directors. Elected to the credit committee were Maria Eaton and Cecil Matlock.

Utilities Eye Gas From Coal

CHICAGO (AP) — Two of the nation's largest utilities, citing a projected doubling in the price of natural gas by 1981, have agreed to build the first half of a $1.2 billion coal-gasification plant in a small North Dakota town.

Spokesmen for subsidiaries of Peoples Gas Co. in Chicago and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. in Detroit said late Tuesday the plant is one of a handful of commercially feasible projects on the drawing boards in the United States to extract methane gas from coal.

The project would produce 137.5 million cubic feet per day of methane gas suitable for home use, a Peoples' Gas spokesman said.

Gas extracted from the coal would be used mainly in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin, the utilities said.

The preliminary pact between the two firms calls for first-phase construction totaling $600 million.

Canada Seal Hunt Called 'Massacre'

SEPT-ILES, Canada (AP) — French film actress Brigitte Bardot said today she wants to meet Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau to persuade him to stop the annual baby seal hunt.

Miss Bardot, who arrived in this isolated northern Quebec community on her way to the scene of the controversial hunt, declared:

"The whole world has risen up against the baby seal hunt and Canada runs the risk of diplomatic conflicts if the situation doesn't change."

She claimed the present rate of killing would finish off the last of the seals by 1985. The animals belong to the natural heritage of Canada, she said, and the government must stop "the massacre."

The actress was to visit the scene of the hunt today and then fly to Ottawa to meet with Trudeau if he can fit her into his schedule.

She said some Europeans have stopped buying seal fur coats, and numerous protests are held throughout Europe against the killing of the baby seals.

President Valéry Giscard d'Estaing has decided to ban import of seal pelts into France, she said.

If Canada stopped the hunt, she told reporters gathered in her hotel room, other countries such as Norway would follow suit and extermination of the seals would be prevented.

Meanwhile, at St. Anthony, Newfoundland, 80 Mounted Police reinforcements were brought in to keep the peace between seal hunters and conservationists.

The Greenpeace Foundation from Vancouver said it is considering filing a charge of criminal negligence against a sealing ship owner because of the injury to a Greenpeace member Tuesday while protesting the hunt.

Paul Watson, leader of the protest group in St. Anthony, apparently suffered a dislocated shoulder when he was winched up to the Canadian sealing ship Martin Karlsen while dangling from a pile of sealskins to which he had handcuffed himself.

The Canadian fisheries service reported the opening day kill on Tuesday totaled 11,930 seals. Canadian vessels accounted for 6,030 and Norwegian vessels 5,900. Quotas for the season are 62,000 skins for Canada and 35,000 for Norway, the only other nation taking part in the hunt.

chopped with a large hunk going to the fire dept. who handled 400 or so calls as opposed to in excess of 10,000 for the police? Very strange.

I for one was impressed with the approach St. Joseph city is taking to replace its retiring chief of police. The information given on each individual told the public something of each man's qualifications.

Maybe there's a lesson here for John Q. Public.

PICTURE SPURS HOSPITAL BEQUEST

Editor,
Since having had my picture in your paper as Shriner of the Year for Western Michigan, I was contacted by a gentleman who, having had polio himself as a child, wished to make a donation to the Shriners hospital for Crippled Children in Chicago through our Saladin Shrine foundation in Grand Rapids.

This gentleman had been in contact with our Grand Rapids office by phone and letter to learn just how to make this bequest, but he lacked the personal contact. Having seen my picture in your paper, he felt I was just the personal contact that he wanted. The average cost per patient in the 22 Shriners hospitals across the land is $2,050 and the bequest from this gentleman will care for several crippled children.
